

Welcome to KIDSALT 2024

// Dear 2024 KIDSALT Group Leader //

Thank you for choosing KidSalt 2024 as your camp experience. Our staff is in place and preparing for our best summer ever! We are also praying specifically for your church, children, and leadership. Included are several items that will require your attention to best prepare for your week at camp. Please take a moment to read through these items.

KidSalt 2024 Statement (via mail) – This statement will be mailed to you and shows the deposits paid and your balance due no later than check-in at registration for your week at KidSalt. If the information is incorrect or you would like to add (space permitting) or reduce the number attending, please contact Mellette Teague as soon as your numbers change at melletteteague@scbaptist.org. You can also request an emailed copy of your statement at any time.

KidSalt 2024 Participants Form (page 21) – This form is vital for preparing housing for your group and helps us prepare how our Bible study groups will be structured for your week at camp. This form can be found on page 22, or an online editable version can be found on our website at kidsalt.org/group-leaders. This form must be scanned and emailed to melletteteague@scbaptist.org at least 2 weeks before arriving. Yes, we know things may change within 14 days. However, it is much easier to make one or two changes instead of adding an entire group to our housing list. Please mark your calendar to email this form to us 14 days before your first day of camp.

Background Screening Form (page 10) – This form screens adults to ensure they are safe to work with minors and needs to be completed by each person (adults and students) who are 18 years of age or older before camp. The link is also provided at kidsalt.org/group-leaders.

KidSalt Medical Release Form (via mail) – All children and adults must have a completed KidSalt Medical Release Form before arrival. For South Carolina churches, these forms only require a parent’s signature for students under 18. For churches outside of South Carolina, these forms require a notarized parent’s signature for students under 18. These forms will be mailed to you. We are happy to mail additional forms as needed. Children will not be able to participate in any events until a properly completed form has been secured. When arriving for check-in and registration, please group these forms in alphabetical order and separate them by color to expedite the registration process.

Allergy Report Form (page 23) – Please list all food allergies for all your children and adults on this form before you arrive for camp. This form is not for dislikes but for severe allergies only. We will communicate these allergies with the cafeteria staff at Charleston Southern to help them prepare meals for children or adults during your week at KidSalt. This form can be found on page 23, or an online editable version can be found on our website at <https://kidsalt.org/group-leaders>. This form must be scanned and emailed to melletteteague@scbaptist.org at least 14 days before arriving to camp.

Special Needs Report Form (page 24) – KidSalt is an equal opportunity camp for children whose needs can be reasonably accommodated. Please fill out the special needs report form to make us aware of any children in your group with special needs or disabilities. This form can be found on page 24, or an online editable version can be found on our website at <https://kidsalt.org/group-leaders>. This form must be scanned and emailed to melletteteague@scbaptist.org at least 14 days before arriving to camp.

// FACILITIES //

- Housing is comprised of two typical dorm rooms (3 twin sized beds and/or cots) connected with 1 bathroom (2 sinks). We typically house 3 people per room/6 per suite.
- There must be at least 1 chaperone per suite.
- Chaperones should never room alone with a child (unless the chaperone is the legal parent or guardian of the child).
- We will secure the number of rooms necessary for your group. Each church is responsible for assigning the members of their group to a room.
- If you have any special rooming requests or safety concerns, please communicate these to us at least 14 days prior to your arrival at camp.

// packing list //

KIDSALT general information

// additional information for parents and leaders //

- The emergency phone number for KidSalt at Charleston Southern University is 843-553-5896. This number dials straight to Charleston Southern University security and is for emergencies only.
- If you would like to send a letter or note to a camper, you may do so by mailing it to Charleston Southern University, campers name, name of the church, c/o KidSalt, 9200 University BLVD, North Charleston, SC 29406. We recommend secretly giving this address to parents and other church members, asking them to write to your campers. You might want to assign a child to an adult prayer partner who will write to them so that no one is left out. Be sure adults understand to send letters and notes before your church leaves for camp, so the student will receive their letter.
- There will be a KidSalt store where we will sell merchandise that can only be bought while at camp. KidSalt merchandise will include items such as t-shirts, pens, notebooks, stickers, toys, and much more.
- Charleston Southern University also has a campus store with CSU merch and a canteen where they sell snacks and drinks. There are also vending machines across campus.

// chaperone guidelines //

- One responsible male adult chaperone is required for every five male children, and one responsible female adult chaperone is required for every five female children.
- Chaperones should be mature and responsible Christian adults (21 years of age or older) who relate well with children. College students may be used as chaperones if they have the maturity needed and provided there is at least one adult chaperone 21 years of age or older with the group. College students acting as chaperones will need to attend the adult Bible study group.
- Be sensitive in ministering to your children on a one-on-one basis. Look for loners and those who are wrestling with problems and decisions. However, there is an expectation not to be alone with a child at any time.
- Each night there will be a time for church group devotions. We will provide devotional material that you may wish to use during this time, or you may plan your own if that better meets your needs. You might include a brief recap of the day, a prayer time, and a time for children to share their thoughts and feelings, especially as the week progresses. Plan for approximately 30 minutes each night. Suggestions for group devotions will be communicated to you during the adult Bible Study time.
- Your children won't have much chance to benefit from the week unless they participate fully and are alert. That means getting sleep and getting to all scheduled programs and activities. Chaperones will need to help see that their assigned children are at their designated locations when they are supposed to be there.
- It's vital for all chaperones to understand, support, and fully enforce camp guidelines. Individual churches or chaperones do not have the privilege of adjusting the rules for their church or children. Such flexibility is not feasible when numerous groups are involved in a week at camp.
- Each day there will be a Bible study/information meeting for chaperones. All chaperones need to attend. This is not an optional time.

