About the Cover: Our new South Carolina Baptist Convention logo is designed to reflect our growing commitment to Experience Kingdom Life and to bring others into His kingdom. The rectangle-in-motion that surrounds the South Carolina Baptist Convention icon suggests onward advance. Its four corners point to the corners of the earth, as He commissioned. The letters also move forward, encouraging us to go now with an urgency to reach the lost.

The globe reminds us that South Carolina Baptist Convention has a role to play wherever He leads us. The prominence of our state reflects that, even though we are not rich and powerful, God equips the called for leadership in world missions. The shadows cast by the cross and South Carolina's outline show that God's light is our guide.

Blue, the color of the sky overhead, reminds us that Jesus is even more constant in our lives than the sky. Forest green suggest the green pastures of our Shepherd.

The phrase "Experience Kingdom Life," reminds believers and invites all others to the joy of a relationship with our Heavenly Father.

Logo designed by Stan Sands, graphic consultant. Cover designed by Jason Cashatt.

Theme: Experience Kingdom Life

Tuesday Morning, November 12

Pre-session music provided by SC Singing Churchmen under the direction of Ray Conway, assistant director. Songs included: "Jerusalem," "Majesty and Glory," and "Favorite Song of All."

Texts of resolutions and motions are printed as submitted without editorial changes. The Book of Reports is printed on pages R-13 – R-115.

Tuesday Morning, November 11

1. Organization of the Convention. President Eddie Leopard called the 188th annual meeting of the South Carolina Baptist Convention to order.

Enrollment and Credentials Committee. Chairman Michael Watson moved that the 348 messengers and all subsequent messengers constitute the 188th annual session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention. The vote was taken, and the motion was adopted.

Order of Business Committee. Part I. On behalf of the committee, Chairman Broadus Moody moved that the printed agenda become the official order of business and during the annual meeting messengers be limited to three minutes on discussion of any matter of business. The vote was taken, and the motion was adopted.

2. Worship.

Music. The Singing Churchmen, under the direction of Mark Powers, sang "O Worship the King."

Devotional. Joe Youngblood, evangelist, and president of Evangelism Network of the SC Baptist Convention, gave a devotional. He referenced scripture Matthew 28 beginning with verse 18 and said if we are not on mission of sharing the gospel then we are not truly experiencing Kingdom life. Because we are empowered of the Holy Spirit, we have the power of the living God in us and that power enables any child of God to go forth and share the gospel. May this year have God draw us to a deeper commitment of sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Music. Mark Powers led messengers in singing "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty," and "Here I Am to Worship."

3. Greetings to Messengers. The following brought greetings to the messengers:

Benjamin Snoddy, president, brought greetings on behalf of Baptist Educational & Missionary Convention of South Carolina.

4. Business Session

Quinn Hooks, pastor, Evergreen Church, Effingham, made the following motion: "That the Executive Committee at next year's convention to give a report on the feasibility of and possible time table for a move to a multi-site Convention meeting to increase the opportunities and portals for South Carolina Baptists to participate."

This was referred to the Order of Business Committee.

Murrill Boitnott, messenger from Edwards Road Church, Greenville, made the following motion: "That the South Carolina Baptist Convention appoints a study committee to explore the possible ministry of providing residential care for developmentally disabled adults."

This was referred to the Order of Business Committee.

5. Cooperative Program Report. Gary Anderson, director, Cooperative Program & Stewardship Office, expressed appreciation to South Carolina Baptists for their generosity and spirit exhibited in giving through the Cooperative Program. He said we have the opportunity to share the gospel in ways never done before to impact lostness. Messengers watched a video entitled Tell Me the Story of Jesus featuring Jerry Rankin, president, International Mission Board. Rankin challenged everyone to increase their Cooperative Program portion from their church to provide the financial support to reach others for Jesus Christ.

6. Nominations Committee Report. Chairman Ron Dillon called attention to the committee's report on pages R-114 – R-115 in the Convention Book of Reports. On behalf of the committee, Chairman Dillon moved adoption of the committee's report. The vote was taken, and the report was adopted.

7. Anderson University Report. President Evans Whitaker said Anderson University is intensely academic but also passionately Christian. The school had an 8.5% increase in fulltime enrollment this fall. U.S. News and World Report considers Anderson University to be one of the top up and coming institutions. The school was named to the 2008 and 2009 lists of America's 100 Best College Buys. He reported that the University received a gift of 125 acres located near the campus. This year Anderson has more nationally accredited programs ever in the history of the University. Dr. Michael Dudit, Dean of Graduate School of Christian Ministry and editor of Preaching Magazine, will be leading a new Master of Ministry degree which will begin in the fall 2009. Student Wesley Johnson shared his testimony and expressed appreciation for Anderson University and the opportunity to pursue quality education in a Christian environment.

8. Worship. The Singing Churchmen sang “When I Survey the Wondrous Cross” followed by Mark Powers leading messengers in singing “Praise Him, Praise Him,” and “There’s Something About that Name.”

9. Executive Board Report. President Leopard recognized Tom Swilley, chairman, Executive Board. On behalf of the Executive Board, Swilley presented a crystal plaque to Evelyn Blount, executive director-treasurer, Woman’s Missionary Union, in appreciation for her years of service leadership with Woman’s Missionary Union. Blount is retiring December 31, 2008.

Swilley recognized Dennis Wilkins, chairman of the Budget, Finance, and Audit Committee of the Executive Board. Wilkins called attention to the 2009 South Carolina Baptist Convention Experience Kingdom Life budget on pages R-47 – R-49 in the Convention Book of Reports. Wilkins said the Budget Subcommittee gave careful attention to Cooperative Program giving over the last ten years. In 1998 churches gave 8.89% of undesignated receipts through the Cooperative Program. By 2007 this percentage had dropped to 7.72%, which is a decline of 1.17% over the last ten years. This represented a 13% decrease in gifts coming from the churches. Budget requests from SCBC Institutions were greater this year than available funds to allocate. Budget requests of Executive Board ministries were based on the new staff organization.

In September, the Budget, Finance, and Audit Committee established a proposed 2009 budget. However, shortly after that decision, several events took place that had significant impact on the economic markets, and concerns about recession. After further review it was determined that it would be wise to reconsider the budget proposal for 2009. The committee decided to reduce the increase in the budget from $800,000 to $300,000. The revised budget was presented to the Executive Board October 14 and received unanimous approval.

Wilkins said the SC Cooperative Program Advance Plan approved in 2007 for the years 2008-2012 calls for a 50% allocation of any increase in a new budget to the Southern Baptist Convention and the remaining 50% for South Carolina Ministries and that is included in the budget proposal. The proposed 2009 budget allocates any gifts that exceed the budget goal to provide 55% to the International Mission Board, 25% to the North American Mission Board, and 20% for scholarships for South Carolina participants on mission trips. This sends 80% of any gifts beyond the budget goal outside of the state of South Carolina.

Wilkins reported that budget gifts for 2007 were exceeded by $1,053,768. Fifty percent of the overage, $526,884, was sent to the Southern Baptist Convention. The remaining 50% was allocated to the SC Kingdom Challenge Fund. In April 2008 the Executive Board voted to allocate the Kingdom Challenge Fund by the new formula that was adopted for the 2008 budget. For the remaining $526,884 of funds received beyond budget, 55% or $289,786 was sent to IMB, 25% or $131,721 was sent to NAMB, and 20% or $105,377 was allocated for scholarships for SC Baptists to participate in mission trip projects. The final 2007 Cooperative Program gift distribution included allocations of 41.57% to the SBC and 58.43% for South Carolina ministries. This moves the Convention closer to achieving a 50/50 distribution of Cooperative Program funds.

Wilkins said that the proposed 2009 budget reflects an increase of $150,000 for ministries in South Carolina. This includes a proposed increase of $75,000 for the work of SC Baptist institutions: Connie Maxwell Children's Home, SC Baptist Ministries for the Aging, Anderson University, North Greenville University, and Charleston Southern University. The Baptist Courier and Baptist Foundation did not request an increase in funding for 2009. The proposed increase of $75,000 for the work of the Executive Board through the Convention staff reflects the new organizational structure. The reorganization led to the elimination of seven fulltime and added three new fulltime position, for a net reduction of four fulltime positions.

On behalf of the Executive Board, Wilkins moved for the adoption of the 2009 South Carolina Baptist Convention Experience Kingdom Life Budget as outlined on pages R-47 – R-49 in the Convention Book of Reports.

Sonya Shepherd, messenger from Calvary Church in Ware Shoals, moved that the Joy Retreat be added back into the 2009 budget at the same amount as 2008. The motion was seconded.

Wilkins said the Joy Retreat is a program question and not a budget question. He said from a budget perspective there was $3,000 in the budget last year, and that same amount is in the proposed 2009 budget, but is included in the Evangelization and Missions Team budget.

President Leopard recognized Marshall Fagg, associate executive director, Evangelization and Missions Team. Fagg said that the special needs ministry is not being eliminated, but is being restructured in an effort to reach more special needs people across South Carolina. He announced that a meeting will be held November 20 at the convention building regarding this ministry.

Shepherd said the camp has been in existence for 25 plus years. This past year 340 campers attended Joy Retreat, and two dozen individuals received Christ. The chaperones are also exposed to the gospel. She said that Joy Retreat also provides mission opportunities for youth groups from across the state.

Shepherd restated her motion that Joy Retreat be added back into the 2009 budget at the same amount as 2008.

President Leopard stated that funding is in the budget for special needs ministries in the Evangelism and Missions Team budget.

B.J. Smith, messenger from Calvary Church in Ware Shoals, stated that for six of the past eight years he has attended Joy Retreat, and two of the last years he has been an assistant teacher. He said Joy Retreat has a major impact on the lives of special needs adults, and it is also a unique opportunity for many to participate. He said he would like to see Joy Retreat continue.

Wilkins said the motion in place is on adopting the 2009 budget proposal and is not about the existence of Joy Retreat. He said money is available in the Evangelization and Missions Team budget for events like the Joy Retreat.

President Leopard ruled that the motion is out of order.

Quinn Hooks, pastor, Evergreen Church, Effingham, expressed appreciation to the budget committee and stated, "That in spite of these difficult economic times, individuals practice biblical tithing, that churches continue their support of the Cooperative Program, and for those individuals and churches who are financially able to increase their giving so that more persons may experience Kingdom life."

This was received as information.

Chris Autry, pastor and messenger from Flint Hill Church in Fort Mill, asked why the Office of Prayer and Spiritual Awakening was removed from the budget. He said it seems contradictory that we will experience Kingdom life without the equipping of prayer and spiritual awakening in churches across South Carolina.

President Leopard recognized Jim Austin, executive director-treasurer. Austin said there are three positions in the new organizational structure on the Convention staff that have a specific assignment of prayer.

The vote was taken on adopting the 2009 South Carolina Baptist Convention Experience Kingdom Life Budget as outlined on pages R-47 – R-49 in the Convention Book of Reports, and the budget was adopted.

