Theme: Building Healthy Families, Growing Strong Churches

Tuesday Morning, November 10

Pre-session music provided by Terry Wood, Music Missionary and member of Mt. Pisgah Church, Easley. Songs included: “No Not One,” “It’s Good and It’s God,” “My Savior’s Love,” “On Our Side,” and “I Just Want to Celebrate.”

Texts of resolutions and motions are printed as submitted without editorial changes. The Book of Reports is printed on pages R-3 – R-92.

1. Organization of the Convention. President Rudy Gray called the 189th Annual Meeting of the South Carolina Baptist Convention to order.

Enrollment and Credentials Committee. Chairman Jerry Sosebee moved that the 313 messengers and all subsequent messengers constitute the 189th Annual Session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention. The vote was taken, and the motion was adopted.

Order of Business Committee. Part I. On behalf of the committee, Chairman Darrell Thompson moved that the printed agenda become the official order of business and during the Annual Meeting messengers be limited to three minutes on discussion of any matter of business. The vote was taken, and the motion was adopted.

2. Introduction of Annual Meeting – Theme Interpretation. President Rudy Gray introduced the theme for this year’s Annual Meeting, “Building Healthy Families, Growing Strong Churches.” He said that God ordained the home before He ordained the church. The order of the Christian life is simple: God, family, and church. He said, “I hope you will be inspired and encouraged to build healthy families and grow strong churches. With God’s help we can, and by God’s grace we will.”

Theme Song – “Family Prayer Song” – Mark Powers, director, Music & Worship Office, led messengers in singing “Family Prayer Song,” and President Gray led in prayer.

3. Greetings to Messengers. Will Hall, Vice President of News Services, brought greetings on behalf of SBC Executive Committee.

4. Family Devotional. Bill McManus, professor, North Greenville University, talked about his passion for helping hurting families. He said passion is influenced by life experiences. Because of past experiences, his passion now is to train and encourage couples on staying married, and counseling engaged couples. He referenced scripture 2 Corinthians 1 and said that God often uses pain to prod us to become passionate about hurts. The God of all comfort provides a way to use healing to provide comfort for another.

5. Worship. Erik Shamblin, Minister of Music, Old Fort Church, Summerville, led messengers in singing “Majesty,” “Shout to the North,” and “Would You Bless our Homes and Families.”

6. Educational Ministries Reports.

Anderson University. Evans Whitaker, president, announced Anderson University will celebrate its centennial in 2011. Anderson University has been recognized for the following: named among the 25 best institutions within the Top Tier of U.S. News and World Report’s American’s Best Colleges in the South; named to the 2009 list of American’s 100 Best College Buys; and named as an “Up & Coming Institution” in America. Anderson’s overall enrollment increased 13.4% over fall 2008, and the University launched two additional graduate programs – the Master of Arts in Teaching, and the Master of Criminal Justice.

President Whitaker reported that in honor of Anderson University’s centennial a plaque will be placed at the school stating that Jesus Christ is the foundation of the University. He said that Anderson University offers students a real liberal arts education, communicates and preaches the gospel, and prepares leaders for the churches and prepares moral leaders for society. He said, “let us not forget the role of our Baptist universities and their centrality to the health and future of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, and the great potential they have to be an instrument in God’s hands in the future and to bring people to Himself.”

On behalf of the trustees, administration, faculty, staff, and students, President Whitaker thanked the Baptists of South Carolina for their faithfulness to the University’s work and invited messengers to join Anderson University to recommit to the great cause of intentionally higher Christian education and to Jesus Christ as both the center and circumference of everything.

North Greenville University. Messengers watched a video about North Greenville University. Jimmy Epting, president, introduced student Fadua Ahmed, from North Africa who was from a Muslim background. She shared her testimony and thanked everyone for praying, and for their support through the Cooperative Program.

President Epting said that all three Baptist universities are committed to one more hearing about Jesus Christ, one more getting saved, and one more graduating and reaching the world. He said because of the faithful support of South Carolina Baptists through the Cooperative Program, North Greenville University can be true to the Great Commission.

Charleston Southern University. Jairy Hunter, president, called attention to the University’s report on pages R75-R76 in the Convention Book of Reports. He said that Charleston Southern is all about integrating faith in learning, leading, and serving. He introduced David Driggers, minister of music at Memorial Church in St. George, and a graduate of Charleston Southern.

Driggers shared his testimony and thanked South Carolina Baptists for giving through the Cooperative Program.

7. Song – Loose Stone, from Barnwell, South Carolina sang, “Come, Home, America.”

8. Business Session. Tim Squires, messenger from Stono Church, John’s Island moved that the Order of Business be amended to include recognition of United States Military Veterans on Veterans Day, November 11, 2009, during the Wednesday morning session of this 189th Meeting of the SC Baptist Convention. President Gray announced there is a time on the Order of Business to recognize Veterans and is listed as “President’s Remarks” Wednesday morning.

Wayne Dickard, messenger from Northbrook Baptist Church in Boiling Springs, made the following motion: “I move that this convention instruct the Executive Board to set policy that insures future payroll employees hired to work at the Baptist Building be members in good standing of a Southern Baptist Church.” The motion was duly seconded.

This was referred to the Order of Business Committee.

Dickard presented the following motion: “I move that this body ask the current president of the South Carolina Baptist Convention to appoint a committee to study the merits of allowing the Convention President to also serve as the Executive Board President.” The motion was duly seconded.

This was referred to the Order of Business Committee.

9. Committee on Committees Report. Chairman Mike Hamlet called attention to the committee’s report on pages R-88 – R-89 in the Convention Book of Reports. On behalf of the committee, Chairman Hamlet moved adoption of the committee’s report. The vote was taken and the report was adopted.

10. White Oak Conference Center. Roger Orman, associate executive director, Communications and Mission Development Team, introduced some of the staff at White Oak Conference Center and distributed tokens for a complimentary milkshake at the Hub Café. Orman reported on recent additions and renovations at White Oak Conference Center. He gave an overview of Phase Two of the Master Plan as funds become available: five new missionary training villages; additional recreational equipment; three equestrian trails; RV Park, volunteer housing, and convert one motel into single sleeping units.

11. Song – Terry Wood sang, “Knight in this Day.”

Announcement. President Gray recognized Darrell Thompson for an announcement. Thompson said that the motions presented to the assembly by Wayne Dickard will be taken up at the 2:35 business session this afternoon.

12. Executive Board Report. President Gray recognized David Anderson, Executive Board Chairman. Anderson said that at the 2008 Annual Meeting, Quinn Hooks, pastor, Evergreen Church in Effingham, made the following motion: “That the Executive Committee at next year’s convention give a report on the feasibility of a possible time table for a move to a multi-site convention meeting to increase the opportunities and portals for South Carolina Baptists to participate.” The Order of Business Committee referred this motion to the Executive Board, and the Executive Board authorized a study group. The Executive Board approved the following recommendation: “In keeping with our limited assignment to examine the available technology, cost, and existing governing documents, our study group has determined that a multi-site convention is possible. However, the study group, while acknowledging the feasibility, recommends the Executive Board empower the Convention President to appoint a committee to further study the real impact both positive and negative such action would have on the operation and work of the convention, with full report and recommendation to be given at the 2010 annual meeting in Columbia.”

Anderson said that at the 2008 Annual Meeting, Murrill Boitnott, member at Edwards Road Church, Greenville made the following motion: “That the South Carolina Baptist Convention appoint a study committee to explore the possible ministry of providing residential care for developmentally disabled adults.” The Order of Business Committee referred this motion to the Executive Board. The Planning & Ministries Committee of the Executive Board approved the following recommendation: “To appoint a feasibility study committee of SC Baptist Convention providing residential care, and allow Executive Board Chairman David Anderson to appoint the subcommittee and bring a report at the 2010 Convention. The subcommittee will consist of three members from the Planning & Ministries Committee and one member each from Budget, Finance, and Audit Committee and the Administrative Committee.”

Anderson introduced Dennis Wilkins, chairman of the Budget, Finance, and Audit Committee of the Executive Board. Wilkins presented the 2010 South Carolina Baptist Convention Experience Kingdom Life budget recommendation of $32,180,000. Wilkins said there was a drop in Cooperative Program giving at the beginning of 2009. As a result, the Convention staff was asked to establish a spending plan that was 95% of the budgeted amount for 2009. Several staff vacancies were not filled to further reduce spending and to work within the actual funds being received. At mid-point of the year, Cooperative Program giving was consistently running 6% to 7% behind the budget goal.

Wilkins reported that the 2010 budget proposal is a Cooperative Program section of $32,000,000 and Cooperative Gifts section of $180,000 for a total South Carolina Baptist Convention budget of $32,180,000. This is a decrease of $2,070,000 or 6% compared to 2009. Convention staff will not receive a cost of living raise, and with increasing health insurance premiums, the insurance plan for Convention staff will be changed in 2010 and will have a higher deductible which will increase out of pocket cost of medical care for staff members. He reported that three Convention staff positions have been eliminated in the 2010 budget.

Wilkins reported that the Cooperative Program Advance Plan is in place through 2012. Although there is a decrease in the proposed 2010 budget the percentage of Cooperative Program gifts going to the Southern Baptist Convention will remain at 40.44%. Any Cooperative Program gifts that exceed Cooperative Program budget goal will be allocated 55% to the International Mission Board, 25% to the North American Mission Board, and 20% for scholarships for South Carolina Baptists participating in a mission’s project. This sends 80% of any Cooperative Program gifts beyond the budget goal outside of South Carolina.

Wilkins said that the financial support of every ministry and institution had to be reduced. If the economy improves, and receipts from the churches improve, then an increase to all ministries and institutions will be made in the next year’s budget. However, if the economy worsens, and reserves are depleted, the future of South Carolina Baptist ministries and institutions would be at risk. It is expected that $1,750,000 to $2,000,000 of the existing contingent reserves will be used this year. This will leave only nine weeks of contingent reserve on hand.

Wilkins referenced scripture Luke 14:28 and urged messengers to pray for the financial condition of South Carolina Baptist churches, ministries, and institutions to improve so that the glory of God may be revealed to the lost in the state, country, and around the world.

On behalf of the Executive Board, Wilkins moved for the adoption of the 2010 South Carolina Baptist Convention Experience Kingdom Life Budget as outlined on pages R41-R43 of the Convention Book of Reports.

Mike Moody, messenger, Honea Path First Baptist Church, presented the following motion: to amend the proposed 2010 SC Baptist Convention budget by adding 6% to each line item understanding that if the budget gifts are not sufficient the Executive Board can authorize the activation of the Contingency Reserve Fund to meet our budget commitments. This was duly seconded.

Moody spoke to his motion and said we are facing challenging economic times. He said that the Bible says that God does not give us a spirit of fear but has given us a spirit of power, love, and a sound mind and also reminds us that we are to walk by faith and not by sight. A number of years ago the Convention established a Contingency Reserve Fund to insure that the work of SC Baptist Convention and institutions would not suffer during times of economic downturn. He said that three years ago there was nearly $8 million in the Contingency Reserve Fund. In 2003 there was a decrease in Cooperative Program gifts due to an economic slowdown, and in December 2003 the Executive Board activated the Contingency Reserve Fund to meet budget requirements. The economy rebounded and gifts to the Cooperative Program increased as well as the Contingency Reserve Fund. Since the Contingency Reserve Fund is capped at one fourth of annual operating expenses, the Convention was able to provide some funds to the SC Ministries for the Aging to help their operations move into the black.

Moody said that the institutions have experienced decreases in investments. The Baptist students from our churches will be the ones who will experience diminished scholarship monies. Can we afford to defund our future leaders? The children at Connie Maxwell Children's Home will pay the price – if the proposed budget is adopted, they can't raise tuition. Residents at Bethea and Martha Franks retirement homes will feel the pinch.

Moody said Cooperative Program giving churches expect the Convention to walk forward and not backwards. "We can decide today if we are going to walk by sight or walk by faith. If we are going to be Kingdom minded individuals, and we are going to be true to the Great Commission – Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, and the utter most parts of the world – I would urge, not on our watch!"

Wilkins spoke against the motion saying that more than thirty years ago the Convention and Executive Board had the wisdom to create a Contingent Reserve. The Business & Financial Plan provides the specific guidelines for the reserve and how it may be utilized. The plan states the following: "The Executive Board Contingent Reserve is to be utilized only to provide emergency funds for operations of the Convention's overall program during a period of drastically decreased church gifts which may occur during a general economic recession or depression, or through other unusual emergencies." We had one in 2003, and we have one now – the difference is we do not see any type of turnaround in the economy. We will be drawing down Contingency Reserve by $2 million this year which leaves only 9 weeks of Contingency Reserve available. There is no indication at this moment that Cooperative Program gifts are increasing.

Overall Cooperative Program gifts have weakened. Contingency Reserve is there to be used and we are using it this year and hopeful we do not have to use next year under proposed budget, but due to uncertainty of the economy, we just don't know. Cooperative Program receipts have declined in 2009. For the period of November 2008 through October 2009, Cooperative Program gifts total $31, 602,967. Compared to the 2009 budget of $33,925,000, receipts in the last 12 months are $2,322,033 less than the budget goal. It is anticipated that at the end of 2009 Cooperative Program receipts will be more than $2 million short of the budget goal for the year.

Wilkins said there is a financial uncertainty for 2010, and recommended the adoption of the proposed 2010 budget, and give churches a chance to financially recover and then move the budget forward as income improves.

Wayne Dickard, messenger, Northbrook Church in Boiling Springs, asked if there is a plan in place that provides 80% of any funds received beyond budget goal to go outside of South Carolina.

Wilkins explained that came as a result from a motion on the floor at the 2007 annual meeting to begin to set in place a plan to move South Carolina giving to the Southern Baptist Convention to a 50/50 allocation. The Cooperative Program Advance Plan is in place through 2012. This plan allocates monies received beyond the budget as follows: International Mission Board – 55%; North American Mission Board – 25%; Scholarships for South Carolina Baptists participating in a mission's project – 20%.

The vote was taken on the amendment to the budget plan as proposed by Mike Moody. The amendment failed.

Moody said there seems to be a great deal of discussion on the part of some Executive Board members concerning the use and cost of outside consultants. Recently the Executive Board approved an expenditure of $1.5 million for cosmetic improvements at White Oak Conference Center. He said an explanation would be in order to this Convention concerning the cost, cost overruns, and the actual costs. He said the Executive Board needs to explain to the Convention about the decisions to engage a consulting company to do salary compensation studies, how much money has been spent and how much more is anticipated spending. Some Board members have estimated $10,000 in expenditures, but expenditures could inflate up to $60,000. Was competitive bidding a part of the process, and was the full Executive Board aware of the compensation study? The Executive Board has spent $1.5 million at White Oak Conference Center and expended monies on a salary study, yet the SC Baptist Convention staff will not realize a raise or a cost of living adjustment. He said that the Executive Board needs to be transparent to all the churches in the state that are the faithful Cooperative Program giving churches.

Moody presented the following motion: That the Convention instruct the Executive Board to explain the recent use of outside consultants and studies and their costs, and to stop the use of these consultants until after 2010, and then only if Cooperative Program giving has rebounded. The motion was duly seconded.

Wilkins said in response to Moody's question that the full Board is aware of details about the compensation studies as they worked through the committees and then on to the Board. He said that about 18 months ago, Austin asked him because of his past experience dealing with resort business and having been in development business, to spend some time at White Oak Conference Center. He did so, and his report was presented to Austin, the Budget, Finance, and Audit Committee, the Planning & Ministries Committee, and the full Board. There was $1.5 million available in fund reserves to do the work in Phase I of White Oak Conference Center's Master Plan. This process was started before the economy downturn. He said that White Oak Conference Center has been transformed and is more conducive for utilization by South Carolina Baptists today than in the past.

Moody asked what has been spent on the compensation study, and what will be spent?