// kidsalt event descriptions //

Disorientation KidStyle:

Disorientation happens on Monday afternoon after check-in and move in. All children and leaders will meet in the chapel. During this time, our KidSalt staffers will present the rules and expectations of camp in a fun and exciting way! This is done through live skits, videos, and interactive games.

Adult Orientation:

After Disorientation KidStyle, children are taken to their bible study groups and adults will attend the adult orientation. In the adult orientation, KidSalt leadership will go over the rules and expectations of camp specifically for group leaders and chaperones, and answer any questions you may have.

Just Kiddin':

Just Kiddin' takes place on Monday night. This is a time designed for campers to get to know the KidSalt staff. Our staffers write and produce various on-stage skits and videos for the sole purpose of relating to children on their level by being silly and having some fun. This time helps to "break the ice" the first night at camp.

Get Salty:

Get Salty is our missions experience at KidSalt. In years past, campers have stuffed pillows that were taken to the SC Department of Social Services for children in the foster care system, they've put together evangelism kits to take home with them in order to equip them to better share the love of Jesus with their neighbors, and they've created "Best Year Ever" boxes filled with family fun and faith-filled adventures for foster care families to enjoy and use to make lifelong memories together.

KidSalt event descriptions

//kidsalteventdescriptionscontinued//

KidSalt Krave:

After Get Salty, we roll into KidSalt Krave! KidSalt Krave is a high-energy experience that both campers and chaperones are sure to love. Each year may look a little bit different, but the excitement is sure to stay the same! In years past, we've had huge dance parties with a live DJ and glow sticks. We've also had an outdoor block party with live music, snow cones, and super fun activities and games to play.

Salt Wars:

Salt Wars is our special event that takes place on Tuesday night at KidSalt. It is a camp-wide activity that goes hand-in-hand with the theme. For instance, for "Gamechanger," Salt Wars consisted of high-intensity mega-sports games outside on the field. For "Warrior," Salt Wars was an extreme obstacle course lined with tiki torches. The competition is fierce during Salt Wars, as campers battle it out to win points for their team color.

KidSalt Track Registration

//kidsalt Track registration //

This year, we are moving to using online registration forms in place of the participant form. We have a copy of the participant form attached in this packet for your use and convenience only.

To log your group's information, you will need to log back into your Brushfire registration using your passcode from your original registration. If you need help, please contact Mellette Teague at melletteteague@scbaptist.org.

With the management link, you will click Manage Attendees on the right side of the screen. Next, click the first KidSalt Registration spot and then choose "Edit/Complete Info." You will need the following information for each spot that you have registered:

- Name
- Gender
- Grade Completed
- T-Shirt Size
- Track 1 (Options 1-3)
- Track 2 (Options 1-3)

After you fill in the information for the first spot, click Update in the bottom right hand corner. You will then need to fill out the information for all of your registered spots with the same information listed above. Click Update after adding each person's information.

KIDSALT TRACK INFORMATION

// KIDSALT TRACKS //

- Children have the opportunity to choose tracks to participate in during camp. Tracks take place during the afternoon on Tuesday and Wednesday.
- On the next two pages, you will find descriptions for each one of the tracks. You can print these pages out to share with the children in your group.
- There is also a KidSalt track card that you can print out and give to the children in your group to fill out. They will write down their top 3 choices for track 1 and their top 3 choices for track 2. Once they give this form back to you, you will use this information to fill out the participants form. The participants form can be found on page 22 or on our website at kidsalt.org/group-leaders. This form must be emailed to us at least 14 days prior to your arrival at camp.
- Tracks are assigned on a first come first serve basis. For a better chance of the children in your group getting assigned to their first or second track choice, please turn in your participants list as soon as possible. If a track fills up before your list is turned in, a child may get their third choice or be placed in a track that is not already full.
- Your church's track assignments will be given to you at check-in when you arrive to KidSalt. Because track assignments are not final until the start date of camp communicate any.

How to pray for this summer

// how to pray //

We try to offer the best camp experience possible, but we still know that programs are not what change lives. Apart from Christ, we can do nothing of lasting value. Would you commit to praying in the areas suggested below? Invite other chaperones, parents, and even the children themselves to be praying in advance for their KidSalt experience.

- List and pray for children from your church going to KidSalt: Write down special needs where known. What would you like to see God do in each of their lives?
- List and pray for children who have not signed up for KidSalt. Who would benefit from the experience?
- List and pray for chaperones that are going with your church.
- Pray for families of children going to KidSalt: Write down any specific needs of which you are aware.
- Pray for adult chaperones that will be serving alongside you.
- Pray for our KidSalt Staff.
- Pray for our Leadership and Camp Pastors.
- Pray for Charleston Southern University and its support staff.
- Pray for yourself that God will use this experience in your own life.