Swilley recognized Fagg. Fagg said that the partnership with the International Mission Board region of South Asia will come to a conclusion in 2009. He presented a recommendation that the new partnership focus for 2010-2015 be: South Carolina Baptists: A Witness to the World. He said South Carolina churches are involved in work all across North America and literally to the ends of the earth. The new focus will include partnerships with the SCBC churches, associations, directors of missions, SCBC institutions, North American Mission Board, other SBC state conventions and associations, International Mission Board, LifeWay, and Great Commission organizations.

On behalf of the Executive Board, Chairman Swilley presented the following motion: that the new partnership focus for 2010-2015 be South Carolina Baptists: A Witness to the World. The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

Chairman Swilley recognized Jim Austin. Austin referred messengers to the insert located in the daily bulletin entitled Experience Kingdom Life. He said our desire as South Carolina Baptists is not only to personally experience Kingdom life, but share the message of Kingdom living with a lost world and a lost state that desperately needs to know our Savior, and how to experience Kingdom life.

The mission statement for Experience Kingdom Life emphasis is, “Provide servant leadership with Kingdom partners.”

The vision/purpose statement is, “To urgently take the whole gospel to the whole world – that all may be whole.” Austin referenced scriptures John 14:6, Acts 4:12, and Colossians 1:14 and said we boldly proclaim that Jesus is the way and the only way to God.

Austin said that through our SCBC institutions we are fulfilling the gospel mandate to take the whole gospel to the whole world that all may be whole. Anderson University, North Greenville University, and Charleston Southern University are teaching academic disciplines from a Christian worldview integrating faith and learning. Through SCBMA we are caring for those who have served the Lord faithfully for so many years. Through Connie Maxwell Children's Home we are caring for orphans and children.

Austin shared the initiatives of the Experience Kingdom Life emphasis:

- Sharing the Gospel to impact lostness
- Multiplication of Disciples and New Churches
- Value of Cooperative Giving
- Spiritual Vitality

Austin referenced scripture Matthew 16:18 and said, "Gates are placed in position for defensive reason and defensive posture. Perhaps there was a time when hell had gates and it was on the defensive. Unfortunately for today, it seems that it is not hell that has the gates, but the church has the gates, and the church is on the defensive. Our desire as SC Baptists is we could change that and the church would break down whatever gates it erected and put hell on notice that it is time to put the gates back in place. Because we are on the march again and we are seeking to tell and explain to our world that we are going to take the whole gospel to the whole world that all might be whole, and in the process all of us truly experience Kingdom life."

On behalf of the Executive Board, Chairman Swilley presented the following motion: that Experience Kingdom Life be the emphasis of the South Carolina Baptist Convention for the period of 2009-2013. The vote was taken, and the motion carried.

10. President's Remarks. In honor of Veterans Day, President Leopard asked all veterans to stand for a time of recognition. Messengers expressed appreciation with applause. President Leopard led in a time of prayer and thanksgiving.

11. Video Presentation. Messengers watched a video remembering ministers who have died since the last annual Convention meeting.

12. History Committee Report. Chairman Don Bowick introduced Jane Poster who serves as history consultant for SC Baptist Convention, and expressed appreciation for her work. Bowick called attention to the committee's report on page R-113 in the Convention Book of Reports. He reported the committee sent a letter to each SC Baptist church requesting a copy of their recent published history. A list of the 114 churches that responded is printed in the Daily Bulletin. Each church that provided a history will receive a certificate. The certificates are available at the Historical Services display in the Exhibit Hall.

13. Worship. Mark Powers led everyone in singing "Indescribable" and "God of Wonders."

Prayer. Don Dowless, executive director for academics, North Greenville University, and Convention sermon alternate preacher, led in a time of prayer.

Convention Sermon. Tom Tucker, pastor, Calvary Church, Rock Hill preached the convention sermon. He referenced scripture Joshua 24:15 and said we either walk by faith or after the flesh. We must understand that man is not a product of the environment but of man's choices. Sometimes the choice in serving Christ is difficult. There is a battle of the flesh and of the spirit. The only life we can experience Kingdom life is in His life. The activity of walking by faith is being glued to Him and to the Word of God. If we choose to go our way, we will forfeit the beautiful privilege of walking in the fullness of who Jesus is. If we choose to go our way, we will not experience His life or the blessings God has for us.

South Carolina has been known as a state that is glued to the Word of God, that loves God, and a state that has a heartbeat for missions not only in America but around the world. We are at a crossroads now. We have a choice to make. We need to get back to the cross and the message of Jesus. God doesn't need any of us, but we need Him.

Closing. Jim Osteen, evangelist, closed the session with prayer.

15. Worship.

Devotional. Frank Shivers, evangelist referenced scripture Matthew 28:18. He said Jesus' mandate in this text regarding the primary business of the church can be summed up in four words: 1) integrational – go into all the world; 2) invitational – make disciples of all men; 3) inductual – not only introduce man to Christ and invite man to Christ, but to induct man into the church through baptism; and 4) instructional – teach, train, develop, and utilize the talents of new converts. Shivers led in prayer.

Music. North Greenville Concert Choir sang "Step By Step/O God Our Help Medley." Mark Powers led messengers in singing "All Hail the Power," "His Name is Wonderful," and "All Hail the Power."

16. Bylaws Committee Report. Chairman Alton Nix called attention to the committee's report on page R-109 in the Convention Book of Reports and moved for its adoption. The vote was taken, and the amendment was adopted.

17. Business Session.

Business Previously Introduced. Quinn Hooks, pastor, Evergreen Church, Effingham, made the following motion: "That the Executive Committee at next year's convention to give a report on the feasibility of and possible time table for a move to a multi-site Convention meeting to increase the opportunities and portals for South Carolina Baptists to participate."

Murrill Boitnott, messenger from Edwards Road Church, Greenville, made the following motion: "That the South Carolina Baptist Convention appoints a study committee to explore the possible ministry of providing residential care for developmentally disabled adults."

President Leopard recognized Broadus Moody, chairman, Order of Business Committee. Moody said the Committee is referring these motions to the Executive Board of the SC Baptist Convention.

18. North Greenville University Report. President Jimmy Epting said North Greenville University is doing well and experienced a record enrollment of 2,200 students, over 200 students saved this year, and 200 commitments to global missions. Student Michael McMinn talked about God's faithfulness and provision through obedience, and shared his personal testimony. The Presidents Quartet sang "He Touched Me."

North Greenville University's report begins on page R-95 in the Convention Book of Reports.

19. Church Vitalization Team Report. Steve Cloud, interim associate executive director, called attention to the Church Vitalization Team's report beginning on page R-70 in the Convention Book of Reports. He said church vitality and revitalization must include reproduction of effective Kingdom leaders, and include the multiplication of healthy and effective churches. He invited two members of the Church Vitalization Team to share their vision for church vitality.

Mark Powers, director, Worship & Music Office, said that one of the goals for the Worship & Music Office is to help SC Baptist churches discover effective worship and music through which God is calling them to impact their community. They will do this by 1) building relationships with all music directors, 2) organize and equip fulltime worship leaders to resource and mentor part-time and volunteer worship leaders, 3) provide vital worship training and inspirational events, 4) link worship leaders together, and 5) help SC Baptist churches start new worship services as an evangelistic and revitalization tool.

Don Matthews, director, Revitalization Office, said that 60%-80% of our churches across our nation and across South Carolina have plateaued or declined. There is a need for emphasis on church health and revitalization. Church health is not based on size, but on obedience in following the requirements of our Lord Jesus Christ and impacting the culture for Christ especially in the areas of evangelism, worship, discipleship, fellowship, and empowering our churches through prayer. The Revitalization Office will encourage the churches to be involved in a strategic prayer process in preparation for building church health. A team of church health missionaries will be formed that will network to help meet the needs of the churches.

Cloud encouraged messengers to contact members of the Church

Vitalization Team for assistance with whatever is going on in the life of their church.

20. Resolutions Committee Report. Chairman Daryle Hawthorne called attention to the report of the Resolutions Committee as printed in the daily bulletin, which included all resolutions received and the committee's recommendation for each resolution. Chairman Hawthorne and his committee presented the following resolutions:

On behalf of the committee, Daryle Hawthorne presented the following resolution on Appreciation and moved its adoption.

RESOLVED, That we thank God supremely for the privilege of being part of His family and servants in the cause of Jesus Christ His Son. To God be the glory.

Quinn Hooks, Evergreen Church, Effingham, said that in recognition of the constitution that allows an amendment to a resolution in case of a national emergency with two-thirds vote of the messengers, and moved to add the following:

“WHEREAS, Our nation is in a financial crisis and emergency not seen since the days of the great depression,

RESOLVED, That despite these difficult economic times, we encourage individuals to act in faith by tithing to their local church,

RESOLVED, That churches will trust God for the increase and continue to support the CP, that individuals who are financially able to increase their giving to their local church do so, that churches which are financially able to increase their giving to Cooperative Program do so, and

RESOLVED, That we as members of South Carolina Baptist Convention will place our faith in God and be biblical stewards of what He has given us so that more persons may experience Kingdom Life.

President Leopard ruled that this amendment is not germane to the Resolution on Appreciation, and Hooks withdrew his amendment.

The vote was taken, and the resolution was adopted.

On behalf of the committee, Ken Reid presented the following resolution on Disaster Relief Efforts of South Carolina Baptists and moved for its adoption:

RESOLVED, That we, the messengers to the 188th annual session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Columbia on November 11–12, 2008, express our deepest appreciation and support to the Disaster Relief Group of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, to the volunteers who respond in Jesus' name to meet needs wherever they present themselves; and be it further

The vote was taken, and the resolution was adopted.

On behalf of the committee, Dusty Bradshaw presented the following resolution on Affirming the Use of the Term Christmas in Public Life and moved its adoption:

WHEREAS, Christmas celebrates one of the most holy events in Christian history, the birth of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior (Luke 1:5-2:40; Matthew 2:1-23), the incarnation (John 1:1-18), and the good news to all people that the Messiah has come; and

WHEREAS, Secularism is a pervasive and aggressive movement in American culture to exclude religious institutions and symbols from public life; and

WHEREAS, Organizations such as the American Civil Liberties Union, People for the American Way, and many others are relentless in their efforts to remove references to God and Jesus Christ from government discussion or public display; and

WHEREAS, One of the main battlefronts in this effort is the attack against all references to Christmas in the public arena, which rises to the level of a national debate with increasing intensity each year; and

WHEREAS, There is great pressure being exerted on schools, communities, businesses, and other public institutions to replace the term Christmas with a secular term such as Winter Celebration or Holiday Festival, and many schools and other public institutions have capitulated to this pressure, banning the use of the word Christmas; and

WHEREAS, The messengers to the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Indianapolis, Indiana, June 10—11, 2008, encouraged believers to be aware of businesses, schools, and all other public institutions in their areas that are removing Christmas as the official designation of the season and to use their influence to restore Christmas to its proper place in the culture; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we, the messengers to the 188th annual session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Columbia on November 11–12, 2008, affirm the resolution passed by the 2008 Southern Baptist Convention; and be it further

RESOLVED, That in the Christmas season we emphasize the birth of Jesus, the celebration of the incarnation, and the spirit of giving rather than receiving; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we encourage South Carolina Baptists to be aware of and resist the march of secularism wherever it arises in opposition to the historic understanding of our freedom to worship and express our love for Christ in the marketplace of ideas.