Order of Business Committee Chairman Daryl Thompson announced that time for debate had expired and moved to extend the time for discussion an additional ten minutes. This was duly seconded. The vote was taken and the motion passed.

Anderson said Tom Swilley was Executive Board Chairman in 2008 and he appointed a committee to look into a salary study, and the Executive Board approved. The Compensation Study Committee was chaired by Tim Williams. The Committee secured the services of Donna Chisham, church administration consultant, and Craig Clonts. He said that the only meeting at this point has been an initial meeting to get an overall look of where we are at this point and made suggestions of where to go from here. It was then referred to the Administrative Committee. The Administrative Committee and Executive Board are in full compliance and full understanding of where we are. No monies have been budgeted to go to the next step.

Moody said, "So basically we have given them a blank check?" Anderson said that no final decision has been made. Moody asked, "Are there any estimates of the cost?" Anderson said not at this point. The compensation study was done because we want to look out for the convention staff and make sure we are where we need to be. Moody asked, "do you know how much was spent already?" Anderson said about $10,000 has been spent at this point to do a preliminary report for ideas on where we need to go, and to see if we are on the right track. He said we all agree our churches are in a crunch. He said that Austin is very stewardship minded and his heartbeat is to use every dollar possible coming into the Baptist Building to win people to the Lord Jesus Christ, and to treat people with respect, and we want to make sure we are doing the right thing.

Alan Quigley, pastor, South Main Street in Greenwood asked for point of clarity if outside consultants pertaining only to business administrative matters or also to ministry areas?

Moody explained outside consultants for business matters.

President Gray said we have a call for the question. This was duly seconded. The vote was taken, and so ordered.

The vote was taken on the motion that the Convention instruct the Executive Board to explain the recent use of outside consultants and studies and their costs, and to stop the use of these consultants until after 2010, and then only if Cooperative Program giving has rebounded. The vote was too close to call. Recording Secretary Lynda Hopkins instructed messengers on using the appropriate ballot. The appropriate Tellers Committee came forward and collected the ballots for tabulation.

President Gray said we are back to the original motion for the adoption of the 2010 South Carolina Baptist Convention Experience Kingdom Life Budget $32,180,000. The amendment failed so we are back to voting on the budget. If you are in favor of the 2010 budget as printed in your book of reports. The vote was taken by raising the ballots and the budget has passed.

President Gray recognized David Anderson who introduced Jim Austin; the first part of our report today is GPS (God's Plan for Sharing) and second part Cooperative Program. GPS is a nationwide strategy of evangelism. Austin introduced Marshall Fagg, director, Evangelism & Missions. We are excited about what God is doing with GPS across SC and North America. We want to make this as simple as possible to engage your churches and congregations in fulfilling the Great Commission – Video on GPS – video shares an idea of what GPS is about. There are many that are lost and unchurched that need to hear the gospel. As we lead up to Palm Sunday, and Easter Sunday, a television media campaign with messages from SC Baptist churches will be all across the state. Begin now preparing how we are going to do this evangelistic service on March 28 and how we are going to baptize on Easter Sunday. Marshall referred everyone to the GPS exhibit for resources and a DVD to pick up or go to the SCBC website for resources. It's about partnering with you – to reach the lost people with the good news of the gospel.

Gary Anderson, director, Cooperative Program & Stewardship Office – In dire times, givers are always thinking about what can I do for you? The more we have the more our tendency is to hold on to it. Referencing 2 Corinthians 8:2, Anderson expressed thanks to SC Baptists for their giving and faithfulness. Could we, can we do more? Sure. I'm grateful for what we do through the Cooperative Program. It allows us to make a difference in peoples' lives beginning where we live and extending beyond. May God bless our gifts!

Gary Anderson introduced Ken Frederick, missionary to Brazil. Ken expressed appreciation and gratitude. Ken, his wife and family have served as your missionaries over the last decade (video was placed in the background). When you give to Cooperative Program and other mission offerings, you are giving to push back lostness, but also to provide for families like mine. I stand here praising God and how good He is.

Gray led in a time of prayer – asked others on platform to place hands on Ken Frederick.

13. Video Presentation. Messengers watched a video remembering ministers who have died since the last annual Convention meeting.

14. Worship. Erik Shamblin, Minister of Music, Old Fort Church, Summerville, led messengers in singing “How Great Is Our God” and “There is Joy in the Lord.”

RESULTS ON THE VOTE: motion on no contract on outside consultant 2009-2010: vote yes 334 no 246 – total of 580 votes – 1 ballot discarded – motion is carried.

Prayer. Harry Scarborough, transitional pastor at Gethsemane Church in Summerville, led in a time of prayer.

Convention Sermon. Luther Price, pastor, Bishop Branch Church, Central preached the convention sermon. He referenced scripture John 6:27-29 and elaborated on the question, “What must we do to work the works of God?” Jesus states in verse 29, “This is the work of God that ye believe on Him who He hath sent.” This is the work of God – that ye believe.

Closing. Ricky Eason, pastor, New Life Christian Fellowship, Spartanburg, closed the session with prayer.

Tuesday Afternoon, November 10

President Rudy Gray presiding
Registration at 2:00 p.m. was 924 messengers

15. Music. Anderson University Gospel Ensemble, under the direction of Leonard Johnson, “Trust and Obey,” “Lord I will Lift Up My Eyes to the Hills” and two other worship songs.

16. Family Devotional. Keith Wall, minister of education, First Church, Georgetown, led a devotional. On behalf of Dr. Ted Sherrill and members of historic First Church, Georgetown, celebrating 200 years as a unified body of believers and celebrating 300 years of Baptist presence in Georgetown, I greet you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. I'm youngest of 9 children and I understand about family. At FBC, we understand that the Lord God established the family before he established the church. In the garden, there is man, he is alone, and it is not good for man to be alone. He began in his creative work to build the family. We also believe the family unit is a critical key to the growth and wellbeing of church. Church growth is not about numbers but about spiritual maturity. There are 3 biblical principals within family structure: (1) bible study; (2) family ministry opportunities; and (3) build relationships within the whole body through various ministry venues so that the body will be obedient to the scripture through prayer and good works meeting needs as we have opportunity. Ministry opportunities at FBC are designed to include the whole family including child care for all events. Ministries can and do still win people to Christ as well as providing excellent training ground for missionaries. Adults join in Bible studies, and youth participate in bible studies as well. We have a special needs ministry, called Grace Church. We have after school program. We prayed about establishing a partnership with a sister church in our area so that we could have an Upward Soccer Ministry. We have no dirt at First Church, Georgetown, and Screven Church has dirt. We go there and play soccer on their dirt and then share the names of all the soccer families with one another so we can begin building a prospect list. Another critical area of ministry that serves a family well is Faith Evangelism Ministry. The whole church is involved with church and stop wearing out our willing ministers. We need to train the whole body to be a part, to come and hear great preaching and great singing, not put aside and left alone. We need to encourage every member to do their part within the body. We get deacons into homes ministering to families and spurring one another on toward love and good deeds, and stay in contact with families, and keep our pastor informed. Our Church began a partnership with Hazelton Community Church in PA and started doing family mission trips together. Encourage your pastor, get your families together and go on mission trips and you will be amazed at the growth within the body. Providing ministry opportunities to grow and learn spiritually, and grow as a family, as a community of believers. Our adversary is seeking to destroy the family. We must stop at nothing as a church to protect and build this spiritual well-being of family throughout our community and churches. We are the winning team with God. In closing, let me leave you with this scripture from Nehemiah 4:14. We must stand together one family at a time and realize we are on the winning team and everything we can possibly do as a church to unite together for that cause will only bring glory and honor to our Lord Jesus Christ. We must fight for our families. Fight to the finish knowing that we win.

17. Worship. Larry Rice, minister of music & missions, Six Mile Church, Six Mile, led in a time of worship. He encouraged everyone to continue to be faithful supporting missionaries in our world, our country, our state and community. Together we are expanding God's ministries throughout the world. Led messengers in singing "Victory in Jesus" and "I'll Say Yes, Lord Yes" and Mark Powers led in the Family Theme Song.

18. Russ Evans, manager, LifeWay Christian Store, Columbia brought greetings on behalf of LifeWay Christian Resources, Nashville and presented Rudy Gray a copy of the New Testament titled “The Cradle, The Cross, The Crown” and for his wife a copy of “The Love Dare” The Legacy Edition.

Don McLeod, director, Relationship Management, GuideStone Financial Resources brought greetings from GuideStone. He shared that GuideStone has become a registered investment advisory service, offers property and casualty insurance and many other services and shared how to access information via the internet for convenience or calling the 800 number to speak with an individual.

19. Business Session – Introduction of New Business and Business Previously Introduced

Introduction of new business: - no motions

Business previously introduce: Motion presented by Wayne Dickard, I move that this convention instruct the Executive Board to set policy that insures future payroll employees hired to work at the Baptist Building be members in good standing of a Southern Baptist church. We received the motion and the second.

Wayne Dickard – I believe this could be a most important decision we make. What happened to the concept that we are all servants of the Lord. In 2004, I had the privilege of serving this body as your president. There were so many who said that we should have all employees sign a statement of faith embracing the Baptist Faith and Message. And here today, we are voting on whether our employees should be Baptists. Either there was a lot of posturing then or hypocrisy now. You cannot have it both ways. When we make room for exception in our hiring policy and give 3 men the privilege to decide if future employees will be Baptist or not, we don’t have policy, we have just suggestions. In a state that has the 5th highest unemployment in the United States, please don’t tell me we can’t find “Baptists” finding jobs. We don’t have a leg to stand on SC Baptist if we tell our institutions you have to hire Baptist people, and we say to our Baptist Building that we don’t have to have Baptists at the Baptist Building. We should not even be debating this issue. Therefore, I believe this could be a most important decision we make today, and I move that we pass the motion.

Mic #2 – messenger Jim Stovall, First Church, Taylors – I would like to speak against this motion. I would like to know how many people at the Baptist Building are not Baptists and what would happen to them. Would they be let go?

Gray – the motion states “future” and would not affect anyone at Baptist Building.

Jim Stovall – I know there are other people working at institutions that are not Baptists but are Christians and doing a good job. I oppose this motion.

There is no one else on in favor of the motion.

Gray – I’m assuming you are ready to vote. We have a motion and 2nd before us.

If you are in favor of the motion, lift your ballots. If you are in opposition, lift your ballots.

The opposition has prevailed and the motion fails.

2nd motion – Move that this body ask current president to appoint committee to study merits to allow president to serve as Executive Board chairman.

Mic #2 – Wayne Dickard – I emailed 15 living presidents, and one of our last 15 is deceased. I asked, “Do you think this would be a good idea?” The president of the convention is the highest selected official in our convention. He is given a seat on the Executive Board. He is expected to be at the Executive Board meetings and other functions across the state. Just seems it would be a wise thing to have our highest elected official to serve that Board. I would like to ask our president to have a committee study the merits of this.

Gray – so you are asking for the convention president to appoint a study committee to study the feasibility or the merits of this.

Mic #1 – Mike Hamlet, pastor, messenger, First Church, North Spartanburg –I would like to oppose this motion. I realize they are just asking for a study. I’ve had the privilege of serving in both offices and I think that it becomes a conflict of interest. The president is seen as representative of the people and the Executive Board chairman is elected by the Executive Board and is responsible to them and would be a conflict of interest. If we do this it would be chaos. The president would have to appoint a nominating committee, which he does not know and to appoint committees that he is unfamiliar with that would only serve a year. Even if they served 2 years there is just not any way to learn the system and to make that work. I think the president is already on the Board and he serves as a representative there and it works well. Putting those positions together makes it more inclusive than exclusive. I don’t believe this is a time to do this and I don’t think it is wise at this point in time.

Is there anyone in favor of the motion? No response.

Gray – ready to vote – We are voting on this motion: I move that this body ask the current president of the South Carolina Baptist Convention to appoint a committee to study the merits of allowing the Convention president to also serve as the Executive Board president. All in favor of this motion raise your ballots. All opposed of this motion raise your ballots.

Opposition has it. This motion fails.

20. Nominations Committee. Chairman Ron Dillon called attention to the committee’s report on pages R91-R92 in Convention Book of Reports. On behalf of the committee, Chairman Ron Dillon moved adoption of the committee’s report. The vote was taken, and the report was adopted.

21. Institution Reports.

Baptist Courier. Don Kirkland, editor and president, your Baptist Courier continues to have strong support and widespread approval for his ministry and inspiration. We are in the news business. We are also in the good news business. Telling the story of how SC Baptists are working together to fulfill the Great Commission. Your Baptist Courier is in good financial health. We are challenged by rising cost of printing and mailing, and also by the decline in circulation affecting all Baptist papers and secular press as well. Still with over 66,000 subscribers, circulation remains robust. Only 3 Southern Baptist papers rank ahead of us in circulation, Alabama, Mississippi, and Oklahoma. Despite challenges, some brought on by the economy, by internet and growing popularity of that. We are a ministry and we feel we should make it available to as many people as we can, and as inexpensively as we can. On the internet, people don't pay; we've chosen not to charge for the internet. We want to minister in the best possible way to SC Baptists. We are exploring ways to make it available to even more of you. We are confident of the Courier's future. We don't know what the form will be. At some point, we expect the print edition to last for a long time, but there is a growing interest in receiving it online. We feel we are developing in a way you like and appreciate and are easily accessible. It gives us an effective daily paper. We cannot update the print version on a moment's notice, but we can update the online version. Much of the confidence we have in the future of Baptist Courier is based on the budgetary relationship we have with the SCBC through the Cooperative Program. We receive 45% of our budget through Cooperative Program funds. There is no other institution in SC more dependent upon or grateful for the money you put in offering plates. We are grateful for that. Another reason we value relationship with SCBC that has nothing to do with money but has to do with ministry. Like SCBC and SBC, we want to reach the world with the life changing gospel of Jesus Christ. It will always be our aim to inform the minds of our readers, and also our aim to influence the hearts in every way that is available to us in Christian publishing. We will remain true to our role as a Cooperative Program ministry and supporting goals of Experiencing Kingdom Life in South Carolina. There are many ways to measure success. If the Baptist Courier can have a spiritual impact on the state of SC in some way, then I would consider my editorship a success. Our goal is to make a spiritual impact on SC Baptists. Please support us as we try to do that and as we give it our best efforts.

Baptist Foundation. Weldon Fallaw, president, was recognized by President Gray.

Dickie Cullum, chairman, Board of Trustees, Baptist Foundation interrupted Weldon from making his report. Weldon is retiring at the end of this year and we want to use this time in a little different way from what you had planned. We are not going to let you give the report today. They can read it in Book of Reports.

Weldon has been with the Foundation for 28 years and for last 10 years he has been president of Baptist Foundation. We want to take this opportunity to show a little love for Weldon and express our deep appreciation not only as the Board, but for the entire SCBC. Dickie recognized the entire Foundation staff. Weldon has surrounded himself with great people and we are so appreciative that the staff could be here. About ½ of Board of Trustees is here and his wife Jane, their daughters and families.

State Senator Nikki Stetzer made a special presentation by reading a letter to Weldon from Governor Sanford and presented the Order of the Palmetto. Messengers responded with a standing ovation.

Weldon – In about 51 days (according to staff) I'll be coming under the leadership of a new boss, Jane. I want to share with you how the work & ministries of Baptist Foundation has been such a blessing and to have the support of the convention who has worked so close with us. Just to reiterate again the support of this staff, the Lord has led me to each one of these folks in such a special way and to have a loving support of my family. I just hope I can use these blessings in a way to glory our Lord.

Dickie – We are grateful to the Lord for Weldon and his leadership. We want you to pray for the Baptist Foundation as they go forward and only eternity will show the impact of how God has used the Baptist Foundation to expand the Kingdom on this earth.

Dickie invited everyone to a special event to Carolina Room for cake and coffee and Weldon and Jane will be there to give you an opportunity to see them.

