

BCM Summer Missionary Qualifications

1. Mature Christians who are active members of Baptist and other evangelical churches. Students who are members of other evangelical churches should be supportive of Southern Baptist ministry and practice.
2. Leaders and active workers in Baptist Collegiate Ministry activities or local Baptist church activities.
3. Spiritually, physically, and emotionally healthy.
4. Willingness to go without receiving a salary. Some positions do receive honorariums. Others receive partial funding and will need to raise some of the finances for their mission experience.
5. Flexible and willing to serve others with a humble spirit.
6. Prospective BCM Missionaries must take seriously dates for applications to be submitted, participation in mission discovery days and attendance at Commissioning Service and Orientation.