The vote was taken, and the resolution was adopted.

On behalf of the committee, Chadwick Ivester presented the following resolution on Recovery of the Lost Act of Family Worship in the Christian Home and moved its adoption:

WHEREAS, The Bible promotes the act of Family Worship: as a family unit (Psalms 78:1-8; Joshua 24:15); in diligently teaching our children Biblical doctrines of the Christian faith (Deuteronomy 6:4-9); in singing hymns and spiritual songs (Ephesians 5:19); in bringing up our children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord (Ephesians 6:4); and in prayer (Ephesians 6:4); and

WHEREAS, The ideal of the act of Family Worship has long been and remains a cherished South Carolina Baptist principle; and is evident from our South Carolina Baptist forefathers, as in the

1813 Charleston Association's Baptist Catechism (a summary of the principles of the Charleston Confession in the form of questions and answers, designed and used for teaching children, which was an essential tool for Family Worship); and

WHEREAS, The ideal of the act of Family Worship has long been and remains a cherished Southern Baptist principle, with Article XVIII of the 2000 Baptist Faith and Message, stating that "Parents are to teach their children spiritual and moral values and to lead them, through consistent lifestyle example and loving discipline, to make choices based on biblical truth;" and

WHEREAS, Because children copy their parents' spirit and example, Family Worship increases the spirit of reverence for God and His Word (Rev. M. Simpson, 1882 - The Influence of Family Worship); and

WHEREAS, History has shown that when Family Worship was invoked in the home, our nation and families flourished; and

WHEREAS, In recent generations, the act of Family Worship has been sorely neglected, as is evidenced by the breakdown of the Christian Family of our generation; and

WHEREAS, The recovery of the lost act of Family Worship in the Christian home has the capacity to nurture stronger families and a stronger nation; and now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we, the messengers to the 188th annual session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Columbia on November 11–12, 2008, fervently encourage our church families to recover, implement, and promote the lost act of Family Worship in their homes; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we define Family Worship as the daily meeting together of a family, in the same room, for a time of worship including Bible reading, singing spiritual songs, reviewing doctrine and praying; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we warmly encourage the churches of the South Carolina Baptist Convention and their pastors to promote Family Worship and encourage their church families to place the highest priority to recover and implement Family Worship in their homes; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we encourage LifeWay to publish and promote family worship resources; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we heartily encourage denominational servants to support and encourage the churches of the South Carolina Baptist Convention to recover, implement, and promote the lost act of Family Worship.

The vote was taken, and the resolution was adopted.

WHEREAS, Believers are being imprisoned, tortured, enslaved, killed, or otherwise persecuted; and

WHEREAS, Christian moral values are being rejected and/or ridiculed by politicians, school officials, and other socially-charged activist groups in America and abroad; and

WHEREAS, Christians should have the God-given freedom to form and hold opinions and religious beliefs without interference from or coercion by any government, person, or other religion; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we, the messengers to the 188th annual session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Columbia on November 11–12, 2008, express our opposition to religious persecution in any form in any place; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we encourage our federal elected officials to elevate religious liberty concerns to the highest priority in foreign policy, invoking sanctions against those nations which tolerate religious persecution; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge businesses to examine their relationships with those companies and industries that operate in countries where there is evidence of religious persecution; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we respectfully encourage the main stream media to bring these issues to the attention of the American public; and be it finally

WHEREAS, The eye is the lamp of the body (Matthew 6:22); and

WHEREAS, The peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:7); therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we encourage our churches to preview and pray over any movie, television, music, or any other media they endorse; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we seek Christ-centered alternatives to secular media so that we will not be a stumbling block (Romans 14:13); and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we guard our children's ears, eyes, and hearts from movies, television, music, or any media that will cause them to stumble (Matthew 18:6).

The vote was taken, and the resolution was adopted.

On behalf of the committee, Daryle Hawthorne presented the following resolution on Scheduled Activities on the Lord's Day and moved its adoption.

WHEREAS, The New Testament Church was established and chose to meet and worship on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7) as a remembrance of the Resurrection (Luke 6); and

WHEREAS, The erosion of the Lord's Day as a special day for worship and rest is constantly on the increase; and

WHEREAS, Families are being pulled in different directions due to increased involvement in children's extracurricular activities; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That South Carolina Baptists express concern over the continuing secularization of the Lord's Day and urge our churches to teach the importance of the proper use of The Lord's Day to strengthen families and give proper recognition to God as Creator; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention expresses concern over extracurricular activities encroaching on families on the Lord's Day; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we, the messengers to the 188th annual session of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Columbia on November 11-12, 2008, encourage parents of school-aged children to build relationships with school and district officials in order to have a voice on critical issues; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we ask parents to contact their state legislators and ask them to sponsor or support legislation that would prohibit public school events from being held on Sunday.

Robert Lockaby, pastor, Walnut Grove Church, Marietta, stated that he is concerned with the tone of this resolution that it says that we are resolved to urge our churches to teach importance of the proper use of the Lord's day. We are focusing on extra activities with children, but many church members go out to dinner, to retail stores, etc. He referenced scripture Matthew 6:5 and said he does not oppose the amendment, that he feels it needs to be expanded to encourage church members to make plans to stay home between services to further enhance the Lord's day.

The vote was taken, and the resolution was adopted.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD TO SOUTH CAROLINA BAPTIST CONVENTION

Tom Swilley, Chairman

Report of Executive Director-Treasurer

James W. Austin

With nearly a year and a half now under my belt as Executive Director-Treasurer of our State Convention, I feel as if I am just now beginning to get my sea legs. As I have become better acquainted with the work of our state, I increasingly realize how much we as South Carolina Baptists have to be thankful for. Not only has our Lord allowed South Carolina to be the oldest state convention, but we are also one of the most progressive when it comes to our approach to ministry. From a human perspective, much of the credit for this goes to Dr. Carlisle Driggers who for many years gave visionary and servant leadership to our state convention. Dr. Driggers was not content with the status quo nor did he accept mediocrity in ministry. He developed a very competent staff team and challenging vision to guide our Convention for years to come. During his tenure the Convention adopted the theme of Empowering Kingdom Growth which was widely embraced not only by the South Carolina Baptist Convention but also throughout the Southern Baptist Convention as well. This emphasis ran its course for ten years then was extended for an additional five.

As we as a Convention now prayerfully consider the next phase of God's vision for us, our Board and staff strongly believe that we would be wise to continue to build upon the concepts of Empowering Kingdom Growth developed by Dr. Driggers and embraced by the Convention. With this in mind, we humbly submit what we believe will build on the Kingdom mindset but also offer a fresh emphasis and vision we call Experience Kingdom Life. In John 10:10 our Lord said, "I came that you might have life and have life abundantly." As South Carolina Baptists we truly desire and envision every citizen of our state to personally know and experience the life and love of Christ. Our new organizational structure and emphasis will serve us as a framework in fulfilling this vision.

Since our past Board meeting I have continued to gain insight into our Convention life by participating in

- six regional listening sessions
- planning meetings relating to improvements of White Oak Conference Center
- preliminary initiatives of the Experience Kingdom Life emphasis
- worked with our search committees for associate executive director of Multiplication Team and Church Vitalization Team
- filled the Director of Revitalization Office position
- fulfilled numerous speaking and preaching engagements across our state
- represented our State Convention at various church, state, and national gatherings.

Under the new reorganization, the Office of Public Policy Issues remained under the Executive Director-Treasurer. Their report follows.

Office of Public Policy Issues – Joe Mack, director

Provides staff leadership for Christian Life & Public Affairs Committee

- This committee studies today's moral, social and cultural trends and brings reports and recommendations to Convention staff. The CLPAC desires to help churches and associations through educational programs on today's issues. The CLPAC drafts and submits most of the proposed resolutions for the SCBC annual meeting.
- Although the Office of Public Policy works with Governor Sanford's office on various issues, we especially enjoy the task of gathering information so that deserving Baptists receive honor for their lifetime work. Retiring Director of Missions Wallace Hughes received the Order of the Palmetto on June 1st at Landrum First Baptist Church. The Order of the Palmetto is the state's highest civilian honor.
- The Office of Public Policy continues to participate in the EPIC (Equipping People In Church) regional training conferences.
- We also maintain a page on the Convention website and send email updates several times per year.
- Additionally, we work with churches on an individual basis providing research and information that is requested. If we don't have the information you need, we'll find it for you if it can be found.

Works as liaison between SC Baptists and the SC General Assembly

- This has been the busiest and the most productive legislative years we've ever had. We tracked/monitored about twenty bills this year. The top three issues that faced us this year were gambling, prayer in the public square, and ultrasound imaging before abortions. We were instrumental in killing at least five gambling bills, making it legal to have public prayer in South Carolina, and requiring a sixty-minute wait between finishing an ultrasound and beginning an abortion to give the mother one last chance to weigh all her options before terminating the life of her unborn child.
- Three more issues that demanded a lot of time were pay day loans, sexually oriented businesses, and common law marriage. These issues were not resolved this year. We will revisit them in January when the General Assembly returns for a new session.

Provides staff leadership for Resolutions Committee

- This seven-member committee receives written resolution proposals from individuals and churches. They review, comment on, draft and recommend memorials or resolutions to the Convention messengers in November. This group meets 3—5 times per year in preparation of the annual meeting.

Works with/supports like-minded parachurch organizations as an extension of the Christian Life & Public Affairs Committee: Palmetto Family Council (South Carolina's arm of Focus on the Family); SC Citizens for Life; SC Association of Pregnancy Care Centers; SC Parents Involved in Education; SC Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault; Columbia Christian Business Men's Association

(1) Cooperative Gifts includes gifts from South Carolina churches restricted to all Southern Baptist Convention causes or all South Carolina Baptist Convention causes. These gifts are allocated on a pro-rata basis according to Cooperative Program section of the budget.

Recommendation 3: The Budget Committee recommends the continuation of the SC Cooperative Program Advance Plan which covers the period of 2008-2012. The Advance Plan allocates 50% of all new Cooperative Program budget funds to the work of the Southern Baptist Convention. For 2009 the proposed budget will actually allocate to Southern Baptist Convention 40.44% and to the South Carolina Baptist Convention 59.56%. During this five year plan each increase in Cooperative Program funding will immediately allocate 50% to the SBC and raise the percentage given to the SBC.

Recommendation 4: That any budget gifts exceeding the budget requirements be allocated as follows: International Mission Board 55%, North American Mission Board 25%, and scholarships for SC participants in mission trips 20%. When the budget goal is exceeded, 80% of the funds will go outside of SC for IMB and NAMB.

Recommendation 5: That funding for the Church Staff Retirement Plan administered by GuideStone Financial Resources of the Southern Baptist Convention be funded exclusively from the South Carolina Baptist Convention section of the budget. The Church Staff Retirement Plan provides retirement contributions to the individual accounts of South Carolina Baptist ministers and provides protection benefits in the area of life and disability. For a church to be eligible for its ministers to participate in the Church Staff Retirement Plan the church must have given in the previous year of the Convention's accounting records $500 for each eligible and participating staff member to the SCBC Budget or $500 for each eligible and participating staff member designated to the Church Staff Retirement Plan. (For example a church with two staff members would have to contribute $$500 \times 2 = $1,000$). A church experiencing financial difficulties and unable to meet the contribution requirements may request an exception to the policy under a hardship status through the Retirement & Insurance Services Office.