Connie Maxwell Children's Home. Ben Davis, president. 117 years ago, 1892, a tragedy occurred and a family broke apart. Dr. & Mrs. J.C. Maxwell lost their 7 year old Connie to scarlet fever. Their last and only living child was now gone. So they went to SC Baptists and said, "We will give you our farm and money if you will start a place to take care of children and that you name it after our daughter, Connie." SC Baptists took that challenge and from the tragedy that broke a family a part, a new family began. South Carolina's largest family because we've had over 16,000 boys and girls to come through our ministry. Every two years we have a homecoming reunion. The last one was held in June of last year over 600 former students came back. When we first started, we got 100% of funding from SCBC. Today, we get 12% of our total operating budget from CP through the Convention. But that 12% is extremely important to us because we don't have any other set way to bring in money except through donations. When the other ministries get a new client, additional funds come along with the client, such as tuition and fees. When we get a new client there is no money stream. It's a new expense. But it is priceless when you see the changes in their lives. It is priceless when you know they are headed in a new direction. Finally when you see that they accept Christ on our campus, and when they leave us, they leave with a new friend, a new director, and a new guide for their lives. That's what makes the difference for us who are able to minister on your behalf. Thank you for your support, for those kids with proper clothing and school supplies, many of them for the very first time. Thank you for those on Sunday morning who were in church on our campus hearing about Christ for the very first time. Thank you too, for those children who can go to bed tonight safe and secure, not worrying about somebody waking them up in the middle of the night, being afraid someone will wake them up to do something they shouldn't. It's been tough for us. We are tightening our belts, but we are not cutting the ministry to the children. We are dedicated to continue to do what God ordained us to do 117 years ago and SC Baptists have supported ever since. To show what a family is really about. Messengers saw a video where students spoke at graduation.

Mic #2 – question for Ben Davis – Dan Griffin, pastor, Harmony Church, Elgin – How much money do you receive from the state of SC?

Davis – we get about 5% from the state and currently about 35% of children are placed by the state at Connie Maxwell. 12% from SCBC and everything else comes from the donations of individuals and churches.

Mic #3 – Rev. Sammy Thompson from Lakewood Church, Sumter – is the number of children going up in correlation with the situation of the economy. Is it stable? Has it declined?

Davis – It is a sad paradox that when times are bad, there are more and more needs, and less money to fulfill those needs. We are getting more and more children referred to us by the state. But unfortunately, many times Department of Social Services and others wait a long time before they pull those children from an abusive family because they don't have the funds to begin the process. So yes, there are more kids needing our services. Connie Maxwell will take them regardless of the money situation.

Man at Mic – We see the same thing in our churches. We are seeing more and more people with needs, and we are praying that God will meet and supply every need for us so that we will be able to help reach out to others in their time of need.

Davis – Money is important but most important is God’s guidance, and God’s direction. I encourage you to pray for our ministry.

Another question Mic #2 – you said that 5% comes from the state and does it come with any strings attached?

Davis – Thankfully not at this point. We don’t really encourage additional state monies. We want to be in a position that if we get mandates about our Christian faith, and teachings, we can say take it away. We would miss the 5% but not enough that we couldn’t say no. Even if they gave us nothing, the state still has to license us and through licensing could do some unfortunate things. Fortunately that has not happened.

Ministries for the Aging. Tom Turner, president, assumed the role about 6 months ago. I have learned a lot and feel very passionate about the seniors we minister to. I would like to introduce two staff members: Dina Hair, administrator from Martha Franks and Ben Spurling, administrator from Bethea Retirement Community.

God is doing wonderful things at Martha Franks and Bethea and I want to highlight some of those things in our report. In an effort to ensure that state churches have an awareness of our ministry, I want to show a video about the Baptist Ministries for the Aging that will be available to our local churches in the near future. As you can see, God is enabling Martha Franks and Bethea to live out our mission. South Carolina Baptist Ministries for the Aging has created a special annual offering designated to help support aging brothers and sisters with financial need. We have two with us today, who are Mother’s Day Offering recipients. Both are on stage: Margaret Atkinson, Bethea; and Rev. Henry Rogers, Martha Franks. I want to welcome those residents from both Bethea and Martha Franks throughout the audience and glad to have their support. South Carolina Baptist Ministries for the Aging not only has experienced these precious blessings in the residence we are currently serving, but God continues to bless our ministry financially. This ministry partner is once again financially successful. This is the 3rd or 4th Convention that our ministry is operating in the black. We give thanks to God for this and know that many folks have contributed. With so many advancements, we are excited about future ways God will allow us to minister to our senior population of our state. We could not do this without your support. We covet and thank you for your assistance with support through prayers, encouragement and financial measures.

22. Music. Anderson University Gospel Ensemble under the direction of Leonard Johnson, sang “Holy are You, Lord,” and “Lord You are “Worthy to be Praised.”

23. Resolutions Committee Report. Chairman Tony Smith called attention to the report of the Resolutions Committee as printed in the daily bulletin, which included all resolutions received and the committee's recommendation for each resolution. Chairman Smith and his committee presented the following resolutions:

On behalf of the committee, Tony Smith presented the following resolution on Appreciation and moved its adoption:

The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

On behalf of the committee, Ken Hood presented the following resolution on National

Healthcare Reform and moved for its adoption:

WHEREAS, Congress is considering legislation regarding a universal healthcare plan that is lengthy and vague in its terminology; and

WHEREAS, The current political climate passionately advocated government funding of abortion and disregards the sanctity of human life; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina Baptists have historically, consistently, and definitively affirmed the sanctity of human life; and

WHEREAS, Proposed legislation creates a program for senior citizens which likely would include education about the end-of-life decisions and impacts on families; and

WHEREAS, This legislation provides government funding for abortions and encourages limiting the size of families through counseling; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we, the messengers to the 189th Annual Meeting of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Columbia on November 10–11, 2009, call on our United States Senators and Congressmen to exert every effort in bringing the full weight and force of their respective offices to bear on this issue to see that language is used that eliminates any vagueness in terminology and closes any possible loopholes that might be used later to approve public funds for abortion, intrusive family planning recommendations, and end-of-life counseling under the proposed healthcare reform; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to our Senators and Congressmen in Washington; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we call on every South Carolina Baptist to raise these concerns with their elected federal officials.

The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

On behalf of the committee, Jeremy Chasteen presented the following resolution on Regenerate Church Membership and Church Member Restoration and moved for its adoption:

WHEREAS, The ideal of a regenerate church membership has long been and remains a cherished Baptist principle, with Article VI of the Baptist Faith and Message describing the church as a “local congregation of baptized believers”; and

WHEREAS, A New Testament church is composed only of those who have been born again by the Holy Spirit through the preaching of the Word (Romans 10:17), becoming disciples of Jesus Christ, the local church’s only Lord, by grace through faith (John 3:5; Ephesians 2:8-9), which church practices believers’ only baptism by immersion (Matthew 28:16-20), and the Lord’s supper (Matthew 26:26-30); and

WHEREAS, Local associations and the South Carolina Baptist Convention compile statistics reported by the churches to make decisions for the future; and

WHEREAS, The 2008 Annual Church Profiles indicate that there are more than 700,000 members in South Carolina Baptist Convention churches; and

WHEREAS, Those same profiles indicate that only 52.1 percent of those members attend a primary worship service of their church in a typical week; and

WHEREAS, The Scriptures admonish us to exercise church discipline as we seek to restore any professed brother or sister in Christ who has strayed from the truth and is in sin (Matthew 18:15-35; Galatians 6:1; 1 Corinthians 5); therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we, the messengers to the 189th Annual Session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Columbia on November 10–11, 2009, urge churches to maintain a regenerate membership by acknowledging the necessity of spiritual regeneration and Christ's lordship for all members; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we humbly urge our churches to maintain accurate membership rolls for the purpose of fostering ministry and accountability among all members of the congregation; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge the churches of the South Carolina Baptist Convention to repent of the failure among us to live up to our professed commitment to regenerate church membership and any failure to obey Jesus Christ in the practice of lovingly correcting wayward church members (Matthew 18:15-18); and be it

RESOLVED that we respectfully urge the churches of the South Carolina Baptist Convention to develop, implement, and support ministries to fully integrate new members and converts into their fellowship, discipling them in the way of the Lord; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we humbly encourage denominational servants to support and encourage churches that seek to recover and implement our Savior's teachings on church discipline, even if such efforts result in the reduction in the number of members that are reported in those churches; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we humbly urge the churches of the South Carolina Baptist Convention and their pastors to implement a plan to minister to, counsel, and restore wayward church members based upon the commands and principles given in Scripture (Matthew 18:15-35; 2 Thessalonians 3:6-15; Galatians 6:1; James 5:19-20).

The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

On behalf of the committee, Chris Gray presented the following resolution on Gambling in South Carolina and moved for its adoption:

WHEREAS, Recent economic chaos has created a vulnerability of false hope; and

WHEREAS, While South Carolina Baptists support free enterprise and business, we are opposed to gatherings or ventures that emphasize the love of money; and

WHEREAS, Some members of our state legislature are working to expand the gambling laws in our state to include high-stakes poker games in homes and raffles/casino nights for nonprofit groups and others; and

WHEREAS, South Carolinians celebrate local traditions and various cultural/ethnic entities through festivals and highlighted heritage events; and

WHEREAS, Various Internet sources report more than 23,000 nonprofit organizations in our state, including schools, Booster clubs, civic organizations, hospitals, churches, country clubs, and other special interest groups; and

WHEREAS, The Catawba Tribe recently announced intentions to open a Bingo gambling venue; and

WHEREAS, One South Carolina activist judge sanctioned Texas Hold'em poker as a legal game, thereby legislating from the bench, circumventing the General Assembly, and ignoring the state Attorney General's position on this issue; and

WHEREAS, Historically, Southern Baptists have been vocal about the harmful effects of all forms of gambling; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we, the messengers to the 189th Annual Session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Columbia on November 10–11, 2009, express our alarm and concern about the growth of legalized and illegal gambling in our country and in our state; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we encourage all South Carolina Legislators (2010) to vote against all bills that would expand or support new or existing gambling venues; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we encourage the Catawba Tribe of York County to pursue forms of revenue that would celebrate their history and their heritage instead of gambling operations; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Chief of the Catawba Tribe of York County to show our concern for their economic distress; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be forwarded immediately to the Governor, members of the General Assembly, and the Attorney General as a continued demonstration of our resolve and as an encouragement to those who stand firm in their opposition to gambling expansion in South Carolina.

The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

On behalf of the committee, Chris Gray presented the following resolution on Hate Crimes Legislation and moved for its adoption:

WHEREAS, Certain federal legislators are considering a bill to create specially protected classes of lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, and transgendered persons (LGBT); and

WHEREAS, Hate crimes legislation criminalizes beliefs or thoughts as well as actions; and

WHEREAS, The current legislation under consideration includes language that would require prosecution of a crime based on the alleged victim's perception of the perpetrator; and

WHEREAS, Such legislation violates the US Constitution's Fourteenth Amendment guarantee of equal protection under the law for all people; and

WHEREAS, Federal hate crimes legislation would effectively kill the First Amendment freedom of speech by criminalizing any verbal opposition to homosexuals and/or their lifestyle; and

WHEREAS, Pastors and lay-leaders around the world have been arrested, prosecuted, and jailed or fined because they publicly spoke biblical truth regarding homosexual behavior; and

WHEREAS, There is no need for this type of legislation since all crimes are committed out of selfishness or hate; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we, the messengers to the 189th Annual Session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Columbia on November 10–11, 2009, encourage all South Carolina Baptist voters in our state to contact their Federal elected officials and ask them to repeal recently passed hate crimes legislation that was added to HR 2647 (appropriations for Department of Defense, military activities); and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to our Senators and Congressmen in Washington to remind them of our resolve to keep freedom of speech in our pulpits and the public square; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge all Americans to avoid acts of hatred and violence toward lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, and transgendered persons and treat our fellow citizens with the kind of civility we would prefer to receive ourselves (Matthew 7:12); and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we encourage all believers to love and show compassion toward lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, and transgendered persons, sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ, who is able to bring true freedom from error and to set free the captives of sin (John 8:34-36).

Committee amended two words – line 1 – change “are considering” – to “have passed” – rest of resolutions remains as written.

Mic#3 – man A is questioning paragraph 5. He has not read the bill but would like clarification.

Chairman Tony Smith, we have read the bill and the resolution reflects that.

Mic#3 – man A states that he has closely followed the controversy reading both sides. As this resolution states that it would only affect matters that were already a criminal offense; which free religious speech is not. I would hate for us to pass a resolution that would have our opponents gleefully point out that we have approved something that is a falsehood. I do support the general tender of the resolution.

President Gray – You making a comment not an amendment.

Mic#3 – man A - I just want to have clarification.

Chris Gray – The bill is very ambiguous on certain items such as, if there is a crime that is committed as a response as to the one who committed the crime has heard this within a preaching message or something of that nature there is ambiguity that leads to, we think, there is the ability of the preacher or religious speaker to be persecuted under the Hate Crimes legislation. This has happened in other nations; Canada and elsewhere. The ambiguity of that legislation is what led us to place in paragraph 5.

President Gray – The motion to adopt Hate Crimes Resolution is on the floor. Do we have any other questions?

Mic #1 - James Rogers, pastor, Poplar Springs Church, Iva. The answer to the brother's question is this: Would the word “could” instead of “would” give that opportunity to not be misunderstood but to still make a strong statement. States the paragraph: WHERE AS, Federal hate crimes legislation could effectively kill the First Amendment freedom of speech by criminalizing any verbal opposition to homosexuals and/or their lifestyle; and... Not knowing it “would” in our legal system, but it “could” kill the First Amendment freedom of speech. I think that gives a pastor an opportunity to speak against it and then let the chips fall where they may. Because that is what we are suppose to do.

President Gray – Are you making an amendment?

James Rogers – Yes, I want to make an amendment. How do I do that?

President Gray – Tell us what you want to amend.

James Rogers – I want to amend paragraph 5, changing the word “would” to “could.”

President Gray – calls for a 2nd.

Chairman Tony Smith, on behalf of the committee agrees with the amendment.

President Gray – any other questions? No further questions.

The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

26. Benediction. Daniel Dickard, Northbrook Church, Boiling Springs closed the session with prayer.

Tuesday Evening, November 10

President Rudy Gray presiding

27. Congregation Praise. Phil Kelley, minister of music, Utica Church, Seneca sang "To God be the Glory."

28. Worship Theme. President Rudy Gray referenced scripture Genesis 2:24 is the most important verse in the Bible regarding marriage. It is a covenant between God, man, and a woman on marriage. We can fulfill the one singular purpose that God has given us as Christians is through marriage. If your Christian faith works in your marriage, it can work at church, on the street, in the mission field or anywhere. But, if it doesn't work at home it doesn't work anywhere. Tonight we are emphasizing Building Healthy Families...Growing Strong Churches.

Family Value at Connie Maxwell Children's Home. Ben Davis, president, Connie Maxwell Children's Home. As Christians, Christ is the core of our life and our world. After Christ, comes the family. The family is one of God's greatest priorities. He made it before the written language, before government, and even before church. So if the family is that important to God, then it certainly should be one of ours. I wish we didn't have to have a Connie Maxwell Children's Home. I wish every child could grow up in a loving and caring Christian home. But they don't. And because they don't, Connie Maxwell is here, the safety net that catches them and teaches them about family. We know when they come to us they need to know family values and what a family is all about. Besides giving them proper shelter, clothing, medical needs, and etc., we teach them about Christ and about a Savior. No matter what you've done, no matter who you are, with your family you are loved and accepted. Just like the unconditional love Christ had for His family.

Music. Connie Maxwell Children's Choir, under the direction of Sally Caughman, sang several songs of praise.

