

SOUTH CAROLINA BAPTIST CONVENTION

TUESDAY EVENING

Nov. 15, 2022

202nd
Annual Meeting

SESSION FOUR | REVIVAL

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

After a full day of hearing about the ministry happening in our state and attending to convention business, we are looking forward to spending dedicated time in worship and hearing from Dr. Robby Gallaty.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON RECAP

In his President's Address, Wayne Bray urged messengers and their churches to "Wake Up" to the mission of God, referencing Revelation 3:1-3. He warned against elevating cultural Christianity above true Christianity.

We also heard from Laurie Register, current Executive Director-Treasurer of WMU, and introduced her successor upon her retirement, Jess Archer. Archer will officially begin the role January 1. She is a graduate of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. We are so thankful for Laurie and her over 29 years of service to WMU, 14 of those as EDT.

As we conclude this year's Annual Meeting, we extend our thanks for attending and participating in the Lord's work being done here in South Carolina and extending to the nations.

In his final address as Executive Director-Treasurer, Dr. Gary Hollingsworth noted a few of the challenges that arose over his years in the position including Covid-19, racial tensions, and sexual abuse in the SBC. "God knows about these challenges and others yet to come, but our confidence lies in God and God alone. We can fret over the challenges or we can embrace the opportunities around us to share the hope of the Gospel," he said.

"South Carolina Baptists, don't let the devil destroy our witness to a lost and dying world." We are so thankful for Dr. Hollingsworth and his service to South Carolina. Please join us in praying for him and be praying for the next Executive Director-Treasurer.

Any lost items will be at the Information Desk by Registration.