Recommendation 6: That special offerings for the benevolent institutions be continued, where it is consistent with the financial policy of the local churches, as follows: 1) first Sunday in each month for Connie Maxwell Children's Home; 2) annually on Mother's Day for the South Carolina Baptist Ministries for the Aging.

Recommendation 7: That the Executive Director-Treasurer report on a timely basis through the Baptist Courier cumulative gifts received from the churches and the allocation of the gifts as follows: 1) Total gifts to the South Carolina Baptist Convention Budget Gifts (which includes gifts through the Cooperative Program and Cooperative Gifts) at the end of each quarter; 2) Designations for Southern Baptist Convention and South Carolina Baptist Convention ministries after the conclusion of the calendar year; 3) Weeks of Prayer offering gifts for home and state missions after the conclusion of the calendar year; 4) Lottie Moon offering gifts for foreign missions at the conclusion of the fiscal year for the offering. All gifts will be processed in accordance with the instructions of the contributor without any deduction for expenses.

Recommendation 8: That the Executive Director-Treasurer forward all Southern Baptist Convention funds on a monthly basis to the Executive Committee of the SBC in Nashville, Tennessee.

Report of Associate Executive Director & CFO James A. Wright Jr.

For 2007 South Carolina Baptist Convention churches surpassed the $50 million mark in giving to world mission causes for the first time in Convention history. Churches gave a total of $50,016,581 during 2007 which was an increase of $2,053,020 or 4.28% over 2006. Of all gifts from South Carolina Baptist churches, $27,062,084 or 54.11% went outside of the state of South Carolina to the ministries of the Southern Baptist Convention. This is also a record percentage for gifts sent to the Southern Baptist Convention.

The 2007 South Carolina Baptist Convention Empowering Kingdom Growth budget goal of $32,750,000 was met and exceeded with churches giving a total of $33,685,817 which was $935,817 or 2.86% beyond the budget goal.

The 2007 financial records of the South Carolina Baptist Convention were audited by the independent accounting firm of JW Hunt & Company. Cooperative Program gifts totaled $33,478,768 which was $1,053,768 or 3.25% more than the budget goal. Actual Cooperative Program gifts in 2007 were $856,534 more than 2006. Cooperative Gifts for 2007 declined by $67,404 compared to 2006.

The formula for distributing Cooperative Program gifts in the 2007 budget called for 50% of the funds to go directly to the Southern Baptist Convention, and 50% to be allocated to the South Carolina Kingdom Challenge Fund. The Convention immediately allocated $526,884 or 50% to the Southern Baptist Convention. The remaining 50% was placed in the South Carolina Kingdom Challenge Fund for the Executive Board of the South Carolina Baptist Convention to allocate. The Executive Board took action to allocate the Kingdom Challenge Funds according to the formula that is in place for the 2008 budget. From the remaining $526,884 of funds received beyond budget, 55% or $289,786 was sent to the International Mission Board, 25% or $131,721 was sent to the North American Mission Board, and 20% or $105,377 was allocated for scholarships for SC Baptists to participate in a mission project. From the total of $1,053,768 in gifts received beyond budget, $948,391 was sent outside of South Carolina to ministries of the Southern Baptist Convention, which is 90% of the funds received beyond budget. For 2007 the allocation of Cooperative Program gifts going outside of South Carolina to the work of the Southern Baptist Convention totaled 41.57%.

The three Weeks of Prayer offerings increased in 2007. The Lottie Moon Christmas offering totaled $9,102,752 for an increase of $1,091,301 or 13.62%. Report of Mission Support Team Bill Collins, Director

Team Office

- Worked with teams/groups/offices to develop performance agreements for new staff positions and revise performance agreements for each existing staff position to be presented to Administrative Committee for approval in the October Executive Board meeting. These changes were made to be reflective of the new organizational structure approved at the April Executive Board meeting.
- Information packets containing vital payroll information for staff will be organized, compiled, and provided to staff in late November for 2009. Employees will complete the information which will then be entered in the payroll system.
- Work with teams/groups/offices from October through December to prepare and process contract workers for 2009 ensuring the workers follow the hiring process of the convention and complete the correct documentation.
- In January, processed all 2007 W-2 and 1099 documents to be distributed to staff and vendors. Also, submitted this information electronically to appropriate governmental agencies.
- Conducted 13 interviews with applicants since January 2008.
- Assisted with the employment process for seven vacancies that were filled on the Convention staff since January 2008.
- Conducted a total of 363 background screenings between January and September. The background screenings were performed on potential Convention employees, and all potential summer employees at White Oak Conference Center, McCall RA Camp, and Summersalt. These screenings also included summer missionaries with Baptist Collegiate Ministries, Disaster Relief volunteers, adult volunteers at the summer children's camps, and Hispanic Conference volunteers.
- Range of motion testing and drug screenings were also performed for potential employees.
- Worked with two external consultants to evaluate the operation of White Oak Conference Center.
- With the change of Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA), new employment posters were displayed at the Convention Building, White Oak Conference Center, McCall RA Camp, and the Baptist Collegiate Student Centers.
- A staff workshop is planned for October 30 with Dr. Robert E. Coleman, author of The Master Plan of Evangelism, as a continuing education opportunity for the staff.
- Coordinated office moves, storage moves, telephone changes, etc. with the Mission Support Team positioning groups and offices with the team they relate to, based on the new organizational structure.
- Assisted in the implementation of the trial 9/75 plan for staff. The 9/75 trial plan allows staff to work extended hours over nine business days and take the tenth day off. One reason this plan is being tested is to eliminate one day of commuting for staff and provide savings to staff in regard to rising gas prices.

Accounting Group – Kristy Adams, director

- In order to continue to satisfy the requirements of Statement on Accounting Standards (SAS) No. 112, the accounting group has prepared the first draft of the financial policies and procedures manual.
- The accounting group has begun renumbering the chart of accounts and revising the financial statements for the organizational restructuring.
- The accounting functions were redistributed between the accounting staff to improve efficiency and staff utilization.
- In February, JW Hunt conducted the audit for the year ended December 31, 2007.
- New accounting procedures and forms were implemented beginning January 1, 2008. All staff attended training on the new procedures and how to complete the forms.

Retirement & Insurance Services Office – Gary Horton, director

- During January, 273 people attended three Regional Tax Conferences held in different regions of the state with Gene Hill, CPA, as the presenter.
- Three Regional Retirement Planning Seminars and eleven Regional Retirement Update Conferences were held this year. Don McLeod of GuideStone Financial Resources and Gary Horton were presenters.
- 105 individual, church, associational, and regional meetings were held January through October 2008 to discuss retirement, insurance, and tax issues. Several others are scheduled for the remainder of the year.
- Fellowship of Retired Ministers meetings were held at White Oak Conference Center in April and October.
- Provided Financial Assistance to 29 Southern Baptist Church retirees and/or their widows.
- Coordinated the 2008 Compensation Survey with our South Carolina Baptist Churches.
- Assisted a smaller state convention with training for their pastors, staff, and church workers regarding retirement, insurance and tax matters.

Support Services Group – Mark Jeffcoat, director

- Support Services Group coordinated the replacement of all carpet in the Convention Building. This required moving almost every piece of furniture and workstation while continuing ongoing operations. The project was completed in the first four months of 2008.
- About one-third of SCBC staff were relocated during July and August to reflect the new organization structure.
- Support Services Group completed a review of all Convention insurance policies in the spring. During the later part of the year, staff will review insurance carriers to assure the best stewardship of Cooperative Program dollars in purchasing needed coverage.

Report of Multiplication Team Wayne Terry, Associate Executive Director

Team Office

Wayne Terry joined our staff in July to lead the Multiplication Team of SCBC. Wayne had previously served as the team leader for Church Planting with the Tennessee Baptist Convention. He is originally from Inman, SC, and considers First Baptist Church, Campobello his home church.

This team was created in view of the fact that with each passing year the population of our state becomes larger and more diverse. More and more people are choosing to make South Carolina the place they want to invest their lives. As our population changes so does the challenge of taking an age-old message to a changing demographic and lifestyle. Our changing communities require our churches to think more like mission strategists than ever before.

The mandate of the Great Commission is to take the Good News to all people, and the Multiplication Team is here to assist our churches and associations in taking on this missionary challenge. We are here to help our churches:

- identify un-reached and under-reached groups of people in our communities,
- develop strategies for building networks among these people groups for communicating the Gospel,
- bring new believers from these groups together for ongoing disciple making, and
- raise up indigenous leadership among all groups of people in order to multiply the number of disciples and churches across South Carolina.

Report of Communications & Mission Development Team Roger Orman, Associate Executive Director

God is so awesome! It was in the middle of the night that I was awakened and given a clear word to volunteer to fill the vacancy in Communications. Moving from what was then Church Development was a major transition but for the first time the communication ministry of the convention staff would have someone who would approach the work from a church growth standpoint. Little did I realize how well this willingness would be received and began the new assignment with Executive Board approval in October of 2007.

The challenges have been tremendous and yet rewarding. Already we're seeing significant improvements in services – while at the same time saving dollars which can be used in other areas of need.

As you read the work done in this report, know the tools and resources on the horizon are exciting, functional, and applicable to an ever changing role of a church leader. Our heart is to truly communicate the message of Christ's love and the work of the convention staff, the Executive Board, and the churches partnering together to make a difference in South Carolina and around the world.

REPORTS OF INSTITUTIONS

Report of Anderson University Evans P. Whitaker, President

Introduction

U. S. News & World Report continues to shower Anderson University with accolades. This year, in addition to moving up within the Top Tier of America's Best Colleges in the South, Anderson was named to the list of the 70 institutions in the nation designated as an "Up & Coming Institution" that everyone should be watching as models of innovation and advancement.

Your Baptist university in Anderson continues to set new records in enrollment, qualifications, and impact. This fall, we will serve 2,036 students, up from 1,901 last fall. Anderson saw the second largest freshman class in its 97-year history.

Anderson again fared extremely well in other national rankings. Here are just a few accolades:

1. Named to the 2009 America's Best Christian Colleges.
2. Named to the 2008 list of America's 100 Best College Buys
3. Moved up 1 spot within the Top Tier of U. S. News and World Report's America's Best Colleges in the South
4. Princeton Review ranked Anderson among the Southeast's 140 top colleges and universities.

Acorns, Oak Leaves, and a Cross -- New Symbolism for a Premier Christian University

Our campus is learning to appreciate our newest symbol -- an official Coat of Arms unique to Anderson University, which was the topic of my fall convocation address. The Coat of Arms is a heraldic image. Heraldry was developed approximately 900 years ago in medieval Europe to distinguish participants in combat when their faces were hidden by iron and steel helmets. Today, cities, families, offices of state, and colleges and universities are typical owners of heraldic symbols. Coats of arms communicate, with amazing brevity, the heritage of a family, a group, or an institution. All we have to do is to stop and allow the symbolism to speak to us.