Building Healthy Families. Dr. Tim Clinton, president, American Association of Christian Counselors spoke via video about families being under assault. Somewhere between 40-50% of couples who marry this year are projected to divorce before they reach the peak of their marital years. Domestic violence, financial breakdowns, children out of control rip and tear at our marriages and have incredible impact on our families. Good news, God is still on His throne, He is still at work, and if we give Him who we are and commit our ways to Him, somehow through it all, He sees us through. A few characteristics of family that separate themselves out and manage their ways thru difficult terrain. (1) The God Factor, Psalm 127:1, get rid of things that prevents God from working in your family; (2) Keep the dream alive; (3) Love, you don't feel safe without it. With these factors, God can move you to a new place personally and relationally.

Music. Youth Ministers Quartet, Jeff Stillwell, Trinity Church, Cayce; Cory Singleton, associate director, Youth Ministry Group, SCBC; John Ballard, Mt. Lebanon Church, Greer; Seth Buckley, First Church, Spartanburg blessed the messengers with several songs.

Video. "Slow Fade" by Casting Crowns

Family Testimony. Carla Harvey from Charleston, SC gave her testimony about an abortion she had at age 16. From that quick fix of abortion that I would be so traumatized emotionally with nightmares, low self-esteem, promiscuous and looking for love to cover the hurt of her sin. In 2001, I took a Journey of Recovery that I would be released from my pain, guilt and shame of my abortion. Through facilitating a Bible study class, I learned that Jesus was all I needed. His death on the cross was enough for the murdering thief, the porn addict, the adulterer, the gossips, and it was enough for the murder of my abortion. Once I received that deeply, I had to forgive myself which was very hard. Through our ten-week Bible study, we go through the different stages of grief that we had never experienced. When we ended the study, we go through a memorial service and we memorialize our babies. We replace the nightmare of abortion with a memory of a peaceful service. We become whole and on the road to spiritual and emotional health. I have facilitated the Bible study for 9 years and it is a blessing to see the women set free from their emotional bondage. I have had ladies ages 14-81 and they will testify that God has freed us indeed. I encourage you to become involved with community clinics, donate items to pregnancy centers, volunteer for recovery programs and become politically active by showing support with pro-life bills. Become a visible witness to the community.

She ended her testimony with a story of her daughter becoming pregnant after college. She became flooded with emotion all over again. She prayed and asked God to help her be excited for this baby. As she shares the story with others, she claims that every baby is a gift from God.

President's Recognition. President Gray said that one of the things they wanted to do different this year was to discover different ways churches were ministering to families. After receiving about 20 responses, Gray, along with the 1st and 2nd vice presidents, chose a recipient for this year. I want to recognize Jamie Murphy, minister of families, Immanuel Church, North Augusta for Outstanding Family Ministry. Jamie is working with a program called "the Parent Project."

29. Worship. Phil Kelley, minister of music, Utica Church, Seneca led the messengers in singing “Your Name.” Utica Praise Team sang “How Great You Are.” A video was shown of testimonies from children and youth finishing the following sentence: “When my parents pray for me...” followed by The Praise Team and Children’s Choir singing “Pray for Me.” The Praise Team, Children’s Choir, and Quartet led messengers in singing “Family Prayer Song.”

30. Message. Rudy Gray, president, South Carolina Baptist Convention reminded everyone of the book he wrote last year, “Marriage That Works, Is Work” and brought 900 copies as a gift to the messengers. He encouraged everyone to pick up a copy.

President Gray referenced scripture Ephesians chapter 5 and chapter 6 and how it puts the source and the motivation for a healthy and Godly family in God. Several years ago, Drs. Nick Stinnett and John DeFrain did a research project called The Family Success Project. This project was done on 3,000 healthy families. Through this research, several characteristics of healthy families were discovered. (1) Healthy families love each other. (2) Healthy families spend time together; (3) Healthy families express appreciation for each other. (4) Healthy families practice good communication skills. (5) Healthy families develop good crisis problem solving skills. (6) Healthy families have spiritual wellness. The number one discipleship making force on the earth is the family. Churches should be equipping families. When we have healthy families, we have strong churches.

31. Benediction. Phil Kelley led messengers in singing the “Family Prayer Song.”

Wednesday Morning, November 11

President Rudy Gray presiding
Final registration 1,080 messengers

32. Music. Burmese Children’s Choir, under the direction of Ko Su, Burmese Mission, Columbia, sang “Jesus, You Are My Messiah” and then Gray opened with prayer.

33. Family Devotional. Kimberly Chastain, Christian Counselor, Easley thanked pastors, SS teachers, deacons, and church staff members. Often your job is a thankless task. Thank you. God has given me a passion for Christian working moms. The motto of Christian working moms comes from 1 Cor. 10:31 Woman and men have different roles. But all of us should try to glorify God in all we do. Are we a shining light to those who come in contact with us? We are all very busy with no white spaces on our calendars and many of you are busy for God. Often we pride ourselves on how busy we are. Jesus talked about being busy for Him. Mary & Martha were truly loved by Jesus and they were His dear friends. Martha was busy fixing food and Mary wasn’t helping. When Martha complained to Jesus, Jesus told her she was worried and bothered over too much and there are only a few things necessary, really only one and Mary has chosen the good part which shall not be taken from her (Luke 10:41-42). Jesus was trying to get Martha’s attention. Preparing food for me is not important. What did Mary choose? She chose to worship Jesus and to put away the business of the day and rest in Jesus’ words. Mary saw that the most important thing was to be with Jesus.

Many of our pursuits are temporal not eternal. What do we choose? Do we choose to be still and know God or in this crazy world, do we choose to be harried and know God. We need to be purposeful to spend time with God. To grow in our Lord, we need to choose to spend time in the Word. One of the constant comments I get is that Bible study is always held in the middle of the day. Let me encourage you to have a Bible study at a time where more women can participate.

Society is working hard to keep our families out of church on Sundays and Wednesdays. I encourage you, as a pastor, that next Sunday you will ask moms and dads to stand who brought their children to church. Thank them that they have their priorities straight. Parents need encouragement and support that they are being leaders in their home. I ask you today, are you busy with God's work like Martha, or willing to spend time with Him and listen to His still small voice. May we glorify Him in all we do!

34. Music. Appointed, Crossroads Community Church, Orangeburg sang "We Worship You."

Mark Powers led messengers in singing the "Family Prayer Song."

35. Greetings. The following brought greetings to the messengers:

Mark Puckett, Partnership/Volunteer Coordinator for Eastern Canada, Canadian National Baptist Convention, brought greetings on behalf of North American Mission Board.

Jerry Rankin, president of the International Mission Board brought greetings via video, and Jim Crittendon, representative of affinity of South Asia Peoples, brought greetings on behalf of International Mission Board.

President's Remark. Yesterday was the 234th birthday of the Marine Corp. "Semper fi." Today is Veteran's Day. The island of Iwo Jima was the scene of one of the bloodiest battles in WWII. Over 48,000 allied and enemy troops died in that battle. A simple homemade sign was erected on that island by our Marines. It said "For your tomorrows, we gave our today." "Semper fi." President Eisenhower once said, "Americans, indeed all free men, remember that in the final choice the soldiers pack is not so heavy a burden as a prisoner's chains." We speak of America as a sweet land of liberty and we are reminded of the cost of that national freedom. Over the years, thousands and thousands have given their lives to defend that freedom. Today is Veteran's Day and we pause to recognize our veterans. We say thank you. If you have served in our armed forces, please stand.

Gray introduced Bill Crane who serves on the Order of Business Committee, a veteran himself, will lead us in prayer. Crane stated that there is not too much soil in the world that a soldier has not walked on for peace for somebody in the world. As we stand here and recognize our veterans and do the business of the Convention, we are out of harm's way because of those serving in the military. The theme of this convention is family and after serving for 3 years in Vietnam, I understand the importance of family support as soldiers are away. Don't forget the families of those brave men and women.

36. Order of Business Committee Report, Part 2. On behalf of the committee, Chairman Thompson moved adoption of the committee's following recommendations as listed on page R-92 of the Convention Book of Reports:

1. That the preacher for the 2010 Convention Annual Meeting be Ed Stetzer, director of LifeWay Research, and that the alternate preacher be Peter Beck, assistant professor of Religion at Charleston Southern University, member of Northwood Church, Charleston.

The vote was taken, and the motion was adopted.

2. That the 2012 Annual Meeting be held November 13–14 in the upstate Greenville area.

Robert Rivers, Salem Church, Summerville, ask if it would be in a convention center or church? Chairman Thompson responded that the Order of Business Committee is considering both churches and convention centers.

Mr. Rivers expressed his preference in a church.

Gray said he was sure the committee would consider his request.

The vote was taken, and the motion was adopted.

Messenger Survey. Mark Jeffcoat, director, Support Services Group, asked messengers to complete the messenger survey.

Gray announced that Thomas McGill, North Greenville University freshman is in critical condition and in a coma due to a car accident last night. He is the son of Tommy McGill, pastor at Springdale Baptist Church, West Columbia.

37. History Committee. Chairman Don Bowick – referred messengers to report on R-89. History of SC Baptists is long and we are oldest Convention of Baptists in the South. Our heritage is a rich one and we as a committee hold in trust the collecting materials and artifacts that can be used by historians and researchers in days ahead. Our committee has been diligent this year and the times we've met and through the work of Jane Poster and Cindy Hale, part-time assistants who work with Mark Jeffcoat, director of Support Services Group. We work diligently to collect materials that will help churches, families, and institutions as they seek to serve their churches and their groups in finding materials pertinent to their group or organization. Among displays on the website is a list of church histories located in the Historical Room at the SC Baptist Building. A new display in the Historical Room is the Convention Staff Executives from 1866 – 2007. The staff at Convention has researched and found pictures of J. O. B. Dargan, Thomas H. Pope, and John Morrall, W.H. Strickland, and R.H. Griffith. These were missing from the Convention archives until this year.

An index of minister obituaries has been found in Convention Annals from 1854 to 1947 and is now available. Workers continue to collect and organize materials sent to us. This will help to assure those who are following after us to have proper materials. One concern is that we would have professors and teachers of History, English, etc. at our institutions and church schools to encourage students to do research writings on Baptist history and biographies of leaders. The History Committee is delighted to have this opportunity to recognize such work. Distributed certificates to churches who have recently completed histories:

Beden Church, Walterboro; First Church, Cowpens; Crossroads Church, Greer; First Church, Ehrhardt; First Church, Hardeeville; First Church, McCormick; Mt Tabor Church, Bowman; N Anderson Church, Anderson; Northbridge Church, Charleston; First Church, Ridgeway; Rose Hill Church, Georgetown; Springvale Church, Lugoff; Tyger Church, Tigerville; Washington Church, Greer.

42. SCBC Cooperative Work. Dr. Jim Austin, executive director-treasurer of SCBC was introduced by Dr. Gray.

You adopted last year at our Annual Meeting our new organizational structure with our theme being “Experience Kingdom Life.” Our Lord tells us we are to experience all that He has for us. Jesus said, “I came that you may have life and have life abundantly.” We want to discover what that means. What it means to Experience Kingdom Life. We have organized our Convention around purposes that help us fulfill, understand and experience what Kingdom Life is. Our vision purpose statement is “To urgently take the whole gospel to the whole world – that all may be whole.” As history unfolds, South Carolina has been doing this for a very long time. We are concluding a partnership with South Asia where over a thousand of you have gone as volunteers. We are so appreciative of the many South Carolina Baptists who have been active in mission work overseas, state side, and throughout our country. So thank you as we work together now to solidify what it means to experience kingdom life by urgently taking the whole gospel to the whole world – that all may be whole. Our teams consist of the following: Church Vitalization Team led by David Parks, Evangelization & Missions Team led by Marshall Fagg, Multiplication Team led by Wayne Terry, Communications & Mission Development Team led by Roger Orman, Mission Support Team led by James Wright, and WMU Executive Director-Treasurer, Laurie Register. Our ministry partners include Dr. Evans Whitaker, representing Anderson University; Jairy Hunter, representing Charleston Southern University; Dr. Jimmy Epting, representing North Greenville University; Tom Turner, representing South Carolina Baptist Ministries for the Aging; Ben Davis, representing Connie Maxwell Children’s Home; Don Kirkland, representing the Baptist Courier; Weldon Fallaw representing the Baptist Foundation. We so appreciate our ministry partners as we seek to labor together to take the whole gospel to the whole world – that all may be whole.

In 2009 this year, we realized: The Lord has done some amazing works through our efforts as we now are unfolding Experiencing Kingdom Life and the new organization related to it. Messengers watched slides related to our work.

We begin with a partnership that we initiated with Nova Scotia. Over 80 volunteers have served in a variety of ways with church planting, prayerwalking, community surveys, and many opportunities will be forthcoming. Canada, our neighbor to the north is populated with 33 million people with very few Evangelicals churches, most of them English speaking.

Disaster Relief – SC Baptist comprise our state’s largest disaster relief efforts. SC is the number one disaster relief agency. Folks go out and minister to others when there are tornadoes, fires, hurricanes, and more. Cliff Satterwhite, director of Disaster Relief Group was recognized with the Order of Palmetto this past year on the 20th Anniversary of disaster relief in SC. Also, Camp McCall celebrated 50 years of ministry this past year and the chapel was named for Cliff and Barbara Satterwhite.

We initiated prayerwalking as we usher in GPS (God’s Plan for Sharing). It is imperative we lay a prayer foundation over the work and encourage you to consider prayerwalking church field, neighborhoods, and praying God will open the hearts of those who do not believe.

One of our initiatives is to be intentional on how to make disciples. Church Planter, Mike Mohler is field testing a discipleship process called Story Telling (viewed a video). Mike is senior pastor at Trinity Point Church in Easley.

Austin - At this time we want to recognize our small church pastor of the year. Monty Hale came forward and presented the award to Gerald Mabry, Hendersonville Church, Walterboro. The nomination submission was all about how he is bivocational pastor and has been at that church for 29 years. He served as Moderator for Colleton Association for 2 terms. He has been involved in the community as volunteer chaplain with the Colleton Medical Center and with the Soil & Water Conservation area of the county. He completed diploma work through the seminary extension while pastoring and working full time. Over a 30 year period, he has been a model of consistency and stability thru a valley of grief with the death of his oldest son to mountain peaks ordaining two from his church who are now local pastors. He is a person of 4 things: bold witness; faithful friend; teachable spirit, and excellent preacher.

Don Matthews – on behalf of SCBC we congratulate you on receiving the 2009 small church pastor of the year award.

Back to Austin – For the very first time we have a fulltime BCM minister on a historical African American campus, SC State University. We are thrilled that God has sent Lance Wright from Louisiana to help us serve. - Messengers watched a video - Dr. Austin introduced Lance and Kelly Wright.

As we begin to upgrade the facilities at White Oak Conference Center, we encourage SC Baptists to rediscover it. Some superlative additions have been made and I want to commend all those on our staff. They have a motto to exceed expectations and I encourage you and churches to make WOCC your first choice for your retreat setting.

Also this year, we began publishing the EKL Focus magazine. It is well written and filled with helpful articles related to ministry, devotionals, events & resources. This EKL magazine may be received through the mail or in an electronic version found on our website. Twice a month we have the “e-Update”. I encouraged everyone to check it out.

We value our partnership with WMU and the ministry through Christian Women Job Corp (messengers heard testimonies via video).

CHAMPS, a process by which we assist local churches experiencing plateau or decline. To help them discover where they are, how they got to where they are, and how they can move forward. 89% of our Southern Baptist churches are either in a plateau or declining state and 77% of our SC Baptist churches are in a plateau or decline state. We want to help and come alongside them to help recapture the vision and to refresh the dream of what God can do for your church. Messengers saw a video of Don Matthews, director of Church Health & Revitalization Office explain the CHAMPS process and two testimonies from pastors – David Dinkins, pastor First Church, Kingstree; Louis Venable, pastor Northbridge Church, Charleston. Austin introduced David Dinkins and Louis Venable.

Austin highlights the importance of outreach through Vacation Bible School and the many training opportunities the Convention offers for training. Cindy Morris, director and Sue Harmon, associate director of Childhood Ministry Group, do a wonderful job of training and equipping.

