

SOUTH CAROLINA BAPTIST DISASTER RELIEF

ANNUAL AWARDS

Use the form on the next page to nominate a deserving DR volunteer for one of these SC Baptist Disaster Relief awards:

Watson Award:

Named for Choice and Grace Watson, founding members of SCBC DR and influential in DR nationally, this award is given to an individual or couple who personifies a lifetime of service in Disaster Relief. Local, state, and national Disaster Relief service is a prerequisite for this award.

Tommy Thompson Award:

This award is named for a former associational DR director in the Williamsburg Association who was a stalwart in the rural areas of our state. This award goes to an individual who leads by example in the smaller membership/rural areas of South Carolina.

Buck Buckner Award:

“Buck” was DR director for Moriah Association, a Red Cross volunteer, and president of Campers on Mission. The award named in his memory goes to an individual who has been a leader in both SCBC DR and in an allied area such as the American Red Cross, Salvation Army, Emergency Management, Campers on Mission, etc.

Permelia Creamer Award:

Permelia was an SCBC DR volunteer who showed how to live out the call of a Christian in all that she did. The award named for her is given to honor outstanding service to Disaster Relief ministry by a woman.