Anderson's coat of arms features an acorn, an oak leaf, and a cross.

The Acorn

The acorn is rich in symbolism and is a symbol of patience and the fruition of long, hard labor. Aristotle had a lot to say about acorns. In Aristotle's thinking, everything is continuously changing and moving toward a goal or purpose. He held the acorn in high regard, claiming it to be the greatest symbol of potentiality as it has within it the ability to become an oak. Aristotle called the process of change that transforms an acorn into an oak actualization.

Thus, at Anderson, the acorn symbolizes potential. Within each of us lies possibility and the capacity to develop into actuality. The main thing we do is help students achieve their actuality. We stretch students to expand their intellect, clarify their worldview, equip them with the skills to analyze and solve problems, and inspire them to live a life of unending learning, character, and service to God and humanity. We believe God has a special purpose in mind for each student, and that purpose is in fact their actualization. Everything we do is designed to help our students become the person God created them to be.

The Oak Leaf

The oak leaf is rich with virtuous symbolism. Over the ages, oaks have been associated with images of strength, endurance, wisdom, antiquity, and protection. The oak is the dominant tree of the Anderson campus. In fact, the front lawn is affectionately known as "The Sacred Six Acres," which are destined never to be spoiled by brick and mortar. The oak is our most beautiful natural campus symbol and our front acreage is set aside for the reflection and enjoyment of all generations.

The oak leaf represents the strength of the institution. From its founding, Anderson has grown in strength and maturity, just like our mighty oaks planted in 1911. The oak leaf reminds us of the persistence of the University. And the oak is also a symbol of the end product of Anderson University – educated individuals. Our alumni are serving around the world in ways that demonstrate the strength of this institution – people who think critically, who serve unselfishly, who achieve out of a sense of stewardship, who live lives of character, and who walk humbly with Christ.

The Cross

The final symbol of our Coat of Arms is the Cross. Obviously, the cross symbolizes the death of Jesus Christ as the sacrifice God demanded for the salvation of those who would surrender their lives to Christ as Savior and Lord. But the Cross represents so much more than the death of Christ.

In a little devotional book written around the same time the University was founded, I found a beautiful set of words and imagery that illuminate the larger symbolism of the Cross. Too long to recite here, I share with you just the theme.

Jesus was absolutely devoted to doing what God had called Him to do. At last, he "steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem," knowing well what would befall him there, and in Gethsemane pledged the last full payment of his loyalty. "Thy will, not mine, be done." Jesus knew his earthly life would end in a violent death. Having probably seen crucifixions, He knew the pain He would endure. Yet He spoke of God continually as one who has a purpose, a plan, a will for the whole world and every life in it. When men tried to flatter Jesus, he turned on them with a demand for loyalty to the Kingdom. A sentimental listener; superficially impressed, once cried, "Blessed is the womb that bare thee." And Jesus came back like lightening, "Yea, rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it." (Luke 11:28). Jesus stood for a Cause and nothing would satisfy him but a man's allegiance to that same purpose.

The Cross within Anderson's coat of arms represents the supreme sacrifice of God's Son. The Cross represents the salvation that Christ's death and resurrection makes possible. The Cross represents the future of everything – the grand narrative of the Living God yet unfolding that draws us closer to the summit of the New Jerusalem.

The Cross is a reminder of the cause of Christian higher education, the heart and soul of which I believe we find in Second Corinthians 10, verse 4. Speaking of spiritual warfare, the Apostle Paul says, "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ." (NKJV)

What we seek to do at Anderson is give students knowledge that is second to none compared to most any secular institution, and to go one essential step further and give them knowledge informed by the Christian faith. The desire of our hearts is that all our students would become like the student Arthur Holmes describes in his book The Idea of A Christian College:

Pat is aware of some new developments in science and technology, biology in particular . . . and the moral dimensions of genetic research both intrigue and concern her greatly – even though her major was literature. She continues to read, to learn, to grow, for she realizes that however large the circumference of her knowledge, just as large are the borders of her ignorance. Yet she doesn't worship either knowledge, or art, or influence, or even her relationships with friends. She worships the One from whom all blessings flow, the One who gives but also takes away. Whatever her abilities, whatever her development, whatever her accomplishments, she blesses the name of the Lord.

Just as Jesus stood for the cause of God the Father, Anderson University stands for the Cause of Jesus the Christ. Think about Pat and be assured of that image as our desire for every student who passes through our halls.

Report of Charleston Southern University

Jairy C. Hunter, Jr., President

Charleston Southern University started off the year with a strong enrollment as students embraced the theme "Go for the Gold." An air of excitement resonates on campus with the anticipation of another great year of learning and ministry.

The University is grateful to South Carolina Baptists for the $2 million received through the Cooperative Program. All Cooperative Program funds are used for Baptist student scholarships. CSU provides an additional $6 million for a combined total of $8 million in financial aid to Baptist students.

"Going for the Gold" is the Student Government Association theme for this year. For opening convocation, this dialogue was tied into the University's vision which is "To be a Christian University nationally recognized for integrating faith in learning, leading and serving." Two successful alumni and two students joined President Jairy C. Hunter, Jr. in highlighting the University's vision during opening convocation. Each alumni shared with students and faculty how they personally integrate their faith in their professions, while the students related a selfless story that touched the hearts of everyone.

Charleston Southern hosted Lifeway's Mission-fuge (Fuge) camps for the eighth-year. Approximately 3,325 teenagers from around the nation attended. These young Christians raised thousands of dollars for missions and provided assistance to needy and elderly people in the local area. The work that God continues to do through Fuge is truly a blessing.

The mission of Charleston Southern University is Promoting Academic Excellence in a Christian Environment. The Christian environment at CSU is significantly influenced by the fact that all University personnel are professing Christians. Weekly ministries and Bible studies are prevalent on campus including Baptist Collegiate Ministries, Campus Crusade for Christ, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Campus Outreach, Prison Fellowship and One Accord Gospel Choir. We praise God for these ministry outreaches that have resulted in over 1,091 people accepting Christ as their Savior over the past year.

Accomplishments:

- CSU's Spring Commencement speaker, Dr. George Greene, CEO of Water Missions International (WMI), challenged us to live a life of significance. WMI shares the love of Christ by providing water treatment systems to developing and disaster-stricken countries including the cyclone-ravaged country of Myanmar.
- Campus Minister Clark Carter led a ministry team from CSU to participate in a week of evangelism in Baltimore, Maryland. The team partnered with "Embrace Baltimore," a two-year emphasis by the North American Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Plans are currently underway to conduct a mission trip to India next year, in conjunction with the International Mission Board.
- Campus Ministries and Summit Church hosted 425 students at the annual Souper Bowl of Caring. Attendees donated money and canned food items that were distributed to the North American Mission Board Hunger Relief Fund.
- Evangelist Franklin Graham will speak to Charleston Southern University students during convocation on September 17. The University is partnering with area churches to host the Franklin Graham Festival at the North Charleston Coliseum September 19-21.
- A new course was offered last semester to upper level science students. Cosmology, Creation & Christianity offers a dialogue about the blending of science and Christianity.
- Charleston Southern was named one of "America's 100 Best College Buys" for the 2007-2008 academic year. Additionally, a national study places Charleston Southern in the top 10 percent of universities for value added education.
- For the second consecutive year the School of Nursing graduates experienced a 100 percent pass rate on the National Licensure Examination Registered Nurse (NCLEX-RN).
- The School of Education received recertification from the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

Report of North Greenville University James B. Epting, President

On Friday, July 18, Bertie I. Epting, my dad, died. Not only do I miss him greatly, but North Greenville University lost one of her greatest alumni. After serving our country in the European theater and being awarded the Silver Star for Gallantry as well as the Croix de Guerre "Cross of War" by the French government, he accepted Jesus Christ and was obedient to the call to serve Him full-time as a preacher. But, there was one problem – no college or university would accept my dad and our family. Finally, North Greenville Junior College gave him the opportunity to continue his education. After two years here, he graduated from Furman University and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He then served as a pastor for 39 years and six years as a Director of Missions mostly in South Carolina. During his entire life he was known as "the Harmonica Man" and liked to say, "Have harmonica, will play." The good news is that the good Lord needed another fantastic harmonica player for a special program and dad would never want to miss performing in The Program! Therefore, we are celebrating his homecoming in glory land.

On Monday, July 21, I received a phone call at approximately 8:00 p.m. informing me that a storm ripped the roof off the Donnan Administration Building and caused serious damage to the Neves Academic facility. I could not believe it and asked the caller to repeat this bad news at least two more times. I immediately went to the campus and discovered that this did indeed happen. The good news – no one was hurt!! There were approximately 900 campers worshipping in our chapel and were supposed to be in both of these buildings at the same time as the storm. But, God performed another miracle!!!

Campus Ministries

North Greenville University partnered with LifeWay again this summer to host eight weeks of the Centrifuge/M-Fuge combination camp. God moved in powerful ways on our campus through this cooperative effort. There were 789 recorded responses to Christ. Among these, 122 were for salvation and 52 were commitments to Christian Ministry.

At least 189 people have received Christ on the North Greenville University campus since June 1, 2008. We praise the Lord for His continued movement among us. As reported above, more than 100 of them were a part of the Centrifuge/M-Fuge Camps. Forty-four people came to know Christ through the North Greenville University Crusade that was held in Turner Chapel on August 17-20. The Crusade was co-sponsored by North Greenville University and the North Greenville Baptist Association (NGBA). There were well over 100 recorded decisions during the Crusade.

God has also been at work among our student athletes. Several of them made responses to Christ through the Crusade and through chapel services at the start of school. North Greenville athletes meet weekly for Athletic Ministries. These meetings are off to a good start. We have 20 student athletes serving as chaplains for their teams. We also have four interns working with our athletes.

Six other interns are working with our campus ministries team to equip and support 56 chaplains in our residence halls. Many of these students are involved in Life Transformation Groups, who meet weekly in groups of three to discuss Scripture they have read together, pray for their lost friends and for accountability. These groups are easily reproducible. Their goal is to grow in Christ, share the gospel, and lead others to Christ. When the groups grow to four members, they divide to form two groups of two. In all, we have 76 chaplains and 10 interns working with our Campus Ministries staff this year.

In our women's ministry, we have Fall Bible Studies with a variety of studies being offered, from Beth Moore books to Christian weight loss programs. A Big Sister/Little Sister program has been instituted to help female students adjust to college life. "Sweet Mondays," another new activity, includes a fun activity, dessert, and devotion the last Monday of each month. This gives ample opportunity for relationship building among students. Making Peace with Your Past, a 12 week study and a great tool for healing, will also be offered this semester.

Our BSU Council packed and distributed 2000 Welcome Packets filled with gifts from local churches and businesses. Over 375 students attended the first BSU meeting. We expect to have 15 community and 10 weekend Impact Teams involving more than 160 students.

Our BSU drama team, Act II, has 10 members and will present the Gospel in 20 locations this fall. Once again, they have been invited to perform at the West Virginia Baptist Convention Youth Evangelism Conference.