Last summer we saw record attendance at SummerSalt, summer camps directed by Steve Rohrlack, director of Youth Ministry Group and Cory Singleton, associate director. I encourage you to consider being a part of SummerSalt that God is using to reach so many generations.

Looking ahead to 2010, we will be unfolding (GPS) God’s Plan for Sharing – A timeline encouraged to use by the North American Mission Board is to have prayerwalking, relationship building, gospel sharing. On Palm Sunday, a time for public profession with baptism on Easter Sunday – Messengers watched a video from Dr Frank Page regarding GPS. Resources are available to help you carry out the GPS emphasis.

We value our mission partnerships – Thank God for those who currently work with SC Witness to the Word: Tim Rice, strategist, School Partnerships; Ronnie Cox, strategist, Multi-housing & Equestrian Ministry; Jon Varner, International Student Ministry at Clemson, Tim Wolfe, NAMB missionary & church planting pastor; Mark Puckette, MSC missionary, Nova Scotia; Duane Floro, strategist from Ohio Baptist Convention; Craig, IMB rep. India, SC native, Affinity of South Asia Peoples; Tim, IMB rep. from European peoples affinity; Bobby Greer, IMB rep. North Africa, Northern African Middle Eastern peoples affinity; Jim Gilstrap, IMB rep. Peru, American peoples affinity.

Thank you SC Baptists for your partnerships as we work together, arm in arm, to be a witness to the world.

43. Business Session.

Business previously introduced. – There was no previously business introduced, therefore no business session.

Ballots are back from the vote on president – Fred Stone received 253 votes, 58.6%; Kile Antone received 178 votes, 41.4% - Fred Stone is 2010 president.

Vote for 2nd VP – Brad Adkins 309 votes; Benjamin Smoak 104 votes – Brad Adkins is elected.

44. Disaster Relief (Family Stories). Cliff Satterwhite, director, Disaster Relief Group. Disaster Relief ministry is about people and people are about families. Six people will share at this time.

Ben Davis, president, Connie Maxwell Children's Home, recalls on April 10, 2009, Good Friday night, our family was touched with a disaster. At 9:00 p.m., a tornado touched down loosing over 50 beautiful Oak trees. By the hand of God, no one was hurt and not a single structure on campus was damaged. Monday morning I called Cliff for help and the next day crews from Disaster Relief worked with us to remove the trees. Those who know Connie Maxwell see the holes where those trees were, but we are back to normal. We owe a great debt of gratitude to our Disaster Relief agency.

Eunice Lee, First Church, West Columbia and works with the Disaster Relief team from Green Hill Church, West Columbia. In February 2009 we were sent to Kentucky to help after the ice storms. Waking up to cold mornings, each day offered a variety of ministry opportunities. At the end of the day, we always offered pray and encouragement.

Dave Worthington, director of missions, Welsh Neck Baptist Association where missions and ministries are making a difference. In their community, an independent African-American church had $30,000 worth of fire damage according to the insurance company. Southern Baptists sent them a check to begin repair work but they did not know where to start. With a few calls to local pastors, volunteers came out and they began to rebuild through disaster relief teams in the association. Seven-eight churches were represented with 15-25 men volunteering. To this date, 80% – 85% of the church has been repaired.

Paul Welch, director of missions, Orangeburg-Calhoun Baptist Association called the pastor of Monroe Danley Church on behalf of Cliff Satterwhite, SCBC Disaster Relief, wanting to give them a check to assist with repairs because of fire damage church. Pastor was in awe that we wanted to help. Another African-American church that had burned, Jerusalem Church and the Monroe Danley Church were invited to worship together with another local church. From that joint worship service, Jerusalem & Monroe Danley congregations have been worshipping together since January 2009 and the two congregations are still meeting together. Cooperative Program gifts opened a door that would have never been opened otherwise.

Lisa Yarborough, Director of Marketing and admissions at Martha Franks Retirement Community. This year we had two big storms with wind damage losing large trees on our campus. Disaster Relief came as soon as they were called and showed a caring spirit for the Martha Franks family. On behalf of Martha Franks, the Disaster Relief Team was thanked for helping.

Todd Wood has been serving as SCBC Resort Missionary for the last 7 years. God has allowed me to work with Horry County Emergency Management Staff and to share with them how Disaster Relief can help in emergency situations. In April of this year, wildfires in Horry County broke out and destroyed over 70 homes. More than 100 others were affected by the wildfires. Randy Webster, emergency management director contacted Todd for assistance from SC Disaster Relief teams. Teams were sent out immediately with food, drinks, showers, chainsaws, and chaplains to those working in the field. Webster was so moved by this ministry, he personally thanked SC Baptists & Disaster Relief via video. Messengers were shown a video from Randy Webster, Horry County Emergency Management Director.

Cliff Satterwhite – Disaster Relief is about people – people are about families. The families of Southern Baptists in SC have ministered to those who have been hurting. We need you to be our eyes and ears so that we don't miss the opportunity to minister. Thank you to South Carolina Baptists and your gifts through the Cooperative Program. Thank you 6500 trained Disaster Relief workers who are across SC to help those in a time of need.

2009 Convention Parliamentarians. President Gray recognized and presented plaques to the following 2009 convention parliamentarians: Ryan Goodroe, First Church, Hartsville and Fred Stone, First Church, Pickens.

2010 Convention Officers. Chairman Gray recognized the following 2010 officers: Quinn Hooks, Registration Secretary; Linda Hite, Recording Secretary; Brad Atkins, 2nd Vice President; Dusty Bradshaw, 1st Vice President; Fred Stone, President.

46. Worship.

Music. Charlee Buitrago, Iglesia Bautista Hispana La Roca – “Your Grace is Enough” and “Jesus Paid It All.”

Music. Diane Whitaker & Patrick Campbell, Anderson University sang a duet, “I’ve Just Seen Jesus”

Inspirational Message. David Garrison, global strategist for Evangelical Advance, International Mission Board began by highlighting the South Asia partnership. When we first started out with South Asia partnership, we had 190 missionaries in 2001. Now 456 missionaries are serving South Asia and there are more from SC than any other state. He thanked the SCBC staff, many SC volunteers, and numerous SC Baptist churches for taking part in this partnership.

Making note that as missionaries are sent out, it is like the body of Christ reaching its great arm over on the other side of the world and touching a finger down in the middle of lostness. We remain connected back here to you and the life blood and health and vitality of our churches here in SC and across North America determine the strength of the witness. I encourage you to stay strong and don't lose heart and don't stop reaching out to the ends of the earth.

Referencing scripture from Galatians 6:9, "do not grow weary and well doing for in due season we will reap a harvest."

47. Benediction. Fred Stone, 2010 President closed the meeting in prayer, and President Gray declared the meeting adjourned.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD TO SOUTH CAROLINA BAPTIST CONVENTION

David Anderson, Chairman

Report of Executive Director-Treasurer
James W. Austin

With the recent return of students to the classrooms, we are freshly reminded of the abundant opportunities existing in the areas of student evangelism and discipleship. Both our collegiate ministers and our Baptist universities continue to stress gospel-sharing and disciple-making in their respective areas of ministry. This year unfolds as an especially significant year in the area of campus ministry as we welcome Lance Wright to our Baptist Collegiate Ministry staff. One characteristic that makes Lance so unique is that he is our first African-American Campus Minister! He will be establishing a new Baptist Campus Ministry at a historically African-American campus, South Carolina State University. We are excited about the possibilities that exist in this new campus ministry venture and pray that the Lord will continue to bring Lance in well-favor with those in his local academic community.

This fall we also launch our GPS (God's Plan for Sharing) strategy for evangelism throughout our state convention. Many of our pastors and directors of missions have already begun prayer walking their perspective areas of ministry earnestly beseeching the Lord to open the hearts of those who do not believe. They are praying that people may see their spiritual condition and place their faith in Jesus Christ. We pray that the GPS initiative will serve as a catalyst in gospel sharing that will ensure that every South Carolinian has the opportunity to hear the gospel in a way that communicates with them and that they will place their trust in our Lord.

Gospel-sharing and disciple-making serve as some of the primary building blocks of the ministry of the local church. In this regard, we welcome Daryl Price to our ministry staff to serve as our state director of church planting. Daryl brings a wealth of experience to the role as he has served as both a church planter and as a director of church planting for the eastern half of Georgia serving with the Georgia Baptist Convention. We welcome Daryl and his family to this role and believe that God will greatly use him as we seek to strengthen the emphasis of church planting among our churches. Particularly, we desire to initiate work among minorities and other unreached people groups existing within our state.

Discipleship and evangelism to be faithfully practiced must be both taught and reinforced. Through our state convention ministries we seek to do exactly that. This year, in spite of the economic challenges that impact our state, we saw significant participation at our summer camps. McCall and Camp LaVida saw at least similar attendance to previous years, and Summersalt actually saw a significant increase in campers over the last several years attendance. These camps offer the opportunity for not only gospel-sharing with those who attend, but also education in missions and worship with concentrations in Christian discipleship. One of our convention's greatest assets is our emphasis on summer camps. We thank the Lord that through renovations at White Oak Conference Center and ongoing relevant programming at each of our centers, the summer camping experience holds a bright and productive future in our state convention life.

God continues to work among us all as we faithfully follow His leading. Thank you for your partnership and advocacy in Experiencing Kingdom Life.

(1) Cooperative Gifts includes gifts from South Carolina churches restricted to all Southern Baptist Convention causes or all South Carolina Baptist Convention causes. These gifts are allocated on a pro-rata basis according to Cooperative Program section of the budget.

Recommendation 3: The Budget Committee recommends the continuation of the SC Cooperative Program Advance Plan which covers the period of 2008-2012. The Advance Plan allocates 50% of all new Cooperative Program budget funds to the work of the Southern Baptist Convention. For 2010 the proposed budget will actually allocate to Southern Baptist Convention 40.44% and to the South Carolina Baptist Convention 59.56%. During this five year plan each increase in Cooperative Program funding will immediately allocate 50% to the SBC and raise the percentage given to the SBC.

Recommendation 4: That any budget gifts exceeding the budget requirements be allocated as follows: International Mission Board 55%, North American Mission Board 25%, and scholarships for SC participants in mission trips 20%. When the budget goal is exceeded, 80% of the funds will go outside of SC for IMB and NAMB.

Recommendation 5: That funding for the Church Staff Retirement Plan administered by GuideStone Financial Resources of the Southern Baptist Convention be funded exclusively from the South Carolina Baptist Convention section of the budget. The Church Staff Retirement Plan provides retirement contributions to the individual accounts of South Carolina Baptist ministers and provides protection benefits in the area of life and disability. For a church to be eligible for its ministers to participate in the Church Staff Retirement Plan the church must have given in the previous year of the Convention's accounting records $500 for each eligible and participating staff member to the SCBC Budget or $500 for each eligible and participating staff member designated to the Church Staff Retirement Plan. (For example a church with two staff members would have to contribute $$500 \times 2 = $1,000$). A church experiencing financial difficulties and unable to meet the contribution requirements may request an exception to the policy under a hardship status through the Retirement & Insurance Services Office.

Recommendation 6: That special offerings for the benevolent institutions be continued, where it is consistent with the financial policy of the local churches, as follows: 1) first Sunday in each month for Connie Maxwell Children's Home; 2) annually on Mother's Day for the South Carolina Baptist Ministries for the Aging.

Recommendation 7: That the Executive Director-Treasurer report on a timely basis through the Baptist Courier cumulative gifts received from the churches and the allocation of the gifts as follows: 1) Total gifts to the South Carolina Baptist Convention Budget Gifts (which includes gifts through the Cooperative Program and Cooperative Gifts) at the end of each quarter; 2) Designations for Southern Baptist Convention and South Carolina Baptist Convention ministries after the conclusion of the calendar year; 3) Weeks of Prayer offering gifts for home and state missions after the conclusion of the calendar year; 4) Lottie Moon offering gifts for foreign missions at the conclusion of the fiscal year for the offering. All gifts will be processed in accordance with the instructions of the contributor without any deduction for expenses.

Recommendation 8: That the Executive Director-Treasurer forward all Southern Baptist Convention funds on a monthly basis to the Executive Committee of the SBC in Nashville, Tennessee.

Report of Associate Executive Director & CFO James A. Wright Jr.

The end of 2008 began a turbulent economic period for the United States and the world. Despite the financial uncertainty, South Carolina Baptist churches continued to give very generously in 2008. Cooperative Program gifts for 2008 totaled $33,645,960 which was an increase of $167,192 or 0.50% over 2007. Cooperative Program gifts exceeded the budget goal of $33,625,000 by $20,960 or 6/100 of one percent. Total mission giving by South Carolina Baptist churches totaled $50,410,789 for an increase of $394,208 or 0.79% over 2007.

The Lottie Moon Christmas offering for 2008 totaled $9,380,088 which was an increase of $277,336 or 3.05% over 2007. The Annie Armstrong offering decreased in 2008 to $3,836,180 or a decline of 1.30%. The Janie Chapman offering also decreased in 2008 to a total of $1,807,104 or a decrease of 6.63%. The combined total for the three weeks of prayer offering for 2008 was $15,023,372.

The 2008 financial records of the South Carolina Baptist Convention were audited by the independent accounting firm of JW Hunt & Company. The audit firm issued an unqualified or “clean” opinion on the financial records of the Convention.

Key areas of work during 2009 are as follows:

- The South Carolina Baptist Convention will meet at the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center November 10-11. Plans have been made for logistical arrangements at the Convention Center and hotel arrangements for program guests, Convention officers, Convention committee members, and members of the Executive Board. Work has been done to utilize the space in the Convention Center in a new way for 2009. This change will offer a larger area for Exhibits during the Convention.
- Worked with the Order of Business Committee in planning the program for the 2009 annual meeting of the Convention.
- Served on the Vendor Lunch & Learn staff workgroup for selecting exhibitors for the annual meeting of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, and for selecting vendors to host lunch and learn sessions during the Convention.
- Worked with the Convention staff during the year to monitor budget spending based on actual Cooperative Program receipts and other sources of income. Several staff positions have remained vacant during the year to help reduce expenses.
- Worked extensively with the Budget, Finance & Audit Committee in monitoring budget gifts during 2009. Two new monthly financial reports were developed to track expenses compared to budget, and actual income compared to actual expenses.
- Worked with staff to develop a list of cost saving measures to be implemented during the year to reduce operating expenses.
- Assisted the Budget, Finance, & Audit Committee in developing the proposed 2010 South Carolina Baptist Convention Experience Kingdom Life budget. Worksheets and financial analysis were provided to the committee to help in the decision making process for planning the new budget. Several drafts of the budget were developed based on the decrease in Cooperative Program giving during 2009.
- Worked with the Convention attorney on a number of legal matters to assist the Executive Board and Convention staff in legal matters.
- Worked with the Bylaws Committee in their meetings.
- Hosted and presided over the fall meeting of the Southern Baptist Business Officers.
- Completed a bid process for audit firms for financial years ending after May 31, 2009. A Request for Proposal was developed for the bid process and four firms bid on the audit of the Convention, Woman’s Missionary Union and the seven institutions of the Convention. The firm of Capin Crouse from Atlanta, Georgia provided the best bid and was selected by the Budget, Finance & Audit Committee to serve as auditors.
- Worked with the Support Services Group in a bid process for the property, casualty, worker’s compensation, auto and general liability insurance for the Convention. A new underwriting company was selected which resulted in a substantial savings in annual insurance premiums.
- Worked with Convention staff in reviewing and executing more than 25 contracts for events and services.

Report of Church Vitalization Team David Parks, Associate Executive Director

The Church Vitalization Team has continued to excel in their work and ministry development during the last year which has been a time of transition. Two new staff members have joined the team in the last year. In September 2008, Rev. Don Matthews joined the team as Director of the Church Health and Revitalization Office and Dr. David Parks came onboard as the Associate Executive Director for the Church Vitalization Team in January 2009. With the filling of these team vacancies, much of the flux the team has experienced is over and far less energy will be needed for transition and adjustments.