A team of Joyful Sound students ministered at Lakewood Campground in Myrtle Beach this summer. At least 200 people received Christ through their ministry. Joyful Sound is off to a great start. The teams did an outstanding job as they led worship on Monday night during the North Greenville University Crusade. Their touring schedule began on Sunday, September 7. The three vocal teams and the five piece band will be recording their new CD project in October and November. We hope to release this project in January. These teams will minister in more than 200 settings during the academic year.

Together, our 29 ministry teams will minister to over 50,000 people this academic year. They will share and minister in at least 300 South Carolina Baptist Convention Churches.

As a new semester begins, we are rejoicing in what God continues to do on our campus to call out our students to take the gospel of Jesus Christ to the nations. North Greenville University L.I.G.H.T. (Loving, Interceding, Going, Helping, and Telling) teams will once again travel the globe to share the good news of the Gospel. We will be taking students to Uganda, Romania, Guyana, Ecuador, and Honduras. We expect over 200 students to serve, and locations will be added in the coming weeks. Exciting opportunities to be explored this semester include possible partnerships with a university in East Asia as well as student missions opportunities in the Pacific Rim, and North Africa, and the Middle East. We will continue to explore every opportunity God gives us to be His witnesses in our Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, and to the ends of the earth!

Our annual Global Missions Conference was held September 8-10. Over 60 missionaries from around the globe challenged our students "to sing the song of salvation to the nations." Gracia Burnham and her husband Martin served as missionaries in the Philippines with New Tribes Mission. On May 27, 2001, they were taken hostage by the group Abu Sayyaf and were held hostage in the jungles for 376 days. Martin was killed in a firefight between the Philippine military and the Abu Sayyaf group. Gracia was wounded, but freed. Gracia spoke at the Global Missions Chapel on September 8. Other keynote speakers included Dr. Tom Grassano of Urban Harvest Ministries, NGU alumni John Brady of the International Mission Board, and Nathan Bramsen, the founder of ROCK International (Relief, Opportunity, and Care for Kids).

The Christian Worldview Center continues to provide opportunities for apologetics training for students, faculty, staff, and community at large. On Saturday, September 27, the Christian Worldview Center sponsored a satellite training seminar called "The Truth Project" from Focus on the Family. Pastors and other leaders who are concerned about defending the faith in a culture that has abandoned absolute truth attended a one-day seminar. The Christian Worldview Center recently joined CCN (Church Communication Network) and installed a satellite receiver dish that allows us to offer video seminars by leading apologists in the country.

Enrollment News

This semester has brought the most exciting news in the enrollment history of North Greenville University. We set a new enrollment record for the 15th consecutive year. We have 2075 students, and our full-time equivalent is 1943. Our head count is 71 more students than last year and does not include approximately 100 graduate students. SAT scores are averaging between 1050 and 1100. Also, we have a record number of resident students with a total of 1448 on campus, an increase of 42 over last year. The Admissions and Financial Planning staff brought in 681 new students, another record in recruiting. We have a total of 15 international students along with 30 missionary kids representing 10 different countries enrolled this year.

Among the new students are 90 Honors Program scholars, a record number for the University, even with higher entrance requirements. Since 1996, the program has grown from 19 students to 250 students. The University also welcomed 97 Palmetto Fellows Scholarship recipients who represent the very best academic students from across South Carolina. In addition, more than 120 students anticipate graduation this December. This past academic year, the University graduated a total of 363 students in its two graduation services, a record number.

Finances

For 18 consecutive years we have been operating with a positive cash flow. We are pleased to report that our total indebtedness (long and short term) is $636,993 (reduced from approximately $3,000,000 in May 1991).

On January 17, 2008, the Board of Trustees approved a $35,425,973 budget with only a 4% increase in tuition, room, and board. We want to remain the most affordable private, accredited, Christian four-year university in the Southeast while keeping Christ at the head and center of all our thinking and conduct. The cost for the 2007-2008 school year is as follows: tuition per semester - $5,840, housing per semester - $1,520, and meals per semester - $1,840. Included in our budget is an increase in salaries for faculty and staff of up to 5%.

Conclusion

We have many opportunities at North Greenville University to be sure that Jesus Christ "shows out" in all that we say and do especially in dealing with adversity. It is always exciting to be a part of God's plan and to try to know His will. As one of God's servants at NGU, I am constantly reminded of His sovereignty. God's favor continues to rest upon His University that we love and serve. May God bless and keep you.

Report of The Baptist Courier Don Kirkland, Editor and President

The Baptist Courier continues to receive strong support and widespread approval for its ministry of information and inspiration.

Established in 1869 and adopted as the official newspaper of the South Carolina Baptist Convention in 1920, the Courier is in the news business, of course. But it also is in the Good News business, telling the story of how South Carolina Baptists are working together to fulfill the mandate of the Great Commission and serving as a tool for assisting church members along their individual journeys of faith as well as the collective faith journey shared by all members of the convention's 2,070-plus churches.

Finances

The financial health of the Courier is good. We are challenged, however, by the rising costs of printing and mailing, accompanied by anticipated loss of revenue due to the decline in circulation experienced by both the Baptist newspapers and the secular media. We continue to be confident with the handling of our long-term investment funds by our UBS investment partners.

Circulation

With more than 71,500 Baptist Courier subscribers (and an estimated extended readership above 200,000) our circulation is robust. The Baptist Courier ranks behind only two state Baptist newspapers — Alabama (105,000) and Mississippi (92,000) — in circulation. Closer to home, the Courier has more subscribers than do the state Baptist papers of North Carolina (44,000), Georgia (45,000), Tennessee (50,000) and Florida (40,454).

Because the Courier enjoys a budgetary relationship with the South Carolina Baptist Convention, and because our missions are inextricably interwoven and mutually dependent, we are confident that circulation of the Courier will remain strong for years to come.

Nevertheless, we strive to be flexible and responsive in a changing marketplace, and we continue to explore methods for wider distribution of the Courier. A paid circulation model, by definition, excludes those who choose not to participate. Ideally, the Courier would be available free to every South Carolina Baptist. While we cannot afford to do that, we have for some time mailed a complimentary subscription to pastors of non-subscribing churches. We are expanding the free-distribution list to include key church leaders — Sunday School director, deacon chairman, WMU director, Baptist Men director, etc. — for churches that don't subscribe. (The number of free copies we are permitted to mail is limited by U.S. Postal Service regulations.) Through this expanded outreach, in addition to fulfilling our mission of informing the largest possible number of South Carolina Baptists (especially key church leaders) of Southern Baptist life and work, we are forming partnerships with churches that might later become paid subscriber relationships.

News by and for South Carolina Baptists

The Baptist Courier continues to emphasize news about and of importance to South Carolina Baptists. In the last 12 months, the Courier has carried 559 headlined articles. Of these, 356, or roughly two-thirds, were related to South Carolina Baptists. The other third were primarily related to the Southern Baptist Convention. Through "Showcase" photos featuring ministry efforts and church growth, and through the "Crossing Carolina" briefs about pastoral and staff changes, The Baptist Courier touched an additional 15-plus churches in every issue beyond those featured in its articles.

When editorials and columns written by South Carolina Baptists are added to the total, the percentage of South Carolina Baptist-related items easily surpasses 75 percent. That means the vast majority of each issue of The Baptist Courier is devoted to news from South Carolina Baptist churches, their associations, the state convention and its universities and benevolent institutions. Much of this content is unique to The Baptist Courier and not available in any other publication.

This past summer, the Courier published a series of articles about the impact of high gasoline prices on the ministries of South Carolina churches and organizations. The content for the articles was culled from responses to an e-mail- and Web-based survey of ministerial staff. We plan to generate more such stories through online surveys in the future.

Growing Online

The methods by which people receive and process information are constantly evolving. An increasing number of people are choosing to get their news online, a trend that shows no signs of abating. The Baptist Courier is committed to utilizing the Internet, e-mail, text-messaging and other emerging information technologies to fulfill our mission to make our stories available to every South Carolina Baptist.

We include all the news content of our printed issue in our online daily edition, BaptistCourier.com. In addition, because we are not bound by space limitations online, we regularly post content to our online edition that doesn't appear in our printed version. Relunched in its present form in November 2005, the online edition is updated with fresh content Monday through Friday. BaptistCourier.com continues to post vigorous gains in readership. The online edition netted, on average, 24 percent more unique monthly visitors in the first eight months of 2008 (9,472) than in 2007 (7,630). The average visitor views 7.7 pages.

The most popular section of the online edition continues to be the classified ads page, which attracted more than 37,000 viewers through August 2008. Other popular sections included, in descending order: our home (default) page, "Whistling at Snakes," "Crossing Carolina," news and obituaries. Most visited stories were: "LifeWay announces 2008 VBS themes at SBC," "Top 10 Issues Facing Today's Church," "The building is burned, but the body of Christ is alive' at Sandy Run Baptist Church," "Joyful Sound celebrates 30 years of ministry," and "S.C. disaster relief donations pass $1 million mark."

Other Important Facts

- Nearly three of every five South Carolina Baptist churches have a paid subscriber relationship with the Courier. The remaining churches receive complimentary subscriptions for their pastors. (If you know of a pastor who is not receiving a paid or complimentary subscription, please contact us at 1-888-667-4693 or subs@baptistcourier.com.)
- More than 88 percent of Courier readers receive the newspaper through the Church Family Plan, which is among the lowest priced subscription plans of our state Baptist papers. Any South Carolina Baptist church, regardless of size, qualifies for our lowest rate by sending the Courier to every active family.
- Through the trial subscription plan, any church can send the Courier free to every family for three months. To sign up, or to request information, visit BaptistCourier.com or call 1-888-667-4693.

A Culture of Cooperative Ministry

The Baptist Courier values its relationship with the South Carolina Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention. Like them, the Courier wants to reach the world with the life-changing gospel of Jesus Christ and to be an ally of both the SCBC and the SBC in Great Commission ministry. It must always be our aim to inform the minds of our readers, but we also must influence their hearts in the ways that are available to us through Christian publishing.

The Baptist Courier is eager to be an active and helpful partner with other institutions of the South Carolina Baptist Convention. For example, each year the Courier provides journalism scholarships at our three Baptist universities: Anderson, Charleston Southern and North Greenville, and provides opportunities for students to receive academic credit through internships at The Baptist Courier. (Our current student intern is Keisha Tinsley of Laurens, a senior mass communications major at North Greenville University.) The Courier also gives its annual Horace Sims Award at North Greenville University to honor the former pastor, convention president, parliamentarian and Courier columnist to recognize academic excellence in the field of Christian studies at the school.

Through news and feature stories, the Courier consistently gives support to the missions endeavors of the South Carolina Baptist Convention and to a variety of other ministries performed by the convention staff in helping SCBC churches achieve success in their own ministries.

The Baptist Courier will continue its best efforts to serve the Lord as a denominational newspaper, remaining true to its role as a Cooperative Program ministry supporting the goals of Experiencing Kingdom Life in South Carolina and Empowering Kingdom Growth throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

Report of Baptist Foundation of South Carolina Weldon F. Fallaw, President

"Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life." (1 Timothy 6:18-19). The Bible teaches us that we must surrender all aspects of our life over to the Lordship of Jesus Christ... our daily personal walk with God, our relationships with family and friends, our work, our service to our church and community, and, yes, our stewardship of our resources. Only when we view every portion of our lives, from what we do to what we own, from an eternal perspective, will we be able to fully Experience Kingdom Life!

We are fortunate at the Baptist Foundation to work with SC Baptists who are experiencing Kingdom life – in their living and in their giving. Because of their testimony of giving of their resources in life and after, our ministry can provide resources for other ministries to share God's love throughout our local communities, our nation, and our world.

The majority of the funds under management at the Foundation are endowment gifts that are entrusted to our ministry to manage for perpetual financial support of primarily Baptist causes. During uncertain economic times as we are in today, it is important that we stay the course with historically tried investment practices that will weather bull and bear markets. It is also important to have sound distribution policies to provide consistent distributions to ministries through good and bad times. During more difficult economic times when "out of pocket" giving dwindles, many ministries have learned that the foresight of having an endowment program provided income that could be counted on for economic stability. We encourage our churches and other ministries to promote endowment giving through estate plans.

Through prudent investment practices, the Foundation has been able to give over $46,900,000 to primarily Baptist ministries since its inception in 1950. At the end of our last fiscal year, the Foundation had distributed our largest single year distribution total in our 58 year history. The majority of these gifts were made possible through the Kingdom stewardship of many South Carolina Baptists who remembered the Lord's work through endowed gifts in their estate plans.

The Baptist Foundation serves South Carolina Baptists through two major areas of ministry:

- 1) The Foundation educates people about ways that they can provide for their loved ones and the Lord's work through Christian estate planning. There are many ways that an individual can leave a legacy for ministry through their estate plans:
 - Bequests in wills. Through a will, an amount can be set aside for one or more Baptist ministries, or a percentage of the estate, such as a tithe, can be directed to support ministries.

- Charitable living trusts and gift annuities that pay life income to individuals and eventually provide for Baptist causes. Not only do these instruments provide a means to provide for Kingdom ministries, but they provide other benefits, including tax deductions and capital gains tax avoidance when appreciated property is given.
- Endowment contributions, many made as gifts in memory or honor of a loved one. The Foundation holds over 400 endowment accounts, supporting a variety of primarily Baptist ministries, from the International Mission Board to local churches.

2) The Foundation provides low-cost, competitive investment services for South Carolina Baptist churches and ministries. Through prudent investment practices and quality investment instruments, the Foundation is able to help these ministries earn income on the funds that they have been entrusted with so that they can grow those dollars for future ministry purposes.

The Baptist Foundation gives all the glory to God for His blessings on our ministry. During the past fiscal year, the Foundation:

- ❖ Distributed $2,567,334 to primarily South Carolina Baptist charitable beneficiaries, an increase of 10.95% over the 2006-2007 distribution. This is the highest single year distribution to charitable beneficiaries in the Foundation's history.
- ❖ Distributed an additional $1,148,745, an increase of 9.46%, to individual living trust beneficiaries from trust accounts that will eventually be provided for ministry.
- ❖ Awarded 11 grants totaling $41,440 to assist ministries across South Carolina.
- ❖ Awarded $31,884.49 in scholarships to 89 students, with the majority of those funds going to students preparing for full-time Christian service.
- ❖ Increased educational seminars and presentations (including pulpit presence) to churches and other groups by over 50%.
- ❖ Maintained our operating budget with no request for increase from Cooperative Program funding for the year 2008. Historically, for every $1 allocated to our ministry through the Cooperative Program, the Foundation has been able to return over $5.60 to primarily Baptist causes.
- ❖ Received a clean annual audit with no reportable conditions and maintained membership and good standing with the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA).
- ❖ Hired an additional field development coordinator to begin in the 2008/2009 fiscal year.
- ❖ Began a Legacy Award program to recognize friends of the Foundation.

As of March 31, 2008, the total fair market value of assets held by the Foundation was valued at $84,818,751.23, a decrease of 1.16% over the prior year end. This reflects the market downturn beginning in late 2007. Although the returns for the year were not positive, all of the Foundation's funds performed very well against related benchmarks.

The Foundation is committed to helping South Carolina Baptists support ministry through estate planning services by increasing awareness of the importance and simplicity of planning for loved ones and the Lord's work. We also want to provide quality investment services for Baptist ministries so that they can grow excess funds. To accomplish this, we plan to:

- ❖ Increase our visibility through personal contacts in churches and homes as well as increase pulpit opportunities and seminars.
- ❖ Develop a long range (five year) plan to provide a track for future projects.
- ❖ Develop an endowment package to better educate individuals and ministries about the impact for ministry that can be made through endowment funds.
- ❖ Partner with independent estate planning experts to provide quality planning tools that will be easy and affordable for individuals and churches to use.
- ❖ Enhance our website by adding estate and gift planning features including educational information on estate and charitable gift options and gift planning calculators.
- ❖ Continue to research and provide investment instruments that offer competitive rates at low costs.

The Foundation is committed to providing education and support to seek out financial resources around our state to help ministries thrive so that all can Experience Kingdom Life! We are thankful to a God who blesses us with resources so that we can serve Him and bless others. What a blessing it is to serve our Lord through the ministry of the Baptist Foundation!

"Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share...so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life."

Report of Connie Maxwell Children's Home

Ben Davis, President

For over 116-years, Connie Maxwell Children's Home has been able to minister to literally tens of thousands of boys and girls because South Carolina Baptists care. This partnership between state churches, their members, the Convention and our staff has been an important one. We can't do it alone, and we are thankful for those who assist in our goal to help change lives for the better.

Imagine yourself as a child who has lost a parent because of death and seemingly has no where to turn. That grieving process is a difficult one and often takes a great deal of time for the young person to overcome. A boy or girl, however, with a living parent who has no interest in being a proper mother or father, or who resorts to abuse or neglect in dealing with their child, can cause damage that is much more difficult to correct. Our children and our staff need your prayers as we let boys and girls know that we love them and a Heavenly Father does also.

Children's Homes across the country are facing some difficult challenges today. One of those comes from a group called Children's Rights, Inc. based in New York. This group of attorneys, funded by celebrities and others of like-mind, has begun suing state governments to take kids out of group homes and campus settings and to find adopting families for them. The fear of lawsuits has caused many legislatures to negotiate a settlement that makes it very difficult for homes such as ours. The group has not come to our state yet, but the ramifications of their efforts are being felt here already. The general premise of finding all children in need an adopting family sounds very good, but it is often not possible. More and more children are so damaged by their natural families that they just cannot make it in a typical family setting. Others can do well in a children's home environment until their own families have received counseling and assistance to bring about reunification. Other children simply flourish in a campus setting just as affluent children do in expensive boarding homes. There are many, valid reasons for children's homes to continue to be involved in the process of ministering to children. We know, however, the primary one is that we are doing God's ordained work by "welcoming a little child in (His) name." Unfortunately, some feel that these lawsuits are primarily initiated to keep faith-based ministries from receiving children into their care. Connie Maxwell has been blessed in its efforts to minister to boys and girls in need, and we plan to continue our programs with the Christian values and tenets we always have offered. We pledge to South Carolina Baptists that our ministry will remain one you can be proud of, and that our efforts always will be directed by God's leadership.

Another major challenge faced by children's homes is the struggle to meet financial needs during a time of volatility in our economy. We all have been faced with rising prices and turmoil in the stock market and with other investments. Children's homes that depend on donations from individuals and churches have seen gifts decrease because of these difficult times; yet, the ministry efforts must continue. More and more children need our services during a time when funds are harder to come by. We are being good stewards of the money we receive from the Convention, from churches and individuals. We are tightening our belts in ways that don't affect the children and their needs, but we still must have the necessary funds to operate. God has been providing this for over 116-years, and there is no reason to believe that will stop now. Thank you for your part in helping provide the "scholarships" necessary to allow children to come to this ministry for the help they need.

Connie Maxwell's budget is approximately $8,400,000 with about 13% of that coming from the Cooperative Program, approximately 12% from church gifts, about 10% from individuals and most of the rest from estate gifts and the interest from our endowment. We receive very little money from family members of the children in our care, nor from the government which often places them with us. We know, however, that if the core of our work remains centered on God's desire for this ministry, He will touch the hearts of those who are able to give generously to help His children.

Connie Maxwell was notified recently by a national rating service that we rank at the top of its highest category for good stewardship and financial accountability. We are pleased with this four-star rating and will continue to do all we can to see that this continues.

The annual HarvestFest that is held on our campus in the Fall in conjunction with the Lakelands Baptist Association continues to draw thousands of young people. A Christian band and speaker, along with free food provided by the area churches brings many students to the Connie Maxwell farm for this exciting, inspirational event. Every year, many young people dedicate their lives to Christ or renew their commitments during this time.

Also, we welcomed hundreds of senior adults to our campus again this year for the "Seniors Day on the Farm." This fun day is coordinated by the Convention's Adult Ministry Group and allows seniors from the state's churches to visit the Connie Maxwell farm, hear speakers and musical groups, and learn more about our Baptist ministries.

The annual Christmas open house on our Greenwood campus continues to get bigger each year. Literally thousands of people throughout the state join us the first Thursday, Friday and Saturday in December for this winter wonderland of lights, wagon rides, Christmas music and drama. It is free to the public and serves as our way to thank our friends and supporters, while ministering to many with our emphasis on the real reason we celebrate Christmas.

With our largest campus and headquarters in Greenwood and five other locations around the state, approximately 135 boys and girls may be in our care at any given time. About 300 children and families also will be assisted through counseling and referral services annually. Our satellite residential locations are in Chesterfield, Florence, Mauldin and Orangeburg, with a lowcountry office operating in Summerville. These locations allow Connie Maxwell to provide statewide ministry to children and their families.

Volunteer and missions efforts from numerous churches and individuals are very important to us also. Over 1,200 volunteers who gave more than 5,500 hours to our ministry partnered with us through building and repair projects, tutoring our kids, holding picnics and parties for the children, conducting VBS and back-yard Bible clubs, and more. We are very thankful for this help.

We certainly depend on the financial and volunteer assistance we receive from our partners each year, but we are aware that even more important are your prayers for God's guidance and leadership for our staff, administration and trustees. We ask that you pray for our children and for those of us who are entrusted with them for a while.

Thank you for opening your hearts to boys and girls in need. You may not hear directly from them now with their words of appreciation, but you're sure to do so one day in Heaven.

Report of South Carolina Baptist

Ministries for the Aging, Inc.

Richard McLawhorn, President

(Kirby Winstead, acting president/CEO effective September 2, 2008)

I am pleased to provide this summary of how God has blessed His Christ-centered ministry to senior adults that we call South Carolina Baptist Ministries for the Aging (SCBMA).

Financial Status

As most South Carolina Baptists know, in the past SCBMA had severe financial problems and lost money. But in a dramatic departure from earlier years, both Bethea and Martha Franks ended the 2005-2006 and 2006-2007 fiscal years in the black. As I write this report, we are in the last quarter of our 2007-2008 fiscal year and both facilities are operating in the black. Barring any unforeseen major setbacks, SCBMA should end its third straight year in the black. These facts constitute undeniable evidence that God has been at work in a special way, and that as a result of His blessings the financial condition of SCBMA clearly has turned around.