Coordination of the four Sunday School: Homerun Disciple Making conferences (replacing EPIC) continues out of the team office. The EKL Premiere Learning event, “The Recession Obsession” focusing on the economic crisis was coordinated by staff assignments within the team and in partnership with the Economic Task Force, Church Multiplication and Evangelization and Missions teams. The Shepherding the Staff conference was held in January in Myrtle Beach and the Shepherding the Shepherd conference is slated for September 24-26 at White Oak Conference Center. The Shepherding conferences are leader care events conducted in partnership with the Association and Pastoral Ministries Office. Work continues on the development of a model and process for Church Vitalization and regional Church Vitalization Conferences are being planned for 2010.

The following reports reflect the Church Vitalization Team’s commitment to providing servant leadership to Kingdom Partners so that together we might urgently take the whole Gospel to the whole world that all may be whole.

This process has been completed and is receiving good responses across the South Carolina Convention. The goal for 2010 and 2011 is to refine the process and continue to assist churches across the state to become more healthy churches. After the first year we will be re-accessing churches that have gone through the CHAMPS process to measure their progress. The greatest need is to recruit, train and activate Church Health Consultants across the state to accomplish this task.

Report of Evangelization & Missions Team Marshall Fagg, Associate Executive Director

The Evangelization and Missions Team is preparing for emphases that will impact lostness in South Carolina and to the ends of the earth. For the next 10 years (through 2020) South Carolina is joining forces with the North American Mission Board and other state conventions to get every believer sharing and every person hearing the life changing message of the gospel. This National Evangelism Initiative is “God’s Plan for Sharing (GPS).”

PRAY... prayerwalk your community and pray specifically for lost/unchurched people

ENGAGE... equip your people to impact lostness in their sphere of influence

CONNECT... build relationships with the intent of sharing your personal testimony and the gospel

CELEBRATE... encourage new believers to publicly profess their faith in Christ and be baptized

DISCIPLE... invest in the life of the new believer equipping them to go and make disciples

Preparing the resources for this initiative and communicating them with our kingdom partners, churches and associations, has and continues to be our primary objective. All Evangelism and Mission Team events for 2010 will carry the “God’s Plan for Sharing” logo. Our prayer is that GPS will become a movement that sweeps across SC and North America, dramatically impacting lostness as it goes. These events include 2 State Evangelism Conferences in 2010. The first will be at Northwood Baptist Church in North Charleston, February 7-9. The second conference will be at Anderson Mill Road Baptist church in Moore, SC on February 21-23. Four regional prayer conferences led by Ron Barker have laid an excellent foundation for “God’s Plan for Sharing”

For the next 5 years (through 2015), the missions partnership will be “South Carolina Baptists: A Witness to the World.” SC volunteers will provide the energy and the resources to impact strategic locations in South Carolina, across North America and around the globe. Much of the future work of the Evangelization and Missions Team continues to be focused on finishing the task of world evangelization, given to us by the Lord Jesus Christ.

Report of Multiplication Team Wayne Terry, Associate Executive Director

Team Office

The Multiplication Team is working diligently to align our energies, time and resources around how we can urgently take the whole gospel to the whole world that all may be whole. We truly want to see the gospel shared with every person in their heart language and to have a church for every person in South Carolina. We seek to serve our churches and associations by helping them to:

1. identify the least reached people groups in our communities,
 2. develop strategies for building relationships among these least reached people groups for the purpose of sharing the gospel to impact lostness,
 3. bring new believers from these people groups together in groups to ensure their spiritual vitality, and
 4. identify and invest in indigenous leadership among all groups of people in order to multiply disciple-makers and churches across South Carolina who will value cooperative giving.
- We have met with 8 Directors of Missions to further conversations on how we can partner to multiply disciples and churches in their associations.
 - Met with 20 church planters to hear how God is leading in their ministries and how we can serve these new churches more effectively to multiply disciples and churches.

In so doing, the team provides services to the convention staff to support their ministry, resources for church leaders, and seeks to convey the message of South Carolina Baptists to the state.

Data Processing Office

- Annual Church Profile
 - In May, sent the SCBC leadership data to LifeWay for upload into Southern Baptist Directory Services.
 - For the 2009 ACP:
 - In July hosted a training meeting in the SCBC building for associational ACP representatives.
 - The survey form, we understood, was due for a major overhaul in 2009 from LifeWay but this did not come about. We did not adopt any significant changes for South Carolina. A major change has been unveiled by LifeWay for 2010.
 - Plans are being formulated for an aggressive phone-calling campaign late in the ACP season to greatly increase the percentage of churches reporting. It will be church-oriented and all callers will be trained.
 - ACS Technologies provides historical statistical data to the convention and associations. A transition from a standalone product to a Web-based product, called OnDemand, was effected this summer. The new product is fuller-featured and avoided a significant cost increase for the service.
 - A change of software is being contemplated for the convention's demographics needs. We have obtained a considerable cost reduction from Percept, our present vendor, but are looking at another product that may better serve the convention's needs at a reduced cost. A final decision has not been made.

Print Services Office

- In-house vinyl cutter allows us to greatly reduce the cost of outdoor signage for events and White Oak Conference Center (directional signs, outdoor branding and promo, etc.)

REPORTS OF INSTITUTIONS

Report of Anderson University Evans P. Whitaker, President

Introduction

U. S. News & World Report continues to shower Anderson University with accolades. This year, Anderson advanced eight spots to rank among the 25 best institutions of its type in the South. The University was also named for the second consecutive year to the list of 77 colleges and universities in America as an “Up & Coming Institution” that everyone should be watching as models of innovation and advancement.

Anderson again fared extremely well in other national rankings. Here are just a few accolades:

1. Named to the 2010 America's Best Christian Colleges.
2. Named to the 2009 list of America's 100 Best College Buys
3. Named among the 25 best institutions within the Top Tier of U. S. News and World Report's America's Best Colleges in the South
4. Princeton Review ranked Anderson among the Southeast's 141 top colleges and universities.

Record Enrollment

This year, our enrollment reached an all-time high of 2,280 students. A total of 544 new students joined our student body making this year's freshman class the largest ever. Overall enrollment increased 13.4 percent over fall of 2008. Graduate enrollment increased to 146, which represents a 67 percent increase over last year.

Historic Gift

Anderson was blessed this year to have received the largest one-time gift in its history. David T. Clamp gave approximately $8 million to support graduate studies. In recognition of his gift, Trustees named the David T. Clamp Graduate School of Christian Ministry. The Clamp School began operation this fall by offering the Master of Ministry degree program on campus and online.

New Graduate Programs

In addition to the Clamp School, Anderson launched two additional graduate programs – the Master of Arts in Teaching and the Master of Criminal Justice. The University presently offers six graduate degree programs.

Institutional Context

Each year at Opening Convocation, I attempt to focus our campus community's thoughts on the kind of institution Anderson strives to be. This year, my address was entitled Our Iceberg is Melting, and I would like to share a few of those thoughts here.

The title comes from a book written by John Kotter and Holger Rathgeber by the same name. In it, the authors describe the dilemma of a group of emperor penguins who live on an iceberg in Antarctica. They discover that their iceberg is melting. They respond first with disbelief, but eventually they learn to cope by finding a different iceberg.

Today, many of us feel as though our conceptual icebergs are melting all around us. Forces are at work reshaping our presuppositions and realities about life on planet Earth. Contemporary issues like terrorism, global warming, globalization, and economic recession cause us to see the world differently than we did a short time ago. These issues are like icebergs that melt away at our old understanding and reveal new realities with which we must cope.

Perhaps the most fundamental and comprehensive change we have witnessed over the last thirty years or so is a shift in the American mindset characterized as a self-centered, entitlement mentality that pervades our thinking. Underlying this mindset is a philosophy or “worldview” (the way we make sense of the how life works) called postmodernism.

According to social researcher George Barna, postmodernism maintains that there is no “metanarrative” or grand story that explains life and reality or gives it purpose. Each person has his or her own experience, which cannot be denied or rejected by anyone else; it is simply that person’s understanding of reality and truth. Each person makes decisions about how to live based on feelings and experience – and because there are no absolute moral truths that can be known by humanity, nobody has the right to dismiss any of those decisions as wrong or inappropriate. Similarly, it is inappropriate to try to impose a moral point of view on people; morality is a private matter, and if a choice is deemed right by someone, it is therefore right for that person and others must be tolerant of that choice. To the postmodernist, life is a random series of subjective experiences, and a person’s ultimate purposes are comfortable survival and personal expression. The things that matter most in life are having experiences and relationships. One may believe in the existence of God but cannot compel anyone else to do so; it’s a personal choice, just like anything else.

In contrast to the increasingly accepted postmodern worldview, Anderson University espouses a Christian worldview. Barna defines the Christian worldview in the following manner.

The one and only true God created the universe and everything within it. He made earth for human beings to inhabit and He desires a personal relationship with us, even though He is spirit and we are flesh. He demonstrated his ultimate love for humanity by sending himself, in the embodiment of Jesus Christ, as a relational bridge. Jesus was at the same time fully human and fully God. He was without flaw and without sin and impure desires. God provides us with His expectations in the written form of the Bible, which defines unchangeable principles for appropriate living. The Bible provides the absolute moral truths upon which God’s ultimate judgment will be based, although, escaping eternal punishment can be achieved solely through the grace Jesus extends to those who confess him as Savior and Lord. The purpose of life is simply to worship, love, obey, and serve God. Finally, after a person dies, his or her eternity will be spent in heaven or hell, based on that person’s response to God’s offer of grace through Christ.

At Anderson University we understand that while many of our conceptual icebergs are melting, there is something infinitely more durable than icebergs. No arguments supporting the postmodern movement can change the truth we find in the Bible and the hope and reassurance we draw from our Christian faith. Our faith gives us the assurance that there is a foundation on which we can rest not only our feet, but our entire beings. This foundation will never melt away, sink, or deteriorate in any way. We can build our lives on this foundation with the confidence that it and we will last forever. This foundation has a name. It is the name that is above all names. His name is Jesus Christ.

At Anderson, we understand that the living God, the creator of heaven and earth, who made an oath that we could count on his purposes for humanity . . . offers us hope in our times of trouble, and that hope is this:

For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish, but have eternal life. (John 3:16)

For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. (Jeremiah 29:11)

Our little icebergs may be melting all around us; so be it!

Our faith is not in temporal things, but in the Lord who endures forever. As we live out the 98th year of Anderson University, we claim both the hope and the future of the mighty and loving God who yet holds the world He created in the palm of His hand.

Report of Charleston Southern University

Jairy C. Hunter, Jr., President

Charleston Southern University is committed to its mission of “Promoting Academic Excellence in a Christian Environment,” and focused on achieving its vision, “To be a Christian university nationally recognized for integrating faith in learning, leading, and serving.” With God’s guidance and the support of the SCBC we move forward, confident that, “He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.” (Phil 1:6).

Despite a poor economy, we’ve had a great start to our Fall semester. New student enrollment exceeds last year by 9%. The overall enrollment of 3,236 surpasses both last year’s numbers and this year’s goal. Residence Hall occupancy has increased 5% over last year.

The University is grateful to South Carolina Baptists for the $2 million in Cooperative Program funds. These funds are all used for Baptist student scholarships. CSU provides an additional $5.5 million for a combined total of $7.5 million in financial aid to Baptist students.

Ministries:

- Over the past academic year, 121 faculty, staff and students shared Christ in 11 countries and 10 U.S. states. Through ministries in which CSU was directly involved, approximately 1,286 people came to know Christ.
 - This year marks the fourth year of “Hungry?” where every Sunday, teams of CSU students minister to more than 200 people in the local community.
 - In February, Campus ministries and Summit Church hosted The Souper Bowl of Caring with more than 400 attending. Funds were raised, and 269 pounds of food collected for the local food bank.
- Weekly ministries and Bible studies are prevalent on campus and include Baptist Collegiate Ministries, Elevate, Campus Crusade for Christ, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Campus Outreach, Prison Fellowship and One Accord Gospel Choir.
- A campus wide study, “A Call to Die,” by David Nasser, created a new sense of resolve and purpose among the more than 500 students, faculty and staff who participated.
- Providing leadership training and opportunities are paramount when passing the baton to the next generation. CSU sent four interns to Student Leadership University (SLU), a Leadership 101 Conference designed to equip middle and high school students with knowledge on leadership and a Christian Worldview. CSU President Jairy C. Hunter, Jr., gave the opening keynote address, Serving God and Country.
- In September, 61 students had the opportunity to experience Evangelism and Counselor Training from the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association in preparation for The Franklin Graham Festival held in Charleston September 19-21, 2008.
- Charleston Southern hosted Lifeway’s Mission-fuge (M-Fuge) camps for the ninth year, attracting 3,380 teenagers from around the nation. These young Christians raised thousands of dollars for missions and provided assistance to needy and elderly people in the local area. The work that God continues to do through Fuge is truly a blessing.
- Christ is at the center of all we do at CSU. All of our residence life staff, and many of our faculty and staff, have been given a copy of The Case for Christ – Student Edition by Lee Strobel. During the month of June, faculty and staff received intensive training on how to use this resource. Our Residence Life Staff discussed the book in an online study group during the summer and will lead resident students in small group studies. All incoming freshmen were provided Strobel’s book The Case for Christ – Student Edition. CSU’s Residence Life Staff is leading small group studies on this book. Our Freshmen Seminar classes will also be referencing The Case for Christ during the Fall Semester.
- The entire Athletic department met in May to discuss the emotional, physical, academic and spiritual development of college athletes. This was also highlighted by guest speaker Dr. Tim Elmore, author of the “Habitudes,” series. The entire staff was given the book Incarnate Leadership by Bill Robinson to read over the summer in preparation for August meetings which focused on winning in life as well as in competition.

Academics:

- A new Master of Science in Nursing Education began in fall 2009. All courses will be available on-line. Graduates from this program will prepare nurses to teach at a faculty level in nursing programs as well as to accept educator positions within hospital and clinic settings.
- A new undergraduate major in graphic design began in fall 2009. This major will prepare students for a variety of careers related to visual communication.

Accomplishments:

- Continuing its focus on excellence, the Derry Patterson Wingo School of Nursing had a 95 percent pass rate first time on the National Council Licensure Examination Registered Nurse (NCLEX-RN). This success gives our nursing graduates a 99% average pass rate for the past 3 years.
- Edwin Squirewell '09 was awarded the Dean's Merit Graduate Fellowship at the University of Iowa to pursue a PhD and study and research the strategies of drug discovery, analysis and design.
- The 4 x 100 relay team of Dionne Gibson, Jessica Thomas, Misha Morris, and Gabrielle Houston set CSU and Big South Conference records of 44.35 seconds in the NCAA Track and Field Championships semi-finals. The Bucs finished 8th in the final against LSU, Texas A&M, Oklahoma, Baylor, South Carolina, Tennessee, Florida State, and Arizona State and attained the coveted status of All-American.

Report of North Greenville University

James B. Epting, President

As President of North Greenville University, I have always believed that we are the best at providing quality education in a biblically sound, Christ-centered environment. As far as I am concerned we should be ranked number one and I have never placed much credence in the rankings provided by national magazines. Most of the rankings of institutions are decided by the evaluations of college administrators. But, the second-annual ranking of America's Best Colleges, compiled by Forbes and the Center for College Affordability and Productivity (CCAP) seems much more creditable than all the rest. In this report the CCAP ranks 600 undergraduate institutions out of 4000 based on the quality of the education they provide, the experience of the students and how much they achieve. The CCAP believes that a good college is one that meets student needs and they focused on things which directly concern incoming students like – Will my courses be interesting and rewarding? Will I get a good job after I graduate? Is it likely I will graduate in four years? Will I incur a ton of debt getting my degree?