Major Changes

Improving SCBMA has involved prayerfully making countless changes over the past few years. Our strategy has been to adopt new systems and procedures that will lock in current progress and pave the way for future improvements while ensuring that we comply with various laws and regulations. Here are some examples of the many changes that we have made:

- We conducted a thorough analysis of the staffing patterns and business practices at Bethea and Martha Franks. This has resulted in a near-total revision in how the administrative and other work in our two facilities is performed on a daily basis.
- We have adopted new systems for reviewing all of our Medicare, Medicaid and other billings and collections. These new systems are now paying off in terms of dollars collected on past-due and current bills. In the future, these new systems should prevent the kind of billing and collection problems that have plagued SCBMA for years.
- All of our health care beds at Bethea and Martha Franks are now dually certified by the government for Medicare and Medicaid. Dual certification means that we can serve more people and thereby earn more money.
- We set up "sweep" accounts at our bank so that our idle cash is swept into interest-bearing accounts overnight and on weekends. So, unlike before, our idle money now earns interest while still being immediately available for our use when it is needed.
- We have adopted a new approach to marketing that is bringing more people (and more actual and potential residents) on to our campuses than ever before.
- We have begun upgrading the long-neglected physical conditions of our campuses.

These and many other changes have resulted in both Bethea and Martha Franks winning community acclaim by being voted to the top ranks of local newspapers' "Best of" programs by the newspapers' readers. Not only is this a positive reflection on SCBMA and South Carolina Baptists, but it is also a great public witness for our Savior Jesus Christ.

Current and Future Challenges

Both of our campuses are suffering from years of neglect toward basic maintenance and upkeep. And the recent growth in the number of residents we serve has increased wear and tear on our aging buildings and equipment. While we have made progress in improving the physical condition of our campuses, more money and manpower is required to meet this need.

We have substantial indebtedness. Annual payments on our debt amount to approximately $600,000 a year – money that could be used to address many important needs.

A Special Concern

Every year we Southern Baptists promote special offerings to further the work of missionaries both at home and abroad. We support our seminaries financially so that seminary education is more affordable and it is easier for those God is calling to enter full-time ministry. We offer programs at our universities to direct our young people toward Christian service. We encourage spouses to stand with and support their mates as they serve our Lord, often sacrificially, in various ministries.

As a life-long South Carolina Southern Baptist, I strongly applaud these various efforts. In fact, I have spoken publicly in support of them on many occasions. But what about the men and women who have responded to our words, followed God's leading by giving their lives to serving Jesus, and now need some help in having a good quality of life during their senior years?

SCBMA decided to extend a helping hand to these dear brothers and sisters by setting up a special fund to help retired ministers and their widows who need financial assistance to be able to live at Bethea or Martha Franks. Despite our own financial needs, we felt so strongly about helping our elderly brothers and sisters that we devoted the entire proceeds of the 2008 Mother's Day Offering to this fund. But more than the approximately $250,000 that came in this year through that Offering is required to help our needy brothers and sisters on a continuing basis.

Scripture says, "So then, while we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, and especially to those who are of the household of the faith." (Galatians 6:10) Jesus said, "By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another." (John 13:35) I fervently pray that more individuals, churches, associations, and our Convention itself will demonstrate to the world Whose we are by joining in a serious, on-going effort to help our elderly brothers and sisters who have devoted their lives to serving Jesus and need financial assistance to be able to live their last years on earth in the healthy, Christ-centered settings that we provide at Bethea and Martha Franks.

Conclusion

A lady who lives at Bethea wrote me a letter that says in part, "Bethea Baptist Retirement Home gave me a home when no one else would have me. It is truly 'Christ-centered'."

After a widow who had lived at Martha Franks for five years passed away, her daughter wrote, "we especially appreciated the staff that attended to mother's needs on a daily basis . . . their care was above duty and showed true Christian love."

I became involved with SCBMA in 2005 as a trustee, and continued my involvement as president in January 2006. It is a blessing to have worked with dedicated staff whose actions are such witnesses to God's love that people would sit down and write letters about them.

It has also been a great blessing to have seen from the "inside" God's miraculous work in reviving SCBMA – a ministry than many people had given up on and suggested that we consider selling. But God had a different idea. God loves senior adults, just like He loves unborn children. And God wanted South Carolina Baptists to continue ministering to senior adults at Bethea and Martha Franks in ways that honor and glorify His son Jesus Christ. When SCBMA got serious about good stewardship and glorifying Jesus, God stepped in and saved the ministry. There is no other plausible explanation for SCBMA's dramatic turnaround that has defied man's logic.

As I return to the pastorate, a personal observation is in order. South Carolina Baptists are a generous, loving people. By supporting the Cooperative Program, you have furthered God's work at SCBMA and at many other ministries. The Executive Board and staff leaders of our Convention have been supportive of me personally, and of our revived ministry. The Nominations Committee has given SCBMA some of the best trustees anyone could ask for. Many churches have supported us through the Mother's Day Offering and through regular gifts from their budgets. For these and many other reasons, I thank God for South Carolina Baptists.

Most importantly, I thank and praise God because He is still in the life-giving business. God promises new life to everyone who believes in His Son

Jesus Christ, and God has given new life to SCMBA – as Romans 11:36 says,
"For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen."

Report of Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee

Tony Beam, Chairman

The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee studies moral, social, and cultural conditions in today's society. Committee members work closely with the Office of Public Policy to educate the public on these issues. The committee meets at least four times each year.

We host an annual Bar-B-Que luncheon to show appreciation to our Senators, House members and Constitutional Officers. To encourage all members of the General Assembly to attend this function, we host it on the State House grounds.

A highlight each year is the announcement of the annual E.A. McDowell Award recipient. This award recognizes an individual who exemplifies Christian action in the public arena, whether politics, government, or community action. Additionally, the committee recognizes one church in our convention that shows similar commitment in the area of social and moral concerns by conferring the Impact Your World award.

This year, the committee decided to commend one state senator and one House member who have championed the family and strong moral values in the most recent legislative session. Members of the committee believe this is one more way to show appreciation for a job well done and to encourage our elected leaders to promote strong moral values in the laws they write.

This year was the most successful legislative year we've experienced in the life of the Office of Public Policy. Positive legislation that passed includes: option for women considering abortion, restrictions placed on sex offenders, restrictions on cable television programming, posting the Ten Commandments in public buildings, and authorizing public prayer. Legislation we stopped included: gambling expansion, video poker, sale of alcohol on Election Day, and sale of non-alcoholic merchandise in liquor stores.

The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee continues to support and encourage the following like-minded organizations:

- Palmetto Family Council
- Truth Ministry
- SC Citizens for Life
- SC Parents Involved in Education
- Local Pregnancy Care Centers

Members of the committee are grateful for the opportunity to serve South Carolina Baptists and look forward to continue making a positive impact in the future.

Report of History Committee

Donald Bowick, Chairman

Our historic Convention has indeed been blessed with a great history that shows our Lord has guided our illustrious past. This year your SCBC History Committee met twice (February 15 and August 27) at the Convention Building as a part of our assigned tasks. Both meetings were productive in the pursuit to preserve materials pertinent to the history of South Carolina Baptist.

Progress on the SCBC Historical Room at the Convention Building continues with the acquisition of a great amount of microfilm and a microfilm reader. The microfilm collection includes most of the SCBC Convention Annals from its beginning in 1821. Microfilm of the Baptist Courier since its inception as Working Christian is continuing to be brought up-to-date. Other added resources include church and associational histories, a collection of hymnals used by Baptists across the years, gifts of historical importance from individuals, families, churches, and associations. We hope to continue to build a collection of materials and equipment that should aid Baptist and other researchers with important information of Baptists that concerns not only past history but their present ministry which includes Empowering Kingdom Growth. Books, music, and other publication by SCBC staff and pastors, church and associational histories are being added almost daily to the collection. Help for researchers is available not only through this historical collection but through referral to other institutions and agencies such as Anderson, Charleston Southern, and North Greenville Universities. Furman has an abundance of materials in the collection placed there by Baptists throughout our history. The University of South Carolina's South Carolinian Library is also a place where our history may be investigated.

This committee is especially grateful to Mark Jeffcoat, director of SCBC's Support Services Group, for his encouragement and help with our endeavors. With his guidance the committee seeks to provide over thirty services and resources that can be a great help to researchers who have a desire to preserve our heritage for future generations. His recent letter to churches, associations, etc. has seen overwhelming response. Dozens of histories of churches have been received. Each of these will be given due recognition.

We have been blessed this year through the part-time employment of Jane Poster. She serves as the history consultant at the Convention Building. She is doing a fabulous job in keeping up with the Historical Room and the Archives as well as the attractive historical displays found by the elevators on every floor of the Convention Building. Others who serve include Cindy Hale, part-time history assistant and Jan Berrian, Support Services assistant.

You are encouraged to share with the committee and the SCBC staff ideas that you feel will be helpful in our desire to serve the churches of the South Carolina Baptist Convention.

MINISTERIAL STAFF DIRECTORIES

Most church staff directories appearing on the following pages have been compiled from computerized mailing files rather than from the church profiles to the association.

Unlike the statistical tables which have historical value, these directories are primarily mailing lists.

Inasmuch as the computerized mailing files are updated almost daily, we believe that these directories provide the most accurate and current information available as of February 12, 2008.

Statistics Summary and Tables

Notes:

These statistical and financial tables contain a report from each church and mission in friendly cooperation with South Carolina Baptist Convention. The Convention's constitution does not make a distinction between churches and missions. In the case of missions, whose information also may be reported by the sponsoring church, there is the possibility of duplicate reporting of some statistics.

Except for the first four financial columns (marked with an *), all data is taken from the Annual Church Profile as processed by the Data Processing Office. This information reflects the church year as reported by the churches. The first four financial columns are from the Convention's audited records and reflect the calendar year. There is no duplication of information in these columns. The Budget Gifts amount includes regular Cooperative Program giving (support for the South Carolina Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention) plus cooperative gifts (support for South Carolina Baptist Convention causes only or Southern Baptist Convention causes only).

The pastor's name listed for each church is that in the SCBC computer system on January 28, 2009. This pastor may not have been the pastor during the reporting period.

Each church is listed in the association in which it was a member during the 2007-2008 church year. Churches that transferred from one association to another during 2008 are typically listed with the association to which they belonged at the beginning of 2008, the change becoming effective at the first of 2009. Following the list of associations is a list of churches that were not affiliated with an association recognized by SCBC. Every effort has been made to footnote changes in association membership that have occurred since the last printing of Convention Annual.

Any church affiliated with the SCBC that did not submit an Annual Church Profile is listed with the notation, "No Annual Church Profile Received," and no statistical information is given.

The attached exhibits are submitted for your convenience. These exhibits have been taken from the annual audited financial statements for the South Carolina Baptist Convention, its institutions, and Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to South Carolina Baptist Convention.

The exhibits are considered incomplete presentations since they do not contain a complete set of basic financial statements and note disclosures. Some institutions observe different fiscal years; therefore, the dates of their reports vary.