Although North Greenville University should have been ranked number one, we were ranked number 154. We placed higher than all the public institutions and third highest among the private schools in South Carolina.

Also, the South Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities organization made up of the 20 private schools in the state just published a Statistical Abstract – Fall 2008 comparing all of us and it is interesting to know:

- 1) Our undergraduate enrollment is the 5th largest in the state.
- 2) Three of our predominately black colleges and the two-year college tuition, room, board, and fees are less than we are, but the costs at all of the other independent colleges and universities are significantly higher than North Greenville University.
- 3) The best academic students in South Carolina are eligible to receive the Palmetto Fellows Scholarship from the state and they can attend any public or private school, with this scholarship. We rank 4th among the independent schools behind only Furman, Wofford, and Presbyterian with the most Palmetto Fellows.
- 4) The next best academic students coming out of South Carolina high schools receive Life Scholarships from the state and we rank number one among all independent colleges and universities with the most Life Scholarship recipients.
- 5) The average SAT score of our students is 1094.
- 6) The South Carolina Tuition Grant is given to students in the state based on need and we rank second among the 20 independent schools with the most students receiving this grant.

All of the above is very impressive and we give the credit to the good Lord and our outstanding faculty and staff.

Campus Ministries

God continues to make Himself known in powerful ways on our campus. During the summer of 2009, North Greenville University's partnership with Centrifuge/Mission Fuge was again used by God to reach many students with the gospel of Christ. A record number of 7,345 campers and counselors attended these 9 weeks of camp at NGU. More than a thousand decisions were recorded during the summer, 196 of which were for salvation. These camps continue our university's commitment to reach unbelievers with the gospel of Christ and to encourage and strengthen believers in their relationships with Christ.

Since students first arrived on campus, 117 have indicated a desire to receive Christ as their Lord and Savior. Nine of these are members of the NGU football team. During the Crusade with Dr. Alvin Reid, 107 people responded to Christ, indicating that they wanted to receive Christ as Lord. As our Campus Ministries Team began the follow-up process, we discovered that several of these students were already believers who were re-committing their lives to Christ. We are continuing the follow-up process with these students.

The North Greenville Area Crusade met in Turner Chapel, August 16-19, as we kicked off the new school year. The University is thankful for this cooperative effort with the North Greenville Baptist Association. Both the churches and NGU students responded openly to the messages. In addition to those who received Christ, thirty-one students committed their lives to ministry/missions and 112 accepted the challenge to share their faith personally with someone during the next week.

This year we have ten campus ministries interns and 83 chaplains serving alongside our Campus Ministries staff. We are currently offering ten Bible Study opportunities and several prayer groups are meeting on campus. Our ladies are continuing to emphasize their big sister/little sister ministry, an attempt to connect freshmen with returning students who can help and support them as they learn to navigate through university life.

Athletic Ministries is off to a good start with ten of our athletes having received Christ since they first arrived on campus. The first two meetings of Athletic Ministries focused on the opportunities that our athletes have to get involved in ministry at NGU.

On Sunday morning, August 16, the BSU led a campus-wide worship service for all incoming freshmen and other students who had arrived. Over 800 students were in attendance. We held our first Thursday night BSU meeting of the semester on August 20. This meeting was well attended and it kicked off our new series on 1 Peter. Well over 400 students were there.

There is a great deal of excitement concerning all the ministry opportunities that BSU offers. There have been over 300 applications handed out for our Impact Teams. Once again, we will offer the opportunity for NGU students to serve on Weekend and/or Community Impact Teams. Our Weekend Impact Team schedule is booking fast. Our Community Impact Teams are growing as well.

Joyful Sound began their 32nd year of ministry at the Crusade in August. These fifty students reported to campus a week before classes started to work on their music and prepare for another year of ministry. We expect to visit and minister in over 250 churches and other settings during this academic year.

North Greenville University L.I.G.H.T. Teams (student mission teams) will be traveling the globe again this year over Christmas Break, Spring Break, and the summer. Teams will be traveling to Canada, China, Ecuador, Honduras, Hungary, Mexico, Romania, and Uganda. They will be involved in a variety of ministries including ESL, sports ministries, youth and collegiate ministry, VBS, worship and discipleship ministries, church planting, and medical ministries. Regardless of the platform, our goal is to share the good news of Jesus Christ with as many people as possible wherever God sends us.

Our Christian Worldview Center is one of the very best in the nation and reinforces the Christian Worldview in all our classes which helps us integrate faith and learning. Through the Center our students are learning to be changers of the world for Jesus Christ and to not be apathetic when it comes to Christian morals and values.

Enrollment News

This semester has brought the most exciting news in the enrollment history of North Greenville University. We set a new enrollment record for the 16th consecutive year. We have 2132 students, and our full-time equivalent is 1998. This is 81 more students than last year and does not include 124 graduate students. SAT scores are averaging 1094. Also, we have a record number of resident students with a total of 1497 on campus. This is an increase of 49 resident students over last year. The Admissions and Financial Planning staff brought in 680 new students, another record in recruiting. We have a total of 17 international students along with 46 missionary kids representing 10 different countries enrolled this year. Among the new students are 65 Honors Program scholars, a record number for the University, even with higher entrance requirements. Since 1996 the program has grown from 19 students to 250 students. The University also welcomed 106 Palmetto Fellows Scholarship recipients, who represent the very best academic students from across South Carolina. In addition, more than 120 students anticipate graduation this December.

Finances

For 18 consecutive years we are operating with a positive cash flow. We are pleased to report that our total indebtedness (long and short term) is $588,389 (reduced from approximately $3,000,000 in May 1991).

On January 17, 2009, the Board of Trustees approved a $38,896,596 budget with only 5% increase in tuition, room and board. We want to remain the most affordable private, accredited, Christian four-year university in the Southeast while keeping Christ at the head and center of all our thinking and conduct. The cost for 2009-

2010 school year is as follows: tuition per semester - $6,132, housing per semester - $1,596, and meals per semester - $1,932. Included in our budget is an increase in salaries for faculty and staff of up to 2.5%.

Report of The Baptist Courier Don Kirkland, Editor and President

The Baptist Courier continues to receive strong support and widespread approval for its ministry of information and inspiration.

Established in 1869 and adopted as the official newspaper of the South Carolina Baptist Convention in 1920, the Courier is in the news business, of course. But it also is in the Good News business, telling the story of how South Carolina Baptists are working together to fulfill the mandate of the Great Commission and serving as a tool for assisting church members along their individual journeys of faith as well as the collective faith journey shared by all members of the convention's 2,100-plus churches.

Finances

The financial health of the Courier is good. We are challenged, however, by the rising costs of printing and mailing, accompanied by anticipated loss of revenue due to the decline in circulation experienced by both the Baptist newspapers and the secular media. We continue to be confident with the handling of our long-term investment funds by our UBS investment partners.

Circulation

With more than 66,000 Baptist Courier subscribers (and an estimated extended readership around 200,000) our circulation is robust. The Baptist Courier ranks behind only three state Baptist newspapers — Alabama, Mississippi and Oklahoma — in circulation. Closer to home, the Courier has more subscribers than do the state Baptist papers of North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Florida.

Because the Courier enjoys a budgetary relationship with the South Carolina Baptist Convention, and because our missions are inextricably interwoven and mutually dependent, we are confident that circulation of the Courier will remain strong for years to come.

Nevertheless, we strive to be flexible and responsive in a changing marketplace, and we continue to explore methods for wider distribution of the Courier. A paid circulation model, by definition, excludes those who choose not to participate. Ideally, the Courier would be available free to every South Carolina Baptist. While we cannot afford to do that, we have for some time mailed a complimentary subscription to pastors of non-subscribing churches. We have expanded the free-distribution list to include key church leaders — Sunday school director, deacon chairman, WMU director, Baptist Men director, etc. — for churches that don't subscribe. (The number of free copies we are permitted to mail is limited by U.S. Postal Service regulations.) Through this expanded outreach, in addition to fulfilling our mission of informing the largest possible number of South Carolina Baptists (especially key church leaders) of Southern Baptist life and work, we are forming partnerships with churches that might later become paid subscriber relationships.

News by and for South Carolina Baptists

The Baptist Courier continues to emphasize news about and of importance to South Carolina Baptists. In the last 12 months, the Courier has carried more than 500 headlined articles. Of these, roughly two-thirds were related to South Carolina Baptists. The other third were primarily related to the Southern Baptist Convention. Through "Showcase" photos featuring ministry efforts and church growth, and through the "Crossing Carolina" briefs about pastoral and staff changes, The Baptist Courier highlighted an additional 15-plus churches in every issue beyond those featured in its articles.

When editorials and columns written by South Carolina Baptists are added to the total, the percentage of South Carolina Baptist-related items easily surpasses 75 percent. That means the vast majority of each issue of The Baptist Courier is devoted to news from South Carolina Baptist churches, their associations, the state convention and its universities and benevolent institutions. Much of this content is unique to The Baptist Courier and not available in any other publication.

Growing Online

The methods by which people receive and process information are constantly evolving. More people are choosing to get their news online, a trend that shows no signs of abating. The Baptist Courier is committed to utilizing the Internet, e-mail, text-messaging and other emerging information technologies to fulfill our mission to make our stories available to every South Carolina Baptist.

We include all the news content of our printed issue in our online daily edition, BaptistCourier.com. In addition, because we are not bound by space limitations online, we regularly post content to our online edition that doesn't appear in our printed version.

BaptistCourier.com continues to post gains in readership. The online edition netted, on average, 8 percent more unique monthly visitors in the first eight months of 2009 (10,613) than in 2008 (9,846). The average visitor viewed 8.4 pages. The most popular section of the online edition continues to be the classified ads page, which attracted more than 52,000 viewers in the first eight months of 2009. Other popular sections, in declining order, were: home (default) page, news, features, opinion, "Whistling at Snakes," "Crossing Carolina," letters, obituaries and "South Carolina Showcase."

Other Important Facts

- Nearly three of every five South Carolina Baptist churches have a paid subscriber relationship with the Courier. The remaining churches receive complimentary subscriptions for their pastors and key leaders. (If you know of a pastor who is not receiving a paid or complimentary subscription, please contact us at 1-888-667-4693 or subs@baptistcourier.com.)
- More than 85 percent of Courier readers receive the newspaper through the Church Family Plan, which is among the lowest priced subscription plans of our state Baptist papers. Any South Carolina Baptist church, regardless of size, qualifies for our lowest rate by sending the Courier to every active family.
- Through the trial subscription plan, any church can send the Courier free to every family for three months. To sign up, or to request information, visit BaptistCourier.com or call 1-888-667-4693.

A Culture of Cooperative Ministry

The Baptist Courier values its relationship with the South Carolina Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention. Like them, the Courier wants to reach the world with the life-changing gospel of Jesus Christ and to be an ally of both the SCBC and the SBC in Great Commission ministry. It must always be our aim to inform the minds of our readers, but we also must influence their hearts in the ways that are available to us through Christian publishing.

The Baptist Courier is eager to be an active and helpful partner with other institutions of the South Carolina Baptist Convention. For example, each year the Courier provides journalism scholarships at our three Baptist universities: Anderson, Charleston Southern and North Greenville, and provides opportunities for students to receive academic credit through internships at The Baptist Courier. The Courier also gives its annual Horace Sims Award at North Greenville University to honor the former pastor, convention president, parliamentarian and Courier columnist to recognize academic excellence in the field of Christian studies at the school.

Through news and feature stories, the Courier consistently gives support to the missions endeavors of the South Carolina Baptist Convention and to a variety of other ministries performed by the convention staff in helping SCBC churches achieve success in their own ministries.

The Baptist Courier will continue its best efforts to serve the Lord as a denominational newspaper, remaining true to its role as a Cooperative Program ministry supporting the goals of Experiencing Kingdom Life in South Carolina and Empowering Kingdom Growth throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

Report of Baptist Foundation of South Carolina Weldon F. Fallaw, President

“There’s an opportune time to do things, a right time for everything on the earth: A right time to hold on and another to let go...” (Ecclesiastes 3:1,6b MSG)

This year, those words of Ecclesiastes, “to everything there is a season...,” weighed heavily on my mind. After serving the Baptist Foundation for 28 years, I have made the decision to retire on December 31. When contemplating this decision, I thought a lot about the phrase, “a time to every purpose under heaven.” I believe that now is the time to “let go” of the reigns of this ministry that has played such a significant part of my life.

I believe that God gives us time to use for His glory, to bring His truth to our generation, and to bring His message of salvation to the generations that follow. Our time honors God when we submit to His will for our lives, when we share His love with those that He has put in our paths, and when we leave a testimony of faith to those that follow us. What we do and say in life is so crucial. We only have a brief amount of time to make an impression on those around us. The scope of our influence, however, doesn’t have to end when our time on earth has ended. By using our time and resources to plan for the future, our influence can be felt for God’s glory for generations to come.

During these years with the Foundation, I have had the opportunity to meet friends all over this state who understand the brevity of time and the importance of using it well. Knowing that there will come a time when God calls them home, they’ve made it a priority to structure their estate plans in such a way that their loved ones and the ministries that they support will be provided for. Many have created endowments that will continue to provide an income stream for ministry until our Lord returns. Some have left a tithe or other portion of their estate to provide for ministry needs. One dear lady is still providing annual gifts to fourteen different ministries after her home-going many years ago.

Because of the provision that many of our friends have made for ministry causes in their estate plans, the Baptist Foundation of South Carolina has been able to distribute over $49,000,000 to primarily Baptist ministries since its inception almost 60 years ago. Most of our annual distributions are from endowment gifts that will continue to support the Lord’s work for “seasons” to come. Because of those that had the foresight to share their resources in their “seasons” of life, many ministries are being blessed today. The Baptist Foundation exists to share with each generation the importance of making preparations so that the next generation and generations to come will be able to have the resources to spread the Gospel message of salvation.

Leaving a legacy of faith can be accomplished through:

- ~ Bequests in wills. For most people, the largest gift that they will ever have the opportunity to make will be through those assets included in their estate plans. A portion designated for their church or other ministry can make a huge impact.
- ~ Charitable living trusts and gift annuities that pay life income to individuals and eventually provide for Baptist causes.
- ~ Donor Advised Funds, which provide opportunities to give today and choose how to disperse gifts later.
- ~ Endowment contributions, many made as gifts in memory or honor of a loved one.

The Foundation also provides low-cost, competitive investment services for South Carolina Baptist churches and ministries. Through prudent investment practices and quality investment instruments, the Foundation is able to help these ministries earn income on the funds that they have been entrusted with so that they can grow those dollars for future ministry purposes.

Although the past year was a difficult year for the economy, the Foundation, through prudent investment management practices and sound policies, continued to provide many resources for primarily South Carolina Baptist ministries. During the past fiscal year, the Foundation:

- ❖ Distributed $2,170,372 to primarily South Carolina Baptist charitable beneficiaries.
- ❖ Distributed an additional $1,079,968 to individual living trust beneficiaries from trust accounts, most of which will eventually become endowments.
- ❖ Awarded 19 grants totaling $71,690 for Kingdom growth projects across our state.
- ❖ Awarded $18,300 in scholarships to 59 students, with the majority of those funds going to students preparing for full-time Christian service.

- ❖ Entered into a relationship with PhilanthroCorp, a Christ-centered estate planning firm, to provide 100+ pages of estate planning information to our website in addition to providing an Estate Plan Organizer, an online tool that allows individuals to develop their estate plans online using a secure website that is safe, easy, and informative.
- ❖ Maintained our operating budget with no request for increase from Cooperative Program funding for the year 2009. Since our inception, the Foundation has returned over $5.89 to primarily Baptist causes for every $1 allocated to our ministry through the Cooperative Program.
- ❖ Received a clean annual audit with no reportable conditions and maintained membership and good standing with the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA).
- ❖ Adopted a new vision statement - “To see ALL experience Christian generosity.” This statement reflects the Foundation’s vision to see every person and every ministry, both the giver and the receiver, experience the blessing of generosity. Our vision is that ALL Christians will be compelled to give generously so that ALL ministries will thrive and be about the business of reaching a lost world.

As of March 31, 2009, the total fair market value of assets held by the Foundation was valued at $65,021,610. I am happy to report that this value appears to have been the low point at the end of a significant economic downturn. Our economy appears to be turning around and I am happy to report that, as of August 31, the value of our funds has increased significantly to $75,510,226. We are anticipating the market recovery to continue into the coming year.

In the coming year, the main priority for our trustees will be to seek God’s guidance in choosing a new leader to direct this ministry. Although this is a time of transition, the ministry of the Foundation will not go lacking. The Foundation staff is extremely competent, hard working, and focused on ministry. Our staff will continue to provide the outstanding service that they have always provided while preparing for a bright future.

I truly have enjoyed my “season” serving South Carolina Baptists. I never remember a day in which I didn’t look forward to my time at work. I have gained an abundance of friends and have had countless opportunities to witness Baptist ministry in action. What a blessing! The work and ministry done by the South Carolina Baptist Convention is outstanding and I have truly been blessed to spend these years serving this convention. The transition won’t be easy for me personally. After 28 years, my work has become more than just a “job”... it’s a part of me. But, I know that the Foundation is on strong footing and that the ministry here will continue to thrive.

My personal journey will lead to new opportunities for serving my Lord and my family in new ways. God’s grace is always sufficient and I know that, as He has led me to this time of “letting go,” He will lead me to new opportunities that I can embrace.

May God continue to bless the ministry of the Foundation until the “season” of His return!

Report of Connie Maxwell Children’s Home

Ben Davis, President

When an earthly father has abandoned or abused a young boy or girl, it can be difficult to teach this child that a Heavenly Father loves them unconditionally. That, though, is our mission and our daily responsibility at Connie Maxwell Children’s Home. Of course, we provide proper shelter, food, clothing, medical, and educational needs for over 250 children annually, but we also work daily to help them see that they can trust us and a loving God who truly cares about them. We don’t force our faith on our children any more than most parents or grandparents do to their young ones, but we give them every opportunity to learn about a Savior and make the important decision to trust and follow Him. On the main and largest campus in Greenwood, students go to Connie Maxwell Baptist Church for Sunday services and for special training and learning activities on Wednesday nights. At our locations in Chesterfield, Florence, Mauldin and Orangeburg, children go to local Baptist churches. We are thankful for this partnership we have with churches that reach out to minister to our children.

As it has been for every not-for-profit, church, business, and individual in our country, this has been one of the most challenging economic times in modern history for Connie Maxwell. Unfortunately, we have experienced the same difficulties as others as we planned for income shortfalls. Our first and foremost priority has been to maintain the same, high-quality ministry to our children. We did not allow services to our boys and girls to diminish at all. At the same time, we wanted to be fair and concerned about our dedicated staff. By thorough planning and looking at every area of our expenses, however, we have been able to balance our budget for the coming year unless new economic surprises arise that no one is expecting.

Our budget for next year calls for expenditures of approximately $7,846,000.00. This is a reduction of about $500,000 from the previous budget year. Most of this savings came from freezing our hiring, capping our salaries, cutting back on travel and printing, and being more creative with our purchasing. We have lost nine staff members through normal attrition including retirements, relocations and job changes, and these positions have not been filled. All in all, we believe we can keep up our first-class services to boys and girls while tightening our belts during this challenging time.

When children come to Connie Maxwell, there is no money stream for most of them and very little for others. This means that the expenses for taking care of these children must come from other sources since many of the families can't or won't assist in any way. Every other ministry partner the Convention supports receives income when college students, the elderly, subscribers, or investors use their services. When Connie Maxwell brings in a child, however, it is a new expense that must be borne by the ministry rather than being an opportunity to receive additional funds. That is why it is so necessary to have individuals, churches and others to provide "scholarships" that allow the children to come and live here.

We receive about 12% of our income from the Convention through the Cooperative Program. Another 10% comes from churches that take up special offerings or voluntarily put us into their budgets. About 5% comes from state or federal funds. Most of the rest comes from individuals and the interest income from our endowment. Of course, as everyone who has funds invested knows, this past year has been dismal for investment income. That is why it is so important for us to have the partnerships we have with the Convention, Baptist churches and individuals who truly care for the many children in our state who are hurting and are in need. It's like a big jigsaw puzzle where we must have every piece of the income in order to make the picture turn out right. We are grateful that our loyal supporters see Connie Maxwell as a necessary ministry to boys and girls and a mission field where children can be guided in their Christian faith.

Again this year, Connie Maxwell served as host to the Lakelands Association churches for the annual HarvestFest event. Literally thousands of young people came to our farm for an evening of good food, provided free by the churches, and a Christian band and speaker. Many of them accepted Christ or renewed their vows during this special time.

Also, our annual "A Connie Maxwell Christmas" again drew crowds from all over the state to view the beautifully decorated campus, see our outdoor Nativity drama, ride the horse-drawn wagons down luminary-lined streets, and hear the children perform at the church. This Christ-centered, family-oriented Christmas event is always held the first Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights of December.

Our volunteer program again brought groups and individuals from churches throughout the state to our campuses for missions opportunities with the children and to work on physical improvement projects. This year over 1,400 people offered around 9,000 hours of service for which we are most grateful.

As we look to the future for our ministry, we know that we must have financial and prayer support from South Carolina Baptists to continue to do what God ordained for us over 117-years ago: that we should help heal the hurt of boys and girls in need through Christian love and compassion. We do that through four long-term residential campuses, two emergency shelters, and a counseling and intake office. God has blessed us in this effort all these years, and we believe He will continue to do so as long as we adhere to His guidance and direction.

Please remember in your prayers our children and their many needs, our dedicated staff and the daily stresses they face, the administration and trustees as we plan and lead this wonderful ministry, and our supporters who provide the financial resources that allow us to minister to boys and girls who have been displaced from their homes.

Thank you for loving and caring about children whose names you might not know and whose faces you probably have never seen. God knows them all and He sees their faces as He uses His followers to partner with us for their care. We are thankful for His many blessings and for your continued support and prayers.

Report of South Carolina Baptist Ministries for the Aging, Inc. Tom Turner, President

I am grateful for the opportunity to bring you my first Annual update on the South Carolina Baptist Ministries for the Aging, a Christ-centered senior ministry for South Carolina Baptists. I assumed my role as President of SCBMA in May of this year and I am delighted to present this report.

Financial Status

Although I was not directly involved with SCBMA during past years, I am aware of the significant financial issues that the ministry has experienced. I am pleased to once again inform you that we are operating in the black for this fiscal year. As I write this report, we are starting our last quarter in the 2008-2009 fiscal year and the anticipation is that this positive financial pattern will continue through the quarter.

Major Changes/Updates

The focus over the past year has been to continue to improve the ministry's operation. With a thoughtful and devoted Board of Trustees, there have been several changes implemented to this end:

- The Ministry's 2008 Audit was unfortunately delayed during the recent leadership changes; however this audit is currently underway (July 2009) and is expected to be completed by fiscal year end.
- As previously mentioned in past Annual reports, SCBMA has had significant indebtedness. In the May 2009 Board Meeting, a motion passed to review our current debt service. During this review it was determined that the ministry was financially able to reduce the debt, negotiate new long term debt terms all while ensuring adequate cash reserves for business maintenance. In June, the ministry was successful in paying down the debt by 32% and setting a favorable new debt structure.
- We have conducted a thorough review of the community's Accounts Receivables status. From this review, there has been an aggressive new focus on our collections procedures resulting in bad debt collections of 20% of the current A/R in the 3rd quarter. The ministry is now maintaining current collections and we anticipate more bad debt collections will be recognized in the remainder of the year.
- As both of the community's physical plants continue to age, it is becoming more important there be continued capital improvement efforts to ensure the upgrading of the physical plants. This year we have completed a renovation of Bethea's Administrative Building and the internal updating of several vacant Martha Franks IL cottages.
- In 2008, SCBMA decided to extend a helping hand to retired ministers, minister's wives, and missionaries that need financial assistance to live in one of our campuses through the Annual Mother's Day Offering. Again this year, our churches have supported this financial assistance program and to date there are 2 Scholarship recipients. I pray that more individuals, churches and associations and will demonstrate the love of Christ by giving to this annual offering in upcoming years. May we remember, "A generous man will prosper; he who refreshes others will himself be refreshed". Prov 11:25

Current Opportunities

As you can see, there continues to be advancements at SCBMA, but opportunities still exist.

Within the Senior Living landscape, there are many factors that influence a senior's choice for retirement living options. Among these factors are the physical surroundings of the campus. A combination of deferred community maintenance and the age of the campuses now require the continued need of capital improvements. To meet these needs, the ministry will continue to require financial resources and careful planning.

With our recent long term debt changes, the financial status of the ministry is stronger than ever, however financial strength is only produced from a strong operation model. It is important that all our new procedures be carried out as intended and that a continuous improvement review happens. The future plans are for strategic reviews of various operation procedures to determine if revisions are required. We are blessed with a wonderful, caring staff at both communities and it our responsibility to develop these individuals to continue to provide high quality services to our seniors.

The current economy is having a significant impact on the moving decisions of the senior population. This is most evident in the Independent housing portion of our communities with delayed buying decisions leaving open real estate. The next fiscal year we will need to provide creative solutions to interested seniors to ensure continued occupancy growths at Martha Franks and Bethea.

Conclusion

It is an exciting time at SCBMA. Even with the opportunities in front of us, there is much to be thankful for and much to do. One might say that Bethea and Martha Franks are fine senior campuses and for that we would be grateful, but there is so much more happening on these campuses and in the lives of our seniors. As the past president Dr. McLawhorn has said, what makes the communities different is that they are distinctively Christ-centered and distinctively Southern Baptist. Our campuses are filled with energetic, excitable, involved and wise individuals who are doing some mighty work for the Lord. May the prayer for our ministry be that we remember those lessons learned from the past and depend upon the Lord in the future. As Jeremiah 29:11 says "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

We thank you for much assistance and support received through prayers, encouragement and financial measures of the Cooperative Program and the Mother's Day Offering. It is enabling us to take care of our wonderful Senior Adults and reach this State for Christ.

Report of Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee Tony Beam, Chairman

The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee studies moral, social, and cultural conditions in today's society. Committee members work closely with the Office of Public Policy to educate the public on these issues. The committee meets at least four times each year.

We host an annual Bar-B-Que luncheon to show appreciation to our Senators, House members and Constitutional Officers. To encourage all members of the General Assembly to attend this function, we host it on the State House grounds.

An annual highlight is the announcement of the annual E.A. McDowell Award recipient. This award recognizes an individual who exemplifies Christian action in the public arena, whether politics, government, or community action. Additionally, the committee recognizes one church in our convention that shows similar commitment in the area of social and moral concerns by conferring the Impact Your World award.

Passing pro-family legislation was hampered by budget debate arising out of falling revenues. In a year when several senators worked hard to realize gambling expansion in our small state, the budget issues were a welcomed distraction.

The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee continues to support and encourage the following like-minded organizations:

- Palmetto Family Council
- Truth Ministry
- SC Citizens for Life
- SC Parents Involved in Education
- Local Pregnancy Care Centers

Members of the committee are grateful for the opportunity to serve South Carolina Baptists and look forward to continue making a positive impact in the future.

Report of History Committee Donald Bowick, Chairman

Our heritage is a rich one that must be preserved and told for future generations. The task of your History Committee of South Carolina Convention is to gather materials pertinent to keep alive facts of what has happened for those who will come after us. It is our charge to collect, organize, and hold in trust information such as written materials, artifacts, and other items that can be used by historians and researchers in days ahead. Much of what we accumulate will need to be reworked into finished form by others. It is not our purpose to alter the facts and findings so as to produce an impressive array of our history mingled with fiction. While many in our society today may seek to rewrite history to suit their particular views, it is our endeavor to just collect information and preserve historical findings for generations to come. Those who would tell our story should have “just the truth” to declare definitive renderings of what really happened.

Due to budget constraints your committee had only one meeting this year which was held at the Convention Building. All committee members attended and the meeting was quite productive. We reviewed and discussed our on-going work with the historical collection. Plans were prioritized so as to give direction to the work of the committee in the future.

Jane Poster, part-time history consultant, Cindy Hale, part-time ministry assistant, and Mark Jeffcoat, director of Support Services Group, continue to diligently work with those who make inquiry through the offices at the Convention Building. More than 25 churches, as well as, associations, SCBC institutions, SCBC staff, and a number of genealogical researchers have been aided by them and other convention staff.

This year four articles have been written and published either in the Baptist Courier or placed on the Convention Historical Services website. Among the displays on the website is a list of church histories now in the SCBC building’s Historical Room.

The Historical Room continues to be a resource for researchers. One of the new displays in the Historical Room is the Convention Staff Executives from 1866 – 2007. The staff at the Convention building has researched and found pictures of J. O. B. Dargan, Thomas H. Pope, John F. Morrall, W. H. Strickland and R. H. Griffith. Photos of these past leaders were missing from Convention archives.

An index of minister obituaries listed in Convention Annuals, primarily from 1854 – 1947, was recently completed by Jane Poster and is now available to researchers. This project, in progress for two years, will certainly be valuable to church historians, families and many others involved in research.

Work continues on collection and organization of convention archives and identification of materials of interest. Among some of the recent acquisitions are a number of original copies of SCBC Annual Meeting Minutes that were missing from our collection. Tom Brannon, former SCBC Public Relations Director, is assisting our staff in identification of photographs and slides. His knowledge of and commitment to this task is most appreciated.

The “Singing God’s Praises through the Ages” traveling exhibit on Hymns and Songbooks used by South Carolina Baptists has already been requested by several of our churches. This display is available to churches and we encourage church leaders to make use of this splendid opportunity to have the exhibit in your church.

We continue to urge our churches and institutions to write their histories and send copies for our collection. Professors and teachers of History, English, etc. at our institutions and church schools would do well to encourage their students to do research writings on Baptist history and biographies of leaders. The History Committee is delighted to have the opportunity to recognize such work. One of the highlights of our report each year is to present certificates of recognition for such historical writings.

MINISTERIAL STAFF DIRECTORIES

Most church staff directories appearing on the following pages have been compiled from mailing files rather than from the Annual Church Profile. Unlike the statistical tables, which have historical value, these directories are primarily mailing lists. Inasmuch as the mailing files are updated almost daily, we believe that these directories provide the most accurate and current information available as of February 22, 2009.

Statistical Summary and Tables

Statistics Summary and Tables

Notes:

These statistical and financial tables contain a report from each church and mission in friendly cooperation with South Carolina Baptist Convention. The Convention's constitution does not make a distinction between churches and missions. In the case of missions, whose information also may be reported by the sponsoring church, there is the possibility of duplicate reporting of some statistics.

Except for the first four financial columns (marked with an *), all data is taken from the Annual Church Profile as processed by the Data Processing Office. This information reflects the church year as reported by the churches. The first four financial columns are from the Convention's audited records and reflect the calendar year. There is no duplication of information in these columns. The Budget Gifts amount includes regular Cooperative Program giving (support for the South Carolina Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention) plus cooperative gifts (support for South Carolina Baptist Convention causes only or Southern Baptist Convention causes only).

The pastor's name listed for each church is that in the SCBC computer system on March 3, 2010. This pastor may not have been the pastor during the reporting period.

Each church is listed in the association in which it was a member during the 2008-2009 church year. Churches that transferred from one association to another during 2009 are typically listed with the association to which they belonged at the beginning of 2009, the change becoming effective at the first of 2010. Following the list of associations is a list of churches that were not affiliated with an association recognized by SCBC. Every effort has been made to footnote changes in association membership that have occurred since the last printing of Convention Annual.

Any church affiliated with the SCBC that did not submit an Annual Church Profile is listed with the notation, "No Annual Church Profile Received," and no statistical information is given.
